POST OFFICE BUSY

As Result of New Order From Washington

Employees Must Make Written Daily Itemized Reports on All Mail Matter Handled and Time Consumed in Handling It

The employees of the postoffice, carriers and clerks, have a job on their hands that will make them go some for this month at least as the result of an order by Postmaster-General Hitchcock recently sent all over the country. It seems that the postmaster-general desires to learn more of the detail of the department and hence has called for a daily report from each individual employee of the mail matter handled during the period of special count from May 1 to May 31 inclusive, including outgoing mail, incoming mail, mail collected, and mail delivered.

Each collector must report on the number of letters, postals, etc., etc., that he collects and the time he takes in collecting. Each sorter must report on the number of packages that he sorts, either incoming or outgoing, and the time it takes him to sort them. Each carrier must report on the number of letters, postals, papers, etc., that he delivers and the time he takes to do it. Under the different classes the nature of the business must be itemized and the time given in hours.

and minutes. Owing to great variety of mail matter handled the detail is great and the employees have one big job on their hands. What the object of the unusual order is a mystery to all postal employees. They have simply been ordered to do the work and they are doing it.

REBEL LEADERS

In Hopes That Further Fighting Will Not be Necessary

General Navarro Has Been Paroled With His Officers—The Insurrectos Are Now Well Provided With Ammunition—Another Attempt at Peace Will be Made

JUAREZ, Mex., May 11.—The insurrectos are determined not only to hold Juarez against any attack but to prevent a fight in this vicinity if possible. Plans were being laid at the insurrecto headquarters today for a force of several hundred men to march south to meet General Rabago, the federal leader who is reported to be on his way here from Chihuahua, with a good sized army. The rebels already have about three hundred men at Casas Grandes and probably will open fire on Rabago when he arrives there. It is not known what chief will be sent south from Juarez.

The town was quiet today for the first time in several days. The inhabitants slept peacefully in their homes while insurrecto sentries stood guard. General Navarro, who was paroled with his officers last night, spent the night in the same house with General Francisco Madero, Jr. Though the federal commander now has been given the liberty of the city he does not deem it safe to be seen much about town because there are said to be several insurrectos who cherish a grudge against him for alleged bayoneting of the wounded in other battles of the revolution. Rebel officers, however, have given strict orders not to harm any of the paroled federals. The insurrectos today are the conquerors in a town which is the most important capture of the revolution, not only because it is a port of entry from the United States and that the insurrectos believe that within the next 24 hours food and supplies will be crossing the line to them unmolested but because they are now in possession of about 450,000 rounds of ammunition, several machine guns and field pieces, about 700 Mauser rifles and enough ammunition belts to wage a furious warfare for some time to come. But though the rebels are flushed with victory and some eager to pursue the fight throughout all of Mexico till the capital of the republic shall have fallen, conservative rebel leaders are hoping that the bloody battle of Juarez will be the last chapter of the military side of the revolution. Having demonstrated their strength in the field, they now wish to turn their attention to the argument of words and public opinion. They are now ready to listen to proposals from the government, and today Senors Brantiff and Obregon, go-betweens heretofore, are feeling the opinion of insurrecto chiefs as to the best way for reopening peace negotiations.

MOST PICTURESQUE
OF MEXICO

JUAREZ, Mex., May 11.—Juarez surrendered most picturesquely after the bloodiest battle of the revolution, and is the provisional capital of Mexico.

Francisco J. Madero, Jr., provisional president, was the last insurrecto to enter. He rode into the city in an automobile decorated with the tricolors of the revolutionary flag, and forthwith established himself in the city hall.

The federals are not so greatly cast down. On the contrary, they appear to relish their defeat and have become the loudest shouters of that rebel cry, "Viva Madero!" which, by the way, is becoming less frequent and fainter on the lips of insurrectos.

When it comes to shouting "Viva Orozco!" there is always sure to be a volume of noise, for the late president and chief military commander of the insurrection is very popular since the attack on Juarez began.

There was a splendid dash and determination in the way the rebels entered upon the business of taking the city from the federals.

It was a perilous feat to be achieved, and some very clever military strategists predicted failure, but none of them reckoned on the fighting ability of the rebels and the lukewarm attitude of the federals on the other side.

When the final attack began, the rebels had everything in Juarez but the arsenal, the city hall, various other buildings of military advantage near the municipal center, and the great Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe. It was around this noble structure that the battle was fiercest. There the federals held their ground unmoved for three hours while the battle moved in smaller and still smaller circles upon them.

At noon the federals, with a last defiant volley, followed with sundry yells denoting fear, evacuated the cathedral and rushed to the arsenal, a thick-walled quadrangle, where they were massed under the personal command of General Navarro, commander of Juarez.

BODIES BURIED

OF THOSE WHO FELL AT TIA JUANA

TIA JUANA, Lower Calif., May 11.—The bodies of those who fell here Thursday were buried yesterday. The bodies of Captain Sam Wood and his insurrecto were placed in one grave while those of nine federals were taken to San Diego and interred in the Catholic cemetery. W. Hopkins, a Welchman, was unanimously elected captain today to succeed Captain Woods. Price continues in command, however.

SUPT. WELCH

Says That the South Common is Well Policed

A reporter of The Sun interviewed Superintendent Redmond Welch this morning about the supposed rowdiness being carried on on the South common, and the chief of police made the following statement:

"We are yet to receive the first complaint from anyone who was ever in-sulted on the South common. That place is as well policed, if not better, than any other part of the city. There are three officers night and day patrolling the vicinity of the common, and I do not believe that there is one single minute in 24 hours, that there

THE DODGE TRIAL

Court Will Instruct Jury Not to Consider First Degree Verdict

States Attorney Began His Argument to Jury Shortly After Court Opened—The Case May Go to the Jury Before Night—The Court Room Was Crowded Today

GUILDHALL, Vt., May 11.—The life of Mrs. Florence Dodge will not be forfeited, even if the jury which has heard the evidence in her trial for the alleged murder of William Heath at her home in Lunenburg, Vt., decides that she is responsible for the man's death. In a statement made before the court convened today Judge Alfred Hall of St. Albans, who is presiding at Mrs. Dodge's trial at the Essex county courthouse in this town, said that when he charges the jury he will instruct them not to consider a verdict of murder in the first degree. The law of Vermont, Judge Hall said, provides that premeditation must be shown in order to warrant a conviction for first degree murder and in the case on trial, the judge explained, the prosecution has not introduced any evidence to show premeditation on the part of Mrs. Dodge. Judge Hall said that he would instruct the jury to consider three possible verdicts, namely, guilty of murder in the second degree, guilty of manslaughter, and acquittal.

Thirteen minutes after court opened today States Attorney Amey began his argument for the state. The case may go to the jury before night. "The courtroom was jammed to its capacity long before the session convened at 9 o'clock and many persons waited outside the doors in the hope of being able to capture a seat that might be secured by its occupant during the proceedings," Mrs. Dodge, with her usual smile, took her seat inside the is not a police officer around the common.

Formerly there were but two policemen patrolling that vicinity, but about a month ago an additional officer was put on, and the three beats come right in on the common. The officers on both shifts are all conscientious, efficient and reliable men, and their orders from headquarters are to drive away from the common all obnoxious or indecent persons, and they observe the orders to their fullest capacity. These patrolmen are: Messrs. Swauwick, O'Keefe and J. H. Clark on the night shift, and Killey, Cagger and Kennedy on the day shift.

"As far as baseball is concerned, the pupils of the Edison school have been enjoying that favorite game for a number of years, and to come to the fine point, the game is being played near the school on the Highland street side ever since the building was erected, and that is over 60 years ago. The officers are always on the lookout and at all hours they have an eye out for rowdies. On Saturday and Sunday evenings an extra policeman is detailed to the vicinity of the common, and when band concerts are given during the summer months, three or four extra men patrol the common."

The superintendent concluded by saying that the first complaint is yet to come, which it is to be presumed means that it is in order for those who have any grievance to notify the superintendent without delay.

GOLDEN JUBILEE VASELINE

HIS EMINENCE CARDINAL GIBBONS

Of Cardinal Gibbons' Ordination to Priesthood Observed

NEW YORK, May 11.—In honor of the golden jubilee of his ordination as a priest and the silver jubilee of his elevation to be a cardinal, the Catholic club gave a reception to Cardinal Gibbons last night.

Six pages in black velvet court uniforms, shaded with white, and four young men, wearing light-colored tuxedos with scarlet ribbons met the cardinal at the clubhouse entrance. Following him were acolytes in white surplices, the knight commander of the Order of St. Gregory in full court uniform, members of the order wearing its gold and silver decorations, and prelates of the church from New York and other cities. The procession was greeted as it passed from the club rooms by a reception committee, the members of which carried tiny candles and gold flags. They escorted the guest of honor to the ballroom, where a throne had been prepared for him.

With Archbishop Farley at his right and Frank Gammon, president of the Catholic club, at his left, Cardinal Gibbons took his seat upon the throne. Among the churchmen there were Bishop Caspary of New York, Bishop McSheehy of South Africa, Bishop McDonnell of Brooklyn, Mrs. Mooney, Lavette and Kearney. Waiting to be presented were more than 2000 men and women who thronged the ballroom and adjoining rooms, which were decorated with the papal colors of yellow and white.

Stars and Stripes on Throne

Back of the cardinal's throne were American flags, and the American colors were prominent in the throne itself. The shield, bearing the coat of arms, was quartered in the American colors and decorated with a star, representing Columbia. Above the shield was a cross, and above that was a cardinal's hat, the tassels of which were draped in a conventional design.

Three lion heads, studded with gold and silver, indicated the nature of the jubilee being celebrated, while the cardinal's motto, "Emite Spiritum Tuum," formed the shield's base. It was a piece of heraldic designing such as had never been attempted in America before, and was considered by the thousands who gazed at it as an effective grouping of the American colors in a manner to serve the purpose of honoring the church's one American prince.

Only a brief program of speeches preceded the presentation of the club's guests to Cardinal Gibbons. President Gammon welcomed the distinguished visitor to the Catholic club on behalf of its directors and members, and expressed the hope that he would be present again in the near future to attend the ceremonies planned in honor of the forthcoming jubilee of Archbishop Farley's service in the church. As presiding officer of the evening he introduced Father Victor J. Dowling of the court of appeals.

TROMBLEY LOST

Couldn't Throw Pappas Within Agreed Time

Eugene Trombley, lightweight champion of the world, ran into a snag at the Star theatre last evening. He agreed to throw Kid Pappas twice in an hour but didn't throw him at all and hence lost the match. Trombley was on top most of the time but couldn't turn over the Greek.

John Kilian and Wilfred Barrette went 15 minutes in an exciting match, without a fall.

James Pappas of Manchester threw Mike Kapos of Lowell in 12 minutes. Nelson Demaree referred the preliminaries, and Wilfred Barrette officiated in the final.

The bouts were put on under the management of John Kilian.

HOUSES BLOWN DOWN

Terrific Windstorm in Minnesota and North Dakota

MOORHEAD, Minn., May 11.—A great funnel shaped cloud bringing with it a terrific wind here down on Felton, 20 miles north of this city, yesterday afternoon, tore down a dozen buildings, blew in every good sized window in the village and tore up trees in large numbers. Andrew Peterson, a farmer living two and one-half miles from Felton, was seriously injured when his barn was overturned. At Fargo, N. D., two dozen houses and barns were blown down and many of them were carried far across country. Hundreds of windows were shattered and the telephone and electric light service was demoralized. One farmer was seriously hurt. At Marion people rushed for their cellars to escape the debris and flying timbers.

BURNED TO DEATH

Baby Perished in Fire in House in Lynn

LYNN, May 11.—Less than three minutes after Mrs. James J. Foley had left her home at 45 Collins street, yesterday afternoon to go to a nearby store her 2-year-old daughter, Loretta, had been burned to death and her 4-year-old son, Walter, who sat the house afire while playing with matches in the kitchen, would have met a similar fate but for J. F. Murphy of 282 Harrison avenue, Boston, and Charles Thompson of 4 Silsbee street, had the men known of the presence of the baby in the house they might have rescued her, but the smoke in the kitchen was so dense that they failed to see the child on the floor.

When Mrs. Foley went to the store she locked the door. She had hardly got out of sight of the house when Murphy, who is a bill distributor, discovered fire in the kitchen. He shouted to Thompson. They forced two windows and entered the house. Murphy picked up the boy and passed him through a window to Mrs. Edward Conates of 78 Collins street. She told the men that there was a baby in the house and they started to search for the infant.

They looked over three rooms without finding the child, and it was not until Thompson saw what he thought was a pile of rags burning on the floor, under the kitchen table, that the infant was discovered.

Thompson reached down to throw the bundle out of a window and discovered it was the body of the child. The clothing was completely consumed and the child's body was horribly burned. Just as the firemen reached the house Mrs. Foley returned, and when she was told of the death of her child she was prostrated. The fire did slight damage to the kitchen.

day, and the ceremony was performed by Recorder R. S. Mangum in the parlor of his home at Tenafly, N. J. The general's daughter, Miss Harriet W. James, stood up with the bridegroom and did quite as well as a best man, for the general calls her "Harry." She is 55.

The bride arrived in an automobile at Glen Burnie, the general's lovely stone villa at Highwood, midway between Englewood and Tenafly, shortly after 12 o'clock, with her brother, A. M. MacDonnell, and Mrs. Barbara Cook, whose husband was Frederick Cook, a former secretary of state. The general had long been waiting and leaped spryly into the car. Two old employees of the Lincoln National bank, of which General James is president, Mr. to Maundy and Charles Nunier, were at the wedding party and they were off for the reception of Tonawanda.

SPLENDID SPRING TONIC

AT SMALL COST

(From Martyn's Drug Journal)

As millions of bottles of various blood medicines and liver regulators are taken yearly to tone up the blood, restore vitality and healthy conditions to the body, it will not be amiss for us to repeat the formula of an old-time remedy that has been used with marvellous success.

Dissolve one ounce of karoene in one-half pint alcohol, then add one-half cup sugar and enough hot water to make a quart. The ingredients can be had at any drug store at small cost. One tablespoonful of this tonic taken before each meal will soon correct all disorders of the liver, make the blood clear, and strengthen and build up the system most satisfactorily. For correcting sallow, pimply complexion, and giving one vigor and good health, we have never found a remedy to equal it.

PARALYSIS YIELDS TO DR. WILLIAM'S PINK PILLS

Many Forms of the Dread Disease Are Curable by this Remedy

MR. LUCAS SAYS IT SAVED HIS LIFE

This Cleveland Man Was Getting Worse All the Time When He Began the Treatment But Improvement Quickly Followed—Read His Grateful Statement.

Fresh proof is furnished almost daily of the wonderful power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in the treatment of the most severe nervous disorders. No claim is made for the treatment that is not substantiated by proof that is open to the most rigid investigation and the evidence is indisputable that there are many forms of paralysis that are readily curable by these tonic pills. In cases that are not entirely curable the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills often results in such radical improvement that life is once more made worth living to the formerly hopeless sufferer.

The evidence upon which the claims of this remedy is based is not confined to a single cure. All over the United States there are men and women giving about their daily occupations with little or no inconvenience, who, before taking the treatment, had been declared beyond the help of medicine. No sufferer from a severe nervous disorder who has not tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should abandon hope, for the remedy that has brought about these marvellous results for others is surely entitled to a thorough trial.

The Latest Evidence

The most recent case to come to public attention is that of Mr. D. L. Lucas, of No. 2133 East 104th street, Cleveland, Ohio, a man well known in real estate circles in that city. He had a remarkable escape from death as is shown by the following statement:

"My trouble started with a stomach disorder, but I believe that malnutrition was the original cause and this was the opinion of the doctors who attended me. Creeping paralysis finally resulted from the broken down condition of my health and I came very near to death. During the greater part of my sickness I could get about the house by holding on to articles of furniture but at times was confined to my bed.

Limbs Were Shrunken.

"The paralysis came on slowly but was never complete. I had trouble with my kidneys and my liver was torpid all the time. My lower limbs shrank perceptibly. I suffered 'some with shooting pains, my appetite was feeble and I was altogether in a terrible condition.

"When the disease was at its worst I called my wife to my bedside and told her that I was getting worse all the time and if I kept on in this way there would be no help for me. I had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People some time before and been benefited and I told her I thought that if I gave them a thorough, persistent trial they would do me good. She agreed with me and I started taking the pills. After a few doses I saw that the medicine was helping me and I continued the treatment, following the directions closely and observing strictly the instructions regarding diet and bathing.

bed, where he has long been a sufferer from a complication of diseases.

Yesterday noon, while the remainder of the family with relatives and friends who had called to offer their condolences were seated downstairs, Frederick's propped himself up in bed, preparatory to lighting a pipe. He was erect and enlivened with the fact that he had dropped the lighted match upon the bed and the clothing caught fire.

The fire spread with great rapidity and although he did his utmost to arouse those on the floor below, his cries were unanswered and he bravely attempted to extinguish the flames himself. While combating the flames he was badly burned about the face and arms, and when those downstairs finally became aware of the fire they found the sick man enveloped in flame and suffering great agony.

Miss Louisa Fredericks, a member of the family, telephoned station 18. The members of the engine 28 responded to the call and arrived and confined the fire to the room in which it originated. A damage of about $50 was caused.

When the excitement of the fire had subsided it was learned that Henry Fredericks' condition was serious. Dr. Matting who was summoned, found that the man's vitality, already weakened by his long illness, was greatly overtaxed and his condition yesterday afternoon was critical.

Can Now Walk Again.

"The improvement in my condition continued and I took the pills for eight months. My legs were able to get about, and could walk any reasonable distance. I know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People saved my life. My shrunken limbs are now restored to their normal condition and I am nearly free from the pains and the kidney and liver complications.

Opinion of a Physician.

"I know that if I had not taken the pills I would not be here today and to me that is the most important fact. I will say that I recently met in a business way, in one of the hotels of Cleveland, an eminent physician, a chief executive of a fraternal order of which I am a member. I described to him the trouble I had taken and he asked me what had caused my paralysis. I said, 'Indigestion.' The doctor was much interested and addressing a subordinate in the order he said: 'I want you to meet Mr. Lucas. He is a living, walking testimonial to the efficiency of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After all he has gone through it is a wonder he is alive.' This was a great deal for a physician to say and confirms what I have stated absolutely."

(Signed) D. L. LUCAS.

The evidence in such cases as that of Mr. Lucas should convince the most sceptical but there are many of the cures by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are so marvellous as to challenge belief, the following offer is made:

THOUGHT WIFE DEAD

Fruit Peddler Told Police He Had Killed Her

RUMFORD FALLS, Me., May 11.—An Italian banana peddler known as Joe Bill, startled Deputy Sheriff Niles this afternoon by giving himself into custody with the explanation that he had just killed his wife. A search was immediately started to find the body, but it was found that she was not dead, though in a dying condition.

YAQUI INDIANS FREIGHT RATES

Have Engaged in an Uprising Another Investigation is Ordered

DOUGLAS, Ariz., May 11.—The rising of the Yaqui Indians, who have been living peacefully in their settlements on the Yaqui river recently, but who are now making war on their own account, has furnished a new element in the already acute situation in the state of Sonora. American ships arrived yesterday from Guaymas, brought meagre details of the Yaqui rising. The Indians' first demonstration was against Ortiz, which they captured without resistance, looting the seven stores in the town, run by Chinese and Mexicans, confiscating the merchandise and pouring the liquors in the streets.

PROCTOR ILL

EMBEZZLEMENT CASE WAS NOT COMPLETED

GREENFIELD, May 11.—The embezzlement case against Sebastian Arthur Proctor of Northfield who was arrested six weeks ago following the announcement of a shortage of $5000 in the town finances was continued today at the request of the prosecution as the examination of the books had not been completed. Mr. Proctor was unable to be present, owing to illness.

DEATHS

KELLEY—Mrs. Georgianna A. Kelley died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oliver A. Leavitt, North Chelmsford. Her age was 77 years and eight months. Besides a daughter, she is survived by one grandson, Charles A. Leavitt, and one sister and one brother.

FAY—John Fay, aged 66 years, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bridget Luppold, 304 Rogers street.

REED—Mrs. M. J. Reed, aged 85 years, died this morning at the home of her son Bird C. Reed, 76 First street. Besides her son she is survived by five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Funeral notice later.

For more than forty years Mrs. Reed was a professional nurse and served through the great Spanish epidemic that visited this city. She was a very lovable woman and was a great friend of the little ones.

THE HOUSE

WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT REDUCTION OF B. & M. DIVIDEND

BOSTON, May 11.—Information regarding the reduction in the dividend of the Boston & Maine common stock from a six to a four per cent basis was requested of the railroad commission by the lower house of the legislature. The order making the inquiry was introduced yesterday by Rep. Haines of Medford and adopted today by a vote of 56 to 31.

BILL REJECTED

IT PROVIDED FOR CONSTITUTION FOR ALSACE-LORRAINE

BERLIN, May 11.—The bill providing a constitution for Alsace-Lorraine regarding which the government parties have been endeavoring for several months to reach an agreement, was rejected in its entirety in the committee of the reichstag today. The conservatives were dissatisfied with the compromise giving the provinces votes in the Bundesrath and the liberals were displeased with the concessions concerning the electoral laws and the language question. The reichstag will now attempt to settle the matter out of committee but the outlook for the bill is dubious.

A SUICIDE

POSTMASTER OF NATICK TOOK HIS LIFE

NATICK, May 11.—After suffering from a mental illness for the last six months, C. J. Wood, postmaster of Natick for the past twelve years, committed suicide by hanging in the shed of his home here today. Of late Mr. Wood had been unable to sleep nights and had been in the habit of getting up several times either to smoke or read. At one o'clock this morning Mrs. Wood was awakened by her husband, who said he was going to have a smoke as he could not sleep. Mrs. Wood went down stairs to see where her husband was, a few hours later and found his body hanging from a beam in the shed. Mr. Wood, who was 71 years old, was a Civil war veteran.

SIMON HOWE DEAD

MARLBORO, May 11.—Ending a protracted illness of a complication of heart and kidney disorders, Simon Herbert Howe, a prominent shoe manufacturer and first mayor of Marlboro, died in Southboro today, aged 75 years. Mr. Howe was president of the S. A. Carroll Shoe company, one of the largest manufacturing firms in the city. In 1890 when Marlboro was incorporated as a city, he was elected mayor and had also served two years in the governor's council. He is survived by a widow, a son and a daughter.

ENGLISH AVIATOR

NARROWLY ESCAPED HAVING HIS NECK BROKEN

MINEOLA, L. I., May 11.—Tom Sopwith, the English aviator who landed in this country only a few days ago, nearly broke his neck here today. The Blériot monoplane in which he was carrying Philip Wilcox, also an aviator of some note, was caught in a gust of wind at the "graveyard" turn of the field, whirled out of equilibrium, and pitched on its beam ends from a height of fifty feet. Only plucky manipulation prevented it from turning a complete somersault. Sopwith was thrown heavily and badly cut but rose without assistance. Wilcox landed on his feet and was not even scratched. The machine was wrecked.

KILLED HIMSELF

MAN HAD SUFFERED FROM NEUROUS TROUBLES

NEW YORK, May 11.—Charles D. Garnett, said to be a retired manufacturer of St. Louis, shot and killed himself today in Riverside park. Mrs. Garnett said that her husband had suffered from nervous troubles for some time past. He was 43 years old. They had been occupying apartments in this city for several weeks.

MADE WORLD'S RECORD

MOURMELON, France, May 11.—M. Nieupert, the French aviator, made what is recorded as a new world's record for 100 kilometers yesterday. Officially timed, he did 62.1 miles in 50 minutes and 4 seconds.

Manhattan, No. Billerica, Fri. eve.

The committee on next meeting, consisting of Brothers Reed, Osgood and McLean wishes to announce that cake and ice cream will be served free to members May 24.

OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT

BROOKLINE, May 11.—The 16th annual spring open golf tournament of the Country club opened today with the usual large field of local and out-of-town players, as well as a number of students from Harvard.

H. P. Farrington of Woodland, who won several events in the south during the past winter, led the field in the morning play, scoring an 81 on somewhat slow greens. Clubhouse scoring were: McKim, New York, 90; J. M. Richards, New York, 91; L. J. Hazleton, Brookline, 92.

MILITARY MASS

For the O. M. I. Cadets on June 4

There will be an important meeting of the O. M. I. Cadets at the armory, Immaculate Conception school hall, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. At this time arrangements will be made for the annual military mass which will be held on June 4. The services this year will be more elaborate than ever. The buglers and field band will be in attendance and the Cadets will occupy seats in the main aisle of the church. A special musical program will be rendered by the O. M. I. Cadet choir.

STRAW HATS

APPEARED IN LARGE NUMBERS IN BOSTON TODAY

BOSTON, May 11.—Straw hats blossomed like apple buds today under the general influence of an 86° in the shade temperature and in defiance of the unwritten law making the 26th instant the season's change to summer attire. The hot spell and dry weather enhanced the seriousness of the forest fire situation throughout the state and in some parts of the state the sun shone like a fierce ball through the dense pall of smoke.

A BRUSH FIRE

Early this afternoon a telephone alarm was sent to this city from North Chelmsford for a brush fire raging in the village. The chief immediately dispatched the Westford street chemical to the scene of the fire.

HAVERHILL WALLOPED

Gray's Speed Boys Were There
With 14 Hits

With a somewhat banged up team Lowell went to Haverhill. Lowell's hoodoo of last season, and cleaned them up to the tune of 9 to 1 so that it would appear that the hoodoo has disappeared.

Cover was out with a bad hand and Moulton held down shortstop, while Dugan, the utility man, played second. Then Barrows went back to the close of the game and Pitcher Warwick went into center.

Warwick was on the slab for Lowell and held Haverhill at his mercy. The home team narrowly escaped a whitewash. On the other hand Lowell was there for 14 hits. Warwick was at his best with men on bases when he made the home team look like selling plasters. With the bases full and one out in the ninth he struck out the next two batters.

Moulton led the batters with two singles and a double while Wright, the captain of the wrecking crew, got a double with three on bases clearing the bases. Warwick was there with a double and a single while Wright cracked a two sacker. Courtney, the Haverhill outfielder who went to the big league for a short time, is back on his old job in Haverhill and made three hits. Tom Fleming who managed the Lowell team for a brief interval during the regime of Al Winn, and who has been umpiring for the Lowell Textile school team officiated as decision-maker and gave a good account of himself.

TWO MEMBERS OF JAPANESE BALL TEAM NOW IN THIS COUNTRY

CHICAGO, May 11.—Professor Takito and Takasugi and his baseball students from Waseda university, Tokyo, are now occupying considerable space in the limelight here. Recently the Japs met and were defeated by the University of Chicago players by a score of 6 to 4. Although the oriental exponents of America's own pastime did not win, they surprised the fans by putting up a fast and clever brand of ball. Aside from stage fright and an elementary attack, they kept the Maroons on their mettle throughout and showed some brilliant base running and fielding. Omura, who pitched the entire nine innings, was on hand with steady wing and arm motion that fooled his opponents repeatedly. He fielded well, fanned two Maroons and held Chicago to seven hits, two of which were homers. Of at first base, Ohara at third, Omachi at short and Fukutani at third all starred in the infield in spots, while Yamaguchi was clever behind the bat. Mikami, Iseda and Yawata in the grounds were there with heady fielding.

TEXTILES WON

Tufts Seconds Were Easy for Lowell Team

The Textile school team defeated Tufts second team on the local campus yesterday by a score of 10 to 6. The visitors hitting well but playing a ragged fielding game. Aspinwall took things easy as he was saving his arm for the Exeter game in this city on Saturday. He showed class at the bat getting a home run. The Textiles ran bases in superb style getting 15 of them. Ford played a classy game at third. For the visitors Philan was the star, both at bat and in the field. Haskell, McLane and Godfrey also showed up well. The score:

ASKS INJUNCTION

Owners of Boston Nationals Disagree

BOSTON, May 11.—That there is friction between the owners of the Boston National league club, William Heburn Russell and L. Cones Page, who hold the offices of president and vice president, respectively, was disclosed yesterday afternoon when injunction proceedings were instituted by Mr. Page in the superior court.

Mr. Page asks that Mr. Russell be restrained from carrying out a plan to increase the number of members of the board of directors from four to five, alleging that the president would fill the additional place with a nominee of his own, and thereby obtain control of the business of the corporation to the exclusion of Mr. Page, which the latter alleges would be a violation of their contract that they should be equal partners.

Mr. Russell claims that in order to do the business of the club systematically and expeditiously it is necessary to have an odd number of directors, and that it cannot be so conducted without there is an equal division of the votes. He believes that corporations should be conducted under a majority rule, and does not think it will be held good law that one owning 191 shares out of 1000 can deadlock the management of the club when anything is undertaken that does not meet his approval.

Besides seeking to restrain Mr. Russell from increasing the number of directors at the special meeting of the stockholders of the club, which is called for May 17, Mr. Page also asks that the contract be enforced.

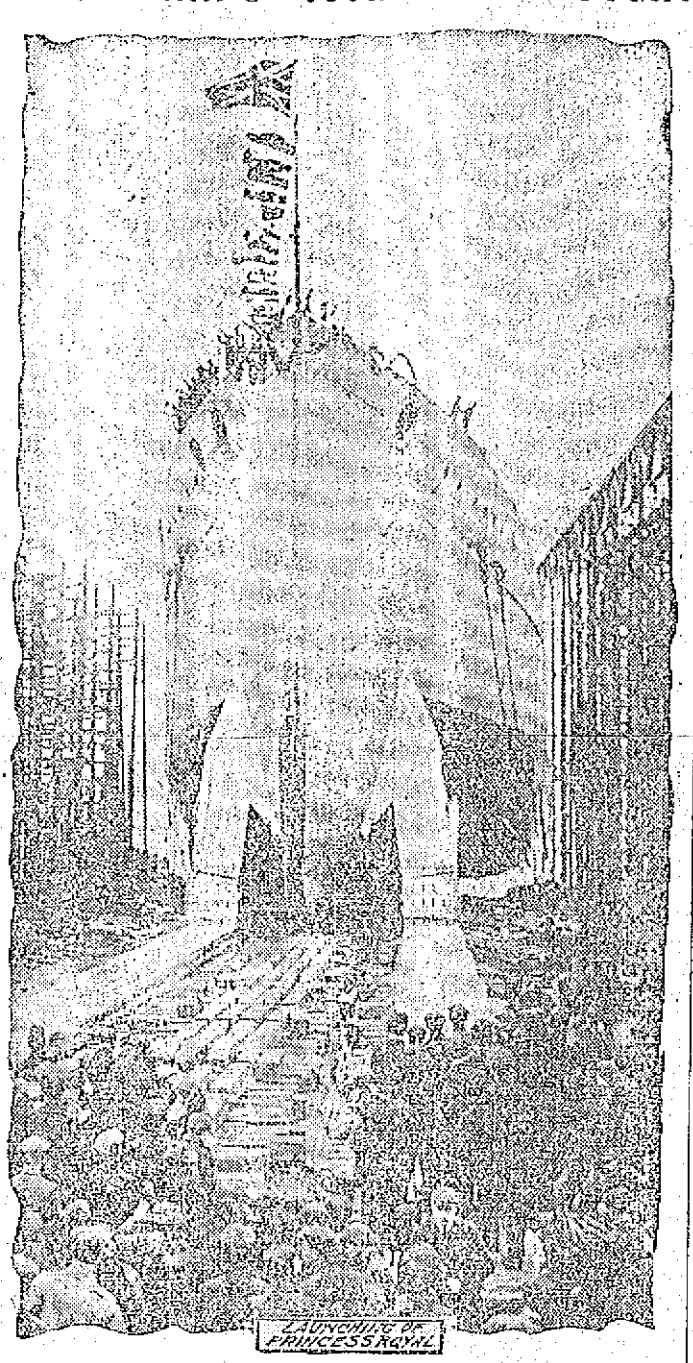

Coleman of the winning team holds the palm for excellent bowling, and to him is almost due the victory although the other members have done their share. The Alpiners put up a plucky fight for the first honors and for a time looked like sure winners. The C. M. A. C. bowlers also showed good form for a time but fell down towards the close.

The different teams and individual standings as provided by Thomas Kelley, are as follows:

LAUNCHING OF PRINCESS ROYAL,
BRITAIN'S 19TH DREADNOUGHT

LONDON, May 11.—Great Britain is determined to far outstrip all other nations in the building of warships of the mighty so called Dreadnought type. Her nineteenth Dreadnought, the Princess Royal, has just been launched at Messrs. Vickers' naval construction works at Barrow, where she was named by the princess royal, who was accompanied by her husband, the Duke of Devonshire, and her two daughters, Princess Alexandra and Princess Maud. The Princess Royal will have powerful batteries of eleven and thirteen inch guns.

that Mr. Russell be restrained from selling or transferring stock on which he has an option to purchase.
Judge Pierce issued an order of notice returnable May 16.

In the bill considered by Judge Pierce yesterday, the plaintiff declares that he and the respondent entered into a contract by which they were to have a joint interest; plaintiff paid $25,000 for 191 shares, one quarter interest in 765 shares then held by defendant, and had an option to buy another quarter on or before January 15, 1912, and to buy half the interest in any other shares the defendant might acquire. The plaintiff alleges defendant holds 380 of the 1000 shares of the capital stock.

Under their contract an executive committee of two was to conduct the business of the corporation and the plaintiff and the defendant were to comprise that committee.
The plaintiff alleges further that the proposed action of the defendant to increase the number of directors, so that the defendant can fill the additional place by a nominee of his own and thereby obtain control of the business of the corporation, to the exclusion of the plaintiff, will be in violation of the terms of the contract providing that they shall be partners.

Y. M. C. I. BOWLERS

Again Winners In the Catholic League

The Y. M. C. I. bowlers are again the winners of the Catholic league and eventually this team takes permanent possession of the Butler Ames trophy, which was offered to the team that would take first prize three years successively.

Coleman of the winning team holds the palm for excellent bowling, and to him is almost due the victory although the other members have done their share. INTERESTING PAPER

Read Before Lowell Historical Association by Miss Webster

Miss Mary A. Webster, for over 50 years a teacher in the high school, read a very interesting paper before the Lowell Historical association last night in Memorial hall. The paper was rich in reminiscence and the meeting was attended by former pupils of the high school and teachers as well as members of the association.

Miss Webster spoke of her entrance to the teaching staff of the school, Miss Eliza T. Bruley being elected to the corps at the same time. Dr. Hixon had left to join the army, Miss Raymond had left to join Mr. Kimball in the Dorchester school and Dr. John J. Colton had charge of the girls and taught science. His work was mainly Latin and Greek, but he was obliged to teach a variety of subjects.

Some of the subjects chosen for these in those days indicated much maturity of mind, as, for instance, "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Ephesians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Colossians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Thimotheus," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Titus," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Philemon," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Ephesians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Colossians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Thimotheus," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Titus," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Philemon," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Ephesians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Colossians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Thimotheus," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Titus," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Philemon," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans," "The Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians," "The Epistle of St. Paul to THE WATER BOARD

Will Recommend the Building of Two New Reservoirs

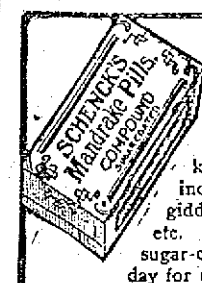

In the very near future the water board will recommend to the city council the building of two new reservoirs with a capacity of about 4,000,000 gallons each. It will be recommended that one of the reservoirs shall be covered. The covering will mean a considerable increase in the cost but it is deemed advisable and necessary that one of the reservoirs should be covered

In order to obscure the sun and prevent the growth of algae. The two reservoirs would cost, approximately, $75,000. Each of the reservoirs would be equal to a day's supply and one could do the work while the other was being cleaned. The old reservoir has not been cleaned for years because of the fact that there was not another reservoir to relieve it. The water board would recommend that the new reservoirs be built of reinforced concrete. This is not an absolutely new proposition on the part of the water board. It was outlined in The Sun several months ago but the water board had so much on its hands at that time that the reservoir proposition was allowed to remain in the background for the time being. The board had other big expenses to consider including the purchase of a new pump for the West Centralville pumping station and the acquisition of more land for new wells.

The board feels, however, that it can no longer delay its recommendation for the new reservoirs and do justice to the tax-paying water takers, especially the people in the highlands. The water supply for fire service in certain portions of the highlands is decidedly inadequate. The water board is willing to admit that that is so and the trouble is due to the fact that the old reservoir is too low. In some streets in the highlands the residents are short on water even for domestic purposes. The old reservoir is too low and is not capable of the necessary pressure. The proposed new reservoirs would be 30 feet higher than the old reservoir and that would mean much better service for the highlands. The water board says that the new reservoirs are an absolute necessity and the quicker they are built the better for the city as a whole. The proposed site for the new reservoirs is near the old reservoir, but on higher land and most of the land included in the proposed site is, it is stated, belongs to the city.

SUPREME COURT

To Decide Coal Land Case

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The fight over probably the richest coal lands in the world was transferred today to the supreme court of the United States when the government decided to appeal from the order of the federal court of Washington, quashing the so-called Stracey group indictment.

DANGER POINTS

Inspected by Waterways Committee

The committee on waterways, Councilman Coughlin, chairman, went out in automobiles at 2 o'clock this afternoon to view the danger points along the canal and rivers in Lowell. The committee on waterways was appointed as the result of an order introduced by Councilman Coughlin for the safeguarding of waterways throughout the city. After looking the home territory over the committee went to Medford to look into a system of protection against drawing installed there. Upon returning to Lowell the committee will meet and prepare its recommendations for the city council.

The sub-committee of the committee on appropriations will hold a conference with the public health commission tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The regular meeting of the board of health will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

VISITED PARKS

Henry F. Carr Already Displaying Interest

Although Henry F. Carr, whose appointment to the park board has been confirmed by the common council, is not a full fledged member of that body yet, still he is already displaying a lively interest in the work of the department. Yesterday he visited the South common and then traveled to Fort Hill park. He says that he was not at all satisfied with conditions on the common and saw several matters that he will call to the attention of the park board should he become a member, and that seems certain, as there is no doubt that the alderman will concur with the council in confirming the nomination. If Mr. Carr is as active as a park commissioner as he seems to be, a member of the common council, things will be stirring in that department. When in the council he introduced the order that provided for the renaming of the streets of the city, and he also presented the order to change the fire lines in Centralville, a measure that greatly encouraged building in that section. He took active interest in school matters also and was instrumental in having important improvements made in the Butler school including the installation of a new boiler. This morning Mr. Carr made an inspection of the north common.

TO CREMATE BODY
LONDON, May 11.—In accordance with the wish expressed in his will, which was executed today, the body of Lafayette the Great, the eccentric vaudeville performer who lost his life in the fire that destroyed the Empire music hall at Edinburgh, Tuesday, will be cremated and the ashes placed between the paws of his trained dog Beauty, the body of which rests in a pretentious tomb in Flers Hill cemetery at Edinburgh.

BIG AVIATION MEET
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 11.—With a total of 15 events scheduled for the first day, a three days' aviation meeting in which Glenn Curtiss, J. A. D. McCurdy and Lincoln Beachey are to be the chief participants, opened this afternoon at the Bridgeport aerodrome, a practically level tract of 32 acres of land enclosed by a high board fence. The flights are to be made under the direction of Mr. Curtiss and additional interest will be given them by the fact that United States army and navy officers will take part.

LACK OF RAIN

HAVING ITS EFFECT ON STREAMS AND RESERVOIRS

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 11.—The lack of rain this spring has been having the woods so dry that forest fires have spread through great areas in New Hampshire, is beginning to have a marked effect on streams and reservoirs. Both mills and water supply systems are already suffering to some extent and unless there is unusually heavy precipitation during the next two months it is feared that conditions this summer will be serious. At Franklin the water in the Winnipisaukee river has fallen to such an extent that some of the grinders in the pulp mills of the International Paper Co. have had to shut down and a number of pulp makers are out of work. Supt. Perry of the water department of the city of Dover expressed the opinion that it will be necessary to sink several artesian wells to prevent a water famine there. The water in Willard's pond, the principal source of supply for Dover, is now six inches lower than it was at this time last year.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KEEP CLEAN WITH CARBONOL

SOMETIMES soap-and-water cleanliness is enough. Sometimes aseptic cleanliness is absolutely necessary, and in such cases you should mix Carbonol in the water used in cleaning. A dash of Carbonol in a pail of water gives the whole mixture powerful disinfecting qualities. Garbage cans and all repositories of refuse should be cleaned with it to kill the germs, to keep away flies and to suppress odors. Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the cellar before sweeping and the musty smell will disappear. A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

THE LOWELL SUN

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

President Taft deserves credit for his firmness on the reciprocity measure. No doubt he feels that upon that he must stand or fall.

Speaker Walker of the Massachusetts house seems to be playing politics with great earnestness. He tried to offset his opposition to the federal income tax by moving for an amendment to the state constitution providing for a special form of income tax. In this he was wisely foiled as the federal amendment is likely to be adopted in the near future in spite of all opposition.

CAN WE HAVE HOME RULE?

The question arises whether the city of Lowell can secure from the legislature the privilege of conducting its own local affairs. Lowell is now before the legislature for the second time with a draft of a new charter for submission to the people. The last attempt was rejected by the legislature and if the present petition be also rejected, it will appear that we are denied the privilege of home rule and obliged to continue doing business under an antiquated charter that places responsibility nowhere and that encourages inefficiency and extravagance.

THE SITUATION IN MEXICO

It is high time that President Diaz of Mexico began to take the revolution seriously. His chief apprehension up to the present has been lest the United States should intervene to stop hostilities and compel the federal government to make terms of peace with the rebels. The Mexican government apparently has little fear of suppressing the rebellion finally, and considering the fact that General Madero, leader of the rebel forces, represents but a small fraction of the population and that the rebellion has spread over but a small territory compared with the entire country, it would seem that the conflict is greatly exaggerated in importance. However, the spirit of rebellion under favorable conditions will spread rapidly, and now that the revolution starts with renewed vigor after the failure of peace negotiations, it would appear that the federal government will have to assert its power very soon if it would stem the tide of rebellion in time to save the republic. The rebels are spreading havoc and ruin wherever they go, and many non-combatant Americans have been killed by stray bullets from the fight near El Paso. It would seem that the rebels must be getting ammunition secretly from the United States or some other unrevealed source as they seem to be well supplied. The presence of Col. Garibaldi of Italy as a lieutenant of General Madero is quite significant.

President Diaz is an old man, and he has been in office since 1876. To residents of this country there is something apparently absurd if not tyrannical in the idea of the president of a republic holding office so long. But conditions in Mexico cannot be judged from conditions here. The country has a population of 18,000,000 scattered over an immense area of 767,000 square miles mostly in the torrid zone.

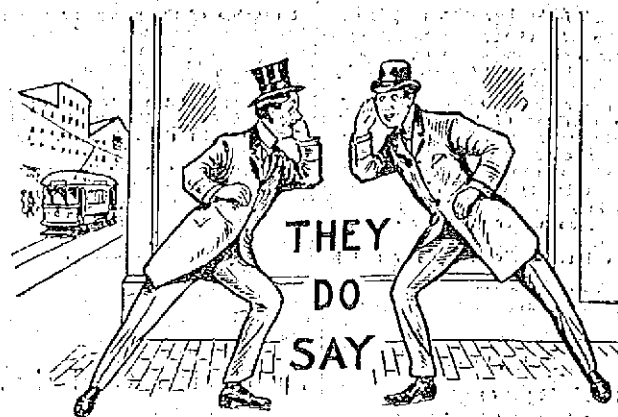

President Diaz took charge of the government when the country was at a low ebb, when its people were in ignorance of the outside world, with no means of education or communication. In spite of vast difficulties he succeeded in bringing order and stability out of chaos, replacing poverty by prosperity, insolvency by national credit, promoting education by the establishment of well conducted schools. He aided the general development of the country by encouraging the construction of railroads and brought about better conditions between the land owners and the occupants of the soil on questions that had long been a source of trouble.

Mexico has a constitution under which regular elections are held. How it came that President Diaz has held office so many years is the question nobody can explain; but it is claimed by his friends that his wise leadership and direction of public affairs inspired the people with such confidence in his ability, that they never felt disposed to remove him and so he became a fixture beside which other candidates seemed small in comparison.

Another and perhaps a more accurate explanation is, that President Diaz being skilled in the art of politics and having on his side the prestige and power of being chief executive of the republic found little difficulty in securing re-election from year to year. There are certainly no Yankee politicians down there or Diaz would have been ousted long ago, no matter how indispensable his services to the republic.

The absence of any powerful opponent made his perpetuation in office an easy matter; and he generally also had the privilege of dictating who the other leading elective officials should be. But while Diaz may have been at all times used his influence to promote the welfare of his country so that on the whole Mexico was probably better off by retaining President Diaz than she would have been by changing to the class of aspirants who wanted his place. The present rebellion has brought up the question of forcing Diaz out of office; but he very wisely declined, stating that to do so in the present disturbed state of the country would open the way to all sorts of irregularities. In that he is right. Elections under the present effervescent state of feeling in Mexico could accomplish no good purpose and the retirement of the lawfully constituted government to give place to a band of marauders would certainly lead to chaos and anarchy a thousand times worse than anything thus far produced by the rebellion.

President Diaz has hitherto appeared to be more afraid of American intervention than of the rebel attacks. But if he wants to avoid intervention, he must bestir himself in suppressing the rebellion, now making such headway. The government has the power to do it; but the country is wide, and where the rebels are so widely scattered it is difficult to meet them at all points. It is probable that Madero's main object is to get Uncle Sam to step in and order a halt. There is reason to believe that the rebels are purposely sending bullets across the Texan border in order to induce intervention. Gen. Madero while charging all kinds of graft against President Diaz is himself the owner of an estate of 5,000,000 acres on which the people are oppressed. Personally, it is conceded, Madero is not a desirable man to be elevated to any commanding position in the republic.

That 58 from 106 still leaves 18.

That a resident of William street who wears a straw hat all the year round was the only one to beat out Col. Chadwick on being the first Lowell man to appear in public with the straw lid this spring.

That now that the park board has a commission who learned to play the great national game on the South common we may expect to find a change of conditions at that place.

That even the trees on the South common are drooping their heads with shame as the result of the recent newspaper articles relative to conditions at that public-breathing place.

That the board of trade's shoe night at Lincoln hall this evening will not only be an innovation in the line of a smoke talk but will be of great benefit to the business men of Lowell. That few people in Lowell realize that high class shoes are now being manufactured in this city.

A young storekeeper who had failed the previous day was so disident about meeting his creditors that he gave his wife the following instructions:

"Now, Marie, if anyone rings, you answer the door and tell them that I'm not in. I'll hide."

Nor had he long to wait until a loud jangling of the bell assured him that an irate creditor stood at the door.

It was only a reporter, however.

"I wish to speak to your husband."

"But he isn't in," protested the woman.

"Well, I understand," said the reporter, getting out his notebook and pencil, "that he is in absent."

"O yes," cried the wife, a happy inspiration seized her: "He went over there on the 2:40 train yesterday, and I don't expect him back until tomorrow."

"Why is your husband's face bandaged?" asked the lady next door.

"He was sleeping in his big chair," explains the little girl, "and he turned the nose of the vacuum cleaner against his whiskers."—Life.

We have frequently been asked to suggest some form of dress for women airshippers, some sort of aerial costume for lady aeronauts, and it is only after continual persuasion that we offer the following advice regarding raiment for female balloonists:

1. Dress very plainly—aeroplane.

2. Your hat must contain a flower—self-raising flour is most appropriate, as it will help the machine to rise.

3. If you wear any flowers at your breast, they must be made of paper—fly-paper.

4. You should wear a dress, with old-fashioned balloon sleeves.

5. Do not wear long batmans, as they tend to attract lightning, and when you are up in an airship lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place; it doesn't have to, as there isn't anything left to strike the second time. We would suggest fastening your hat to your hair with clothespins—Judge's Library.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The oldest Baptist church in Massachusetts is in Swansea. Both the town and the church were founded by John Myles, who came to this country from Wales in 1633. He was also the founder of the Bethesda Welsh Baptist Church in Boston, seven miles west of Swansea, in Wales. The present pastor of this Welsh church is Rev. D. Price. His is gray-haired, the ashes of the famous Christmas Evans, sometimes called "seraphic."

The composer Piccini is to be one of the lions of the festivities at Rome where he is to be present at the production of "The Girl of the Golden West" at the Costanzi theatre July 1. But before that he will go to London to assist in bringing it out at Covent Garden. May 15, 1911, will also be given at Brescia, Budapest, Berlin, and Monaco, as well as in the provincial English cities, Cape Colony and the United States. But Piccini will take a well-earned rest after the production at Rome, cruising about the Mediterranean in his little yacht.

The Hudson Bay company has recently made Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell its "medical adviser," which doubtless constitutes a practical announcement that the northern fishermen are to be treated justly in their trade relations. The past winter co-operative stores established by Dr. Grenfell were brought into touch with similar enterprises in England to the extent that goods for the Labrador population are to be furnished.

A COLD IN SPRING

When the warm weather comes it is hard to get the cold to go. It is as if it were the middle of January. Yet these little colds are often the hardest to shake. A remedy that proves extremely effective in routing the enemy is Atollin. It may be taken internally or applied as a lotion, and brings immediate relief in cases of colds, coughs or throat troubles. It is absolutely free from drugs of any kind and very pleasant to the taste or for external use.

Announcement was made today that John V. Farwell of Chicago will be the only name formally presented to the graduates of Yale for the vacancy on the corporation caused by the expiration of the term of the late Henry F. Dimock of New York. Mr. Dimock, who died shortly after the call for "nominations" was issued, Hon. Clifford Pinchot and Mr. Farwell alone were named by the necessary number of graduates, twenty-five, to constitute a formal nomination. Mr. Pinchot has withdrawn his name, leaving only that of Mr. Farwell to be voted upon in June.

Mr. Farwell was graduated from Yale in 1878. He is president and general manager of the firm of John V. Farwell & Co., and is a director of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad and other important companies. He has been very active as a citizen in Chicago, where he has been prominently connected with the Municipal Voters' league, the Chicago Plan Commission, etc. He has been president of the Chicago Y. M. C. A., the Merchants club and the board of trustees of Lake Forest university.

He was barred by the immigration inspector and taken to Long wharf, where he will occupy the stowaways' room until the Sagamore is ready to leave here next Tuesday, when he will be sent back to England. He will probably have to face a term in the workhouse when he reaches Liverpool, for stowing away is a misdemeanor under the English laws, and is punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

GOVERNOR FOSS

Asked to Act in Boy Loper Case

PROVIDENCE, May 11.—Gov. Foss yesterday afternoon wrote to Gov. Pothier of Massachusetts asking him to use his influence to secure asylum for Harry Sheridan, the Pawtucket schoolboy leper, at Penikese Island colony as a private patient. The Massachusetts authorities have refused this permission and the boy's future is very much unsettled.

Yesterday Mayor Giles W. Estabrook, City Solicitor E. W. Brothart and Health Officer Byron L. Richards of Pawtucket held a long conference with Gov. Pothier. They asked the governor to assist in the matter, explaining that there is no place in Rhode Island for the isolation of lepers and that the boy can be cared for at Penikese Island as a private patient if the necessary permission is granted by the Bay state authorities.

It was explained that Gov. Foss has no authority in the case, but it is desired to obtain his moral support. Gov. Pothier complied with the request.

ADMITS HIS GUILT

Prisoner Clears Fellow of Any Part in Crime

Confession Made to Gov. Foss at Prison—Unusual Scene When Ek Was Told of Pardon—Woman Nearly 70 Was Set Free

BOSTON, May 11.—Gov. Foss and the executive council yesterday pardoned three prisoners, two men and a woman, and in the case of one released the man's thanks, in an unusual scene at the state prison in Charlestown, during which another prisoner declared the man innocent and himself the guilty one.

The pardoned ones are: Axel W. Ek, who was convicted in Worcester in February, 1905, of manslaughter in causing the death of William Warrusavicz and was sentenced to a term of not less than 10 and not more than 12 years. He was released after having served five years and three months.

John J. McCarthy, who was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory in January, 1911, for assault with intent to rob.

Mrs. Gennina Mazzocco, nearly 70 years old, who, because of her inability to pay a fine of $25, having been convicted of assault and battery upon her son's wife and required to furnish bonds to keep the peace, has been confined in the Charles street jail.

At a meeting of the executive council yesterday it was voted that that body recommend the granting of pardons. The pardons were sent to the governor and remained upon his desk awaiting his signature.

Gov. Foss, Lieut. Gov. Frothingham, members of the executive council and Executive Secretary Dudley M. Holman, started immediately for the Charlestown prison and made a thorough inspection of the institution.

Makes Promise to Governor

Secretary Holman gave the account of what happened at the prison.

When they entered the prison orchestra was playing and the governor and council listened for some moments. The orchestra played several pieces by request.

Warden Bridges then summoned Ek, who was a member of the orchestra. The governor asked Ek if he would appreciate a pardon if it should be extended to him, and if he would go back to work and hereafter be a law-abiding and upright citizen. Ek promised that if such clemency should be extended to him he would "make good" and that the governor and council would never have any cause to regret its action.

Whereupon the governor told him that the council had already voted to grant him a pardon and that upon their return to the state house this afternoon the governor would sign the pardon.

A cheer broke from the men, and a member of the orchestra, who is under sentence for manslaughter, rushed to the governor took him by the hand, fell upon his knees and before the governor knew what he was about kissed his hand several times, saying in broken English, "He innocent, I guilty." He meant that Ek was innocent but that he acknowledged his own guilt.

Doubt as to Conviction

The two men were room-mates, and the Italian who acknowledged his own guilt is a skilful musical instrument maker and does some excellent work.

Warden Bridges said both men had splendid records. None of the men showed an evasive disposition because of the pardon.

Together with three others, Ek was charged with assaulting and beating William Warrusavicz, from which he died. The others were given sentences in the house of correction for two years. There has always been a question as to who was guilty, and Dist. Atty. Sikes, in his report to the governor, stated that Capt. O'Day and two other inspectors of police in Worcester united in saying they thought the public interest would not be harmed if Ek was pardoned.

Up to this time he had always borne an excellent reputation, and had not been in any trouble whatever.

George Taft, who was district attorney at the time Ek was sentenced, also recommended the pardon.

Judge Approved Pardon

John J. McCarthy was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory in January, 1911, for assault with intent to rob. Judge White and Dist. Atty. Sawyer agreed to the pardon. Four men were concerned in the robbery. McCarthy always maintained that he was innocent.

Mrs. Gennina Mazzocco was convicted with her son. The parties are now thoroughly reconciled to each other, it is said. The court imposing the sentence revoked its order relative to the son, but found that it was not authorized to do so in the case of the mother-in-law.

Judge Ely recommended the pardon. The attorney general ruled that in order to secure her release she must be pardoned by the governor and council.

The governor visited Jesse Pomeroy, the life prisoner, and was interested in listening to what Pomeroy had to say concerning his treatment. Pomeroy said that under Gov. Long he was permitted to go to the chapel with the other prisoners, but when Warden Russell took charge, this privilege was taken away from him on the ground that he was sentenced to solitary confinement which did not permit him to attend chapel.

Pomeroy is allowed an hour's exercise in the yard a day, but always by himself, and he has no fault to find with his general treatment, but he does desire to have some of the restrictions removed which keep him absolutely separated from all the world.

Secretary Holman's account states that it is quite possible some action may be taken in this regard.

The governor talked with a number of the prisoners and expressed himself as pleased with conditions.

BOARD OF TRADE

Important Meeting of Directors Held

THE ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD IN JUNE

Postmaster Legare to Make Improvements in Postal Service as Requested—Resolutions to be Presented Geo. M. Harrigan

An important meeting of the directors of the board of trade was held yesterday afternoon. Several new members who had been passed upon by the membership committee were admitted, and a committee was appointed to bring in a list of officers to be balloted for at the annual meeting in June. Several committees reported and by a unanimous vote George M. Harrigan was given a rising vote of thanks for the work he did in clearing up the land titles in Billerica making it possible for the Boston & Maine to locate their car shops there. It was also voted that a set of resolutions be drawn up by the secretary and presented to Mr. Harrigan on behalf of the board.

Secretary Murphy's report showed that the secretary had been a very busy man during the past month. President Greene said Mr. Murphy was instrumental in preventing a huge advertising sign from being erected on the building at the corner of Middlesex and Gorham streets, leased by the D. L. Page Co.

Daniel F. Carroll presented a report on behalf of the realty committee which was placed on file.

Henry A. Smith was elected a delegate to the state board of trade.

George M. Harrigan for the postal affairs committee reported on several matters which were brought to the attention of Postmaster Joseph A. Legare, one of which was the placing of cards on mail boxes stating the time of collection. Many of the cards have become worn out and have not been replaced. Another matter which the committee called his attention to was the collection of mail from the downtown boxes in time to get the late train for Boston and New York. Postmaster Legare has made arrangements for this as well as for the renewing of worn out cards on the boxes.

President Greene and Mr. Harrigan made the statement that Mr. Legare seemed anxious to better the service and courted suggestions from business men tending to that end.

The following committee to bring in a list of officers to be balloted for at the annual meeting in June was appointed: William F. Hills, James E. O'Donnell and Frank Ricard.

This evening a general meeting of the board will be held at Lincoln hall which has been designated as "Shoe Night."

The speakers of the evening will be: Mr. Alfred W. Donovan, Rockland, Mass., president N. E. Shoe and Leather association. Mr. Thomas F. Anderson, Boston, Mass., secretary N. E. Shoe and Leather association. Mr. Carl M. Phil, "History of Shoe Manufacturing in Lowell." Mr. Charles F. Brigham, "Lowell a place to make shoes."

The speakers from experience are eminently qualified to address the meeting and an evening of enthusiasm and interest is assured.

After the formal exercises a general discussion upon the matter of forming a Realty company will be held.

MURDER CHARGE IN THE CHURCHES

Two Men Arraigned in Court

EARMINGTON, Me., May 11.—John Nott, aged 38, and Giuseppe Costigleo, aged 35, both of Chisholm, were held in the municipal court here yesterday afternoon without bail by Judge Polman for the September grand jury, charged with the murder of Domingo Ventrell, aged 10, at Chisholm, last Sunday night.

Dr. George L. Pratt of this place, county medical examiner, testified that the autopsy on Ventrell revealed three stab wounds in the right breast and side. Two were wide and jagged and penetrated the right lung. The third wound was cleaner cut and had penetrated the liver. He thought two weapons were employed.

Other witnesses testified to finding the wounded man in his yard with his hands pressed to his breast, and to seeing two men answering to the general appearance of the prisoners running from the premises.

Joseph Casellero, who boarded at the same house with the defendants, identified a coat as one taken off and left at the boarding house by Nott shortly after the stabbing is said to have taken place. It is alleged there are human blood stains on this coat.

Witness also testified to seeing a long knife and a weapon made from a river driver's pick pole in Nott's hands Sunday afternoon.

The men were captured Monday night in West Peru, near Rumford, and with them was Onorio Gallinelli, said to have fled with them from the boarding house. He is held in $2000 bonds as a witness, in default of which he is held in jail.

FIRE AT BANGOR

Two Persons Placed Under Arrest

BANGOR, Me., May 11.—Two people are locked up in the police station pending investigation of a fire which broke out shortly after 8 o'clock last night in a dwelling house with a saloon and poolroom beneath, on Front street, at the foot of May street.

The alarm from box 24 rung in for the conflagration, of April 30 started the city. The property is owned by Mrs. Alice Haverly, leased by Pope D. McKinnon and was subleased by Joseph Kling, the upper part being used as a lodging house.

When the firemen arrived the house was found locked and unoccupied, but blazing furiously. The property loss will probably be $30,000 or more.

Joseph Kling and Alice Armstrong, his housekeeper, were arrested and locked up. Kling said that he had but $3000 insurance on the furniture, but

During the social hour which followed tea was served by the hostesses: Mrs. Eccleston, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Williams.

Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary society of the Worthen Street M. E. church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Green, 144 Wentworth avenue, and there was a very large attendance of members. The vice president, Mrs. C. K. Fiske, presided and the devotions were led by Miss Nettie Wilson. The mystery box conducted by Miss Julia Hensley proved exceedingly interesting and a novel and entertaining feature was the series of stories told by members. Mrs. Hadley of North Chelmsford contributed two songs. Mrs. A. H. Slater being the accompanist. Refreshments were served by the members. The next and last meeting of the season will be a basket picnic at Stearns' grove, Chelmsford, on June 14.

WEEKLY DRILL

CO. C HELD MANEUVERS ON A SMALL SCALE

The members of Co. C held their regular weekly drill last night and the feature of it was maneuvers, held on a small scale. A squad of eight men was secretly encamped in the vacant lot in the rear of the armory, commanded by Sergt. Larkin. The rest of the company were under the command of Lieut. Patton and were stationed at the corner of Westford and Wilder streets. This body sent out squads from time to time to try to locate the enemy, represented by Sergt. Larkin's squad. In connection with these scouting parties, a regular outpost was established. The work is very interesting to the men and is good preparation for the maneuvers in July. Capt. Peterson acted as inspecting officer.

MATRIMONIAL

Dr. Thomas E. E. Robins of Charlestown, P. E. I., and Miss Annabel

doLong Savage, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Savage, were united in marriage last night at the home of the bride's parents, 38 Branch street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilson Waters, and was attended by a small number of relatives and friends. The illness of members of both families limiting the extent of the wedding festivities. The bride was handsomely attired in pink chiffon over pink silk and carried American Beauty roses. The ceremony was most attractive and at its close a luncheon was served to the guests. Dr. and Mrs. Robins will enjoy an extended wedding trip and will reside at Charlestown, where they will be at home to friends after July 1. No cards.

Waller; flute, 1st Sgt. Harry Sheldon; 1st violin, Private Frank L. McCool; second violin, Lance Corp. Frank Huntley.

That Captain James N. Greig of Company K is proud of his new orchestra and his bowling team was evidenced last evening when he entertained the members of both at a delightful banquet served in his hospitable home, 76 Bellevue street. All the members being in attendance. After the discussion of an excellent menu

the orchestra opened up and entertained with a most acceptable program while Capt. Greig and Corporal Luca sang several pleasing solos. Corp. Roswell Jefferson, a member of the orchestra, made a farewell address as he resigns from the company to go to Boston where he has accepted a responsible position. The orchestra was organized a short time ago by Dr. S. R. Waller and is the only one of its kind in the Massachusetts militia. It is an amateur organization and is in business for the pleasure it affords the members of the company. It has appeared several times at the Armory and before the Spanish War Veterans and the Women's Relief Corps, always making a big hit.

K. OF C. MINSTRELS

HENRY HEAPS, General Manager.

WILLIAM F. McALOON, Musical Director.

Scored a Big Hit in Associate Hall Last Night

The Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, last night clinched the right of being co-members with the famous "Kings of the Black Face" when they presented a minstrel show, which while being their initial effort was a great success. It was the first time that the Knights' proposition for membership was advanced to minstrelsy, but it was such a success that it is a safe assurance that their friends may look forward to it as an annual affair. An audience taxing the capacity of Associate Hall was present and long before the overture was started every seat was occupied.

At 8:30 o'clock two large "Old Glories" which hid the stage setting from inquisitive eyes of the audience were parted. The scene presented was a most beautiful one, and was heartily applauded by the audience. Seated in four tiers were the members of the chorus, while the first row of the circle was occupied by the soloists, and men and women. After the applause which greeted the picture had subsided William F. Thornton, as introducer introduced the ends. A grand introductory overture of the most popular songs was rendered with a vim by the chorus. At all times Mr. Thornton had the chorus well in hand and the manner in which his songs were given testified to his ability as a director. The first solo of the evening, "Your Eyes Have Told Me So," was given by Mr. Frank Connor, a young man with a promising baritone voice. He was followed by End Man Mr. Eugene McCarthy, who sang in a captivating manner, "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey." Mr. McCarthy introduced some very clever dance and march steps in his solo which caught the fancy of the audience. In the chorus of his song he was assisted by Miss Lena O'Neil, a young miss who took the solo part, while Miss Margaret McDonough and Mr. McCarthy harmonized. The effect was a very pleasing one, and brought the soloists rounds of applause. Miss Mary Corcoran, who substituted for Miss Vera McAdell, whose illness prevented her from being present, sang "Lakota," a famous ballad, "O! Promise Me," Miss Corcoran, kindly consented to sing the solo yesterday morning, and gave it in a very capable manner.

Miss Margaret McQuillan one of the end women sang "T. Paul Bellington Comin' On," in a characteristic southern style. Mr. William L. Gookin gave as his number "My Hero," the solo which gave the opera, "The Chocolate Soldier," an envious position in the operatic world. Mr. Gookin sang it in an easy and artistic manner, and had to respond to several encores. Thmo-

MAJESTICS GET PRIZE MARCHAND WINS OUT

The Boylston-Beatty Combination Was the Biggest Winner With the Lawrence Men Second—List of the Others Who Landed Prizes

The last day of competition in the National Duck and Candle Pin Bowling congress on the Crescent alleys, brought forth many surprises. The only entry on the card was that of the Majestic alleys of Lawrence, and what the visitors did brought disappointment to many bowlers who felt that they had the coin clinched in ducks and candlepins.

The team last year won the championship for a five-men team at duckpins, and yesterday managed to pull out second prize with a total of 4432. What they failed to do, at duckpins, their own game, they made up for at candlepins, for they broke the record established by the Boylston-Beatty combination of Boston, which was made on the second day of the tournament. On that occasion the Boston cracks put up 1497, and yesterday the Majestic split the pins for 1544, and it landed the candlepin championship for 1911.

A peculiar thing about the five-men candlepin figures of 1497 was that it was the second rolled, and withstood the hammering of team after team, only to be wiped off the slate by the last entry on the card and the last three strings rolled by Lawrence men were the ones that cost Boston the championship.

Peel of the Majestic team of Lawrence was the star of the individual duckpin class, for he rolled 338, which tied John Christopher of Boston for second money. McCarthy and Harrison of the Majestic team rolled third in the two-men class.

When it is considered that the Boylston-Beatty team composed of candlepin rollers won the duckpin class with 1602, and the Majestic duckpin rollers scored at candlepins, it makes it plain that trying to pick a winner in a tournament of this kind is time wasted. Moreover, it proves that no matter what kind of a combination is brought together, if they are real small ball rollers they have a chance to win at either one style or the other, and that the specialists at a particular game don't always win.

While it is true that the Majestic boys rolled nothing but ducks at Lawrence, it is not to be inferred that they cannot roll candles or that their tournament secrets are fluke. Somewhat the same team rolled a special candlepin match with the Carruth team on

AFTER A CLOSE SHAVE

Physicians say that after a close shave, the skin, seen under the microscope, looks like a "beet." This favors the growth of disease germs and accounts for many skin diseases that afflict men's faces.

To prevent this, and ease the sting caused by water and soap, dust the face over with Comfort Powder, after washing with warm water. Comfort Powder is antiseptic and healing, makes your face feel fine, is harmless and kills all germs. See that signature E. S. Sykes is on the box you buy.

Grows Five Inches of New Hair in Thirty Days

Both men and women, inclined to baldness or dandruff, will be interested in the following simple home formula for hair and scalp treatment, strongly recommended by a reader, who states that from its use, in thirty days, she grew new hair five inches long.

Any Run 6 or 8 oz.
Lavender de Compose 2 oz.
Menthol Crystals 1/2 oz.

These ingredients are all staple, standard and inexpensive pharmaceutical products kept in every well equipped drugstore. Let the druggist mix them for you or you can do it yourself. At home, allow to stand half an hour before using, with dry hair and morning, rubbing briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush.

This preparation is not only a wonderfully rapid hair grower, but it quickly stops dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp, and although it is neither a stain nor dye, with regular use, it naturally grays, streaked or faded hair in nine cases out of ten.

Before publication we presented this prescription to Riker-James Drug Co., this city, and they state that they have filled it many times for their patients who report most astonishing results from its use.

THE OPERA HOUSE

A rising young preacher of exalted reputation falls in love with a young actress, who is a circus rider in the play "Polly of the Circus," that will be seen at the Opera House tonight.

Two deacons of the young pastor's church raise all kinds of particular trouble over the affair and the women of the congregation storm in scandalized fashion, but you will sympathize with the preacher and his love for the little circus rider, and love her too.

Richard (Himself) Carlo is said to be at his funniest in his own musical comedy "Jumping Jupiter," in which he will be seen here for the first time at the Opera House on May 21. The piece has a distinction in its cast and a happy ending in its plot.

Don't miss the final opportunity to see the Donald Meek Stock company before the season's close, for the company will bid its adieu to Lowell with the close of the week. For a closing attraction the company is offering one of the funniest comedies ever put on the stage replete with bright dialog and abounding in uproarious, funny situations and complications, but absolutely free from any coarseness or vulgarity.

With the exception of Miss Mabel Estelle, who is playing in Milwaukee at the head of a big stock company, the entire company appear in congenial roles. Mr. DeDeyn this week appears in a comedy role and does it to perfection, while Mr. Meek has a part just suited to him that of a nervous elderly Englishman, who has a hunch on getting married in a hurry and who wants to marry another man's wife, not knowing that she is already spoken for.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Pierce and Roslyn, in their high-class singing act are winning friends by the score at the Merrimack Square theatre this week. Their program includes a variety of the most popular songs, popular music and comic singing, and are given with unusual skill. Mr. Pierce possesses a fine baritone voice and Miss Roslyn, besides being an excellent soprano, is a pianist of merit.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today the Theatre Voyons shows a decidedly novel show in which a western biograph entitled "In the Days of '49" is the star. It is a tale of the old mining days when adventure was plenty and exciting times frequently occurred. Then there is one of the cleverest biograph comedies of the year entitled "Soldiers Three" in which three Highland soldiers get into a peck of trouble because of the pranks of their sweethearts. Then as a strong dramatic offering "Hungry Hearts" cannot fail to please for it is most pleasantly acted and finely staged. Adv.

HOW TO MAKE COMPLEXION SATINY

(Modes and Toilettes.)

"Don't smother the skin's pores with powder!" is the warning of Arline Koon, a well known authority on beauty. "A good lotion will do more to promote an ideal complexion," she says, "than anything else, and if an original package of mayonaise is dissolved in eight ounces of witch-hazel, you will have the finest thing obtainable for the skin."

"The use of a mayonaise lotion clears and beautifies the skin and gives to any complexion that exquisite satiny appearance and smoothness so much admired."

"Aside from being a complexion beautifier, mayonaise prevents the growth of hairs, and protects the skin from harsh winds and changing weather. Using it guards against tan, freckles or sunburn."

FIVE LIVES LOST MAN WAS FINED $20

Men Were Suffocated in a Mine Near Larksville, Pa.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 11.—Five lives were lost by suffocation in the Boston mines of the Delaware & Hudson Co. near Larksville, near here, today. The dead:

GEORGE FREEDER, driver.
JOHN MELODUSKI, door-boy.
JACOB KENULIA, miner.
CHARLES KUMISKI, laborer.
WILLIAM ADAMKE, laborer.

A strike began at the colliery on Tuesday and only a small number of men were at work.

Fire broke out last night in a section of the mine where rock miners were employed, but it is said to have been gotten under control without difficulty. Eleven men were at work in that section. After midnight the odor of smoke was detected and another alarm was sounded. All the employees in the inside workings made their way from a side vein to the main gangway, but the smoke had become so dense that nearly all were overcome. Several rescue parties at the risk of their lives then entered the workings and succeeded in taking out three men. The rescuers returning to the gangway stumbled over the bodies of the dead. The latter were brought out as quickly as possible. Several of the rescuers were overcome by the smoke. The fire continues to rage in the mine but the company officials state that they expect to have it under control in a short time.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

At Odd Fellows Annual Convention

BOSTON, May 11.—Announcement of the addition of 498 new members within a year to Manchester Unity, I. O. O. F., Massachusetts district, met with an enthusiastic response at the annual convention of that body yesterday in Odd Fellows hall. Officers for the ensuing year, and six delegates to the national convention to be held in Philadelphia in June, 1912, were elected. A clear cash capital of $223,934.18 exists.

Past Provincial Grand Master Louis C. Porter of Attleboro presided. Of-cers were elected as follows: Provincial grand master, James W. Riley of Methuen; provincial deputy grand master, Collin McIntyre, North Adams; provincial corresponding secretary, James W. Gregg, Everett; provincial grand treasurer, George W. Rockett, Malden; provincial grand auditor, H. J. Wentzell, Cambridge; provincial grand trustee, Calah W. Mulock, Cambridge. Delegates chosen were Louis C. Porter, Joseph W. Young of Springfield, James W. Riley, J. S. B. Clarke of Fall River, George H. Keddwell of Middleboro, H. J. Wentzell. Alternates will be Thomas J. Ashton of Fall River, C. J. Thomas of Worcester, N. L. Pike of New Bedford. The six regular delegates are all past grand masters.

FOR SLIGHT FIRE

Firemen Called to Middlesex Street Store

At 9:08 o'clock this morning an alarm from box 72 summoned a portion of the fire department at the Adams Hardware company in Middlesex street, for a slight fire in the cellar of the establishment. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion, it is believed, and the damage was slight, partly caused by the smoke.

Several Still Alarms
A still alarm for a slight fire on the Allen street dump was given at 6:19 o'clock this morning. There was no damage.

Another still alarm was given at 10:12 o'clock this morning for a chimney fire in Concord street, and at 10:15 o'clock the firemen were called by telephone to the building of James Dolan in Concord street, where a stove was acting suspiciously.

ENGINEER DEAD

WAS SCALDING BY BURSTING OF A VALVE

LAWRENCE, May 11.—Michael J. Conlin, an engineer employed in the Everett mills, died in the General hospital yesterday as the result of being scalded by the bursting of a valve May 20.

He was born in Ireland 49 years ago. A wife and five children survive him. He was a member of Division I. A. O. H. Court Sheridan, F. of A., and the Holy Name society of St. Laurence's church.

BANK OF ENGLAND

He Was Found Guilty of Illegally Selling Liquor

In police court today Walter D. Falls, who was charged with illegally selling liquor in the town of Chelmsford, entered a plea of guilty, and a fine of $75 was imposed.

Larceny Cases
In police court this morning Fred Jeffrey was charged with the larceny of $3 from Mrs. Agnes C. Ouellette. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty, but after hearing the evidence the court found him guilty and imposed a fine of $15.

Mrs. Ouellette testified that on Feb. 27, Jeffrey and his step-father, Michael Leboeuf, paid her a visit at her boarding-house in Dutton street. Later on during the day, Jeffrey returned and said that his stepfather had sent him to borrow $3 from her. The woman loaned the amount asked for but has not yet been paid. Some time ago she discovered that Leboeuf had nothing to do with the borrowing of the money, so she made a complaint. The defendant testifying in his own behalf denied using his stepfather's name to get the money, and said that last Sunday he sent $1 to Mrs. Ouellette and that he was going to pay the balance this week, but the woman refused the money, saying it was too late.

At this point the court found the defendant guilty and imposed a $15 fine.

F. E. NELSON CO.

HAS PLANNED TO EXTEND ITS BUSINESS

The F. E. Nelson Co. with headquarters in this city and branch stores in Lawrence, Mass., and Manchester, Concord and Nashua, N. H. have taken a lease for a large, double store in Haverhill, Mass., and as soon as present tenants can vacate and extensive alterations can be made, will open for business.

Their new Haverhill establishment will be similar to the Lawrence store and will be devoted entirely to 5, 10 and 25 cent goods. It is understood to be the intention of the Nelson Co. to make their new store equal in every way to any establishment of the kind in New England.

Court Will Instruct Jury Not to Consider First Degree Verdict

The survivors of the Abbott Greys, Company A, 2d Massachusetts, observed today the 50th anniversary of their regiment leaving Lowell for Camp Andrews, West Roxbury, Mass., the mobilization camp of the Massachusetts troops.

The event was held at the New American house and was attended by many members, namely: H. G. O. Weymouth of Cambridge; D. R. Hayes of Blenheim; Dexter Butterfield of Dunstable; P. M. Bixton of Lawrence; W. T. McAlpine of Lawrence; N. D. P. Foster of Somerville; M. N. Corner of Danvers; D. W. Brown of Springfield and Alexander Morse of Lowell.

A business meeting was held in the forenoon during which Mr. Dexter Butterfield was elected president of the organization, and W. T. McAlpine secretary. At this meeting a letter of regret from M. G. McLaughlin of the Old Soldiers Home, Hampton, Va., who could not attend, was read.

At 1:45 o'clock an appealing dinner was served and following the meal, discourses were delivered by all the members present.

Camorrist Informer Reported Ill

VITERBO, Italy, May 11.—Gennaro Abbatemaggio is suffering from an acute attack of laryngitis and was unable to appear at the trial of the camorrist today, much to the disappointment of the spectators, who had expected to see him confronted by Enrico Alfano, the alleged actual head of the camorra. Maria Stendardo, the woman prisoner was also reported to be critically ill with pneumonia. The session was occupied with testimony of minor importance.

SPECIAL SESSION

Of the R. I. Legislature to be Called

PROVIDENCE, May 11.—Following the adjournment of the legislature this morning, Governor Aram J. Pophier announced today that he expects to call a special session this summer in order that the pledge of the republican party to enact taxation laws might be fulfilled and that he will make wholesale use of his veto power to prevent a deficit in the state treasury.

The power of the veto has only been vested in the governor of this state for two years and in this term this prerogative has only been exercised three times. The legislature having taken no notice of his special message to curb the raid on the Rhode Island treasury, Governor Pophier declared today that "he would veto more bills and resolutions than will be vetoed in the next ten years to come."

Although no general assembly in the past decade has received so many bills to consider this legislature considers that it has passed an unusual number of good bills.

GOVERNOR BASS

WAS A VISITOR IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY

Gov. Bass of New Hampshire and members of his council came to Lowell yesterday as the result of an act passed by the New Hampshire legislature last spring. The legislation in question had to do with the Nesmith property in Manchester street and the closing of Pollard avenue. The will of John Nesmith provided for the establishment of an asylum in New Hampshire for the blind and in order to close Pollard avenue it was necessary to have the abutters agree to it. So far as New Hampshire was concerned, the governor and his council were given the authority by the legislature to act in the matter. They came to Lowell yesterday in an automobile and were met by Fred N. Dunbar representing the property of the John Nesmith estate. The reason for closing Pollard avenue is the proposed extension of the buildings there both of the Nesmith and Hilditch estates.

THE WATER DEPT

Because of the number of new houses that have been built in Farmland road, the water department will have to lay extra feet of 12 inch pipe there. The department has been busy on the job for several days and will be through with the work. Most of the new houses in Farmland road were built by Jacques Boisvert.

Official papers signed by Mayor Meehan today included the $500 order for playgrounds. This money is to be used on all the playgrounds and will be expended under the supervision of the park department.

COUGHLIN OPPOSED

Councilman Coughlin said today that he was opposed to the erection of a contagious disease hospital on the site selected by a majority of the contagious hospital commission and he says he has been asked by several persons living in the vicinity of the city farm in Chelmsford street to oppose it.

"I believe," said Mr. Coughlin, "that the hospital should be built on the site recommended by Dr. McCarthy and I want to say that I am in favor of the erection of a hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis. It is to come sooner or later and why not now? I understand that this new hospital will not provide for the treatment of tuberculosis, although, as I understand it, a tubercular hospital was intended when the movement for a contagious disease hospital was first started."

"If I make up my mind, by talking with and interviewing persons interested in the matter, that the site selected by the contagious hospital commission is not a proper site I will move, at the next meeting of the council, that the vote granting the land at the city farm for that purpose be rescinded. The commission, then, could ask for the other and the larger lot."

General Navarro Has Been Paroled With His Officers—The Insurrectos Are Now Well Provided With Ammunition—Another Attempt at Peace Will be Made

JUAREZ, Mexico, May 11.—The Insurrectos are determined not only to hold Juarez against any attack but to prevent a fight in this vicinity if possible. Plans were being laid at the Insurrectos headquarters today for a force of several hundred men to march south to meet General Rabago, the federal leader who is reported to be on his way here from Chihuahua, with a good sized army. The rebels already have about three hundred men at Casap Grande and probably will open fire on Rabago when he arrives there. It is not known what chief will be sent south from Juarez.

The town was quiet today for the first time in several days. The inhabitants slept peacefully in their homes while Insurrecto sentries stood guard.

General Navarro, who was paroled with his officers last night, spent the night in the same house with General Francisco Madero, Jr. Though the federal commander now has been given the liberty of the city he does not deem it safe to be seen much about town because there are said to be several Insurrectos who cherish a grudge against him for alleged bayoneting of the wounded in other battles of the revolution. Rebel officers, however, have given strict orders not to harm any of the paroled federals. The Insurrectos today are the conquerors in a town which is the most important capture of the revolution, not only because it is a port of entry from the United States and that the Insurrectos believe that within the next 21 hours food and supplies will be crossing the line to them unmolested, but because they are now in possession of about $50,000 rounds of ammunition, several machine guns, and field pieces, about 700 Mauser rifles and enough ammunition belts to wage a furious warfare for some time to come.

Yet though the rebels are flushed with victory and some eager to pursue the fight throughout all of Mexico till the capital of the republic shall have fallen, conservative rebel leaders are hoping that the bloody battle of Juarez will be the last chapter of the military side of the revolution. Having demonstrated their strength in the field, they now wish to turn their attention to the argument of words and public opinion. They are now ready to listen to proposals from the government and today Senors Braniff and Obregon go between hereafter, are feeling the opinion of Insurrecto chiefs as to the best way for reopening peace negotiations.

BODIES BURIED

OF THOSE WHO FELL AT TIA JUANA

TIA JUANA, Lower Calif., May 11.—The bodies of those who fell here Thursday were buried yesterday. The bodies of Captain Sam Wood and his Insurrectos were placed in one grave while those of nine federals were taken to San Diego, and interred in the Cathedral cemetery. Mr. Hopkins, a federalman, was unanimously elected captain today to succeed Captain Woods. Pryce continues in command, however.

REBEL LEADERS

WANT TO TAKE PART IN GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS

JUAREZ, May 11.—Comfortably lodged in their new provisional capital, the rebel political leaders today conferred with General Madero and received the demands made before the battle. They strengthened their position and will continue to insist on what and such privileges as the naming of men from their party for governors in 11 states and for four portfolios in the cabinet. The attitude of the rebels on the question of the resignation of Diaz hardly has crystallized yet. Dr. Vasquez Gueza, one of the rebel peace commissioners, declared today it was still the paramount consideration on which all prospects for peace hinged. The rebels declare that their demand that President Diaz make public merely his intention of resigning has been met with such a vague and haughty reply that they now will demand the fixing of an exact time for his retirement.

GEN'L OROZCO

REFUSED TO ADMIT ANYONE INTO JUAREZ

JUAREZ, May 11.—General Orozco, commander of the rebel forces, had closed in his eye today as he stood by the international bridge and refused to permit anyone from El Paso to cross into Juarez, even though they had passes from Colonel Siever through the United States lines. It appears that General Orozco and his staff last night were invited to a banquet with

WAS THE SURRENDER OF CITY OF MEXICO

JUAREZ, Mex., May 11.—Juarez surrendered most picturesquely after the bloodiest battle of the revolution, and is the provisional capital of Mexico.

Francisco I. Madero, Jr., provisional president, was the last Insurrecto to enter. He rode into the city in an automobile decorated with the tricolors of the revolutionary flag, and forthwith established himself in the city hall.

The federals are not so greatly elated. On the contrary, they appear to relish their defeat and have become the loudest shouters of that rebel cry, "Viva Madero!" which, by the way, is becoming less frequent and fainter on the lips of Insurrectos.

When it comes to shouting "Viva Orozco!" there is always sure to be a volume of noise, for the Insurrecto general and chief military commander of the Insurrection is very popular among the Insurrectos.

There was a splendid feast and a termination in the way the rebels entered upon the business of taking the city from the federals.

It was a perilous feat to be achieved, and some very clever military strategists predicted failure, but none of them reckoned on the fighting ability of the rebels and the lukewarm attitude of the federals on the other side.

When the final attack began, the rebels had everything in Juarez, but the cathedral, the city hall, various other buildings of military advantage near the municipal center, and the great Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

It was around this noble structure that the battle was fiercest. There the federals held their ground unmoved for three hours while the battle moved in smaller and still smaller circles upon them.

At noon the federals, with a last defiant volley, followed with sundry yells denoting fear, evacuated the cathedral and rushed to the court, a thick-walled quadrangle, where they were massed under the personal command of General Navarro, commander of Juarez.

REGULAR DELUGE

STREET CAR SPRINKLER OVERFILLED THIS AFTERNOON

A street car sprinkler added to the gaiety of nations this afternoon. The car was in Merrimack street, near John street, when somebody shouted, "Get out from under," and the words were accompanied by a deluge of water from the top of the car. It was a case of much water, and while the fellows did not get away in time, the fellow at the hydrant was responsible for the trouble and he lost no time in putting the lid on. Two women were near the car when the water enveloped it in a most refreshing spray. One of them wore a hobbie skirt and it was worth the price of admission to see that poor woman trying to run. She was out of harm's way, however, and the hobbie skirt was saved—hurray!

MAJOR KELLEY OF EL PASO and the United States troops would not permit Orozco and his officers to cross.

The situation with regard to the passage of persons and supplies back and forth is rapidly becoming aggravated and there was considerable apprehension today that there might be trouble.

General Madero and his wife and General Navarro, the deposed federal commander, rode about the town early in an automobile. Mrs. Madero feared the dead be buried quickly and orders were given today for a careful search of all houses and yards for bodies that may have been overlooked yesterday.

General Madero told an Associated Press reporter today that many American characters have arrived in Juarez, giving the impression that they were Insurrectos. He has, therefore, ordered that United States secret service men be allowed to cross into Juarez and arrest any criminals whom they know.

Every effort is being made to restore order.

In front of each store sat an Insurrecto, his rifle by his side, but his black eyes peered from beneath his broad-brimmed sombrero at all who loitered in the streets. Saloons are closed. The federal officers were loud in their praise of the treatment they received at the hands of the Insurrectos. They were well fed and well cared for generally.

Aftermath of the fight of the last three days was heard on all sides today. Many persons think that General Navarro never should have surrendered, but one look at the emaciated, exhausted soldiers, their throats parched from hunger and thirst, was convincing proof to the federal commander that he was saving his men from a terrible fate.

The Insurrectos cut off the water supply early in the night and took away the saloons as they made their way to the federal stronghold. The federals had made no preparations for a siege within their own town.

BATES ATHLETE

PLAYED BASKETBALL UNDER NAME OF WARE

BOSTON, May 11.—The athletic standing of Harlan W. Holden of Bates college, a member of the track team that will compete on Saturday for the Maine Intercollegiate athletic championship, which was questioned by the Colby Athletic Association, has been investigated by the Maine Intercollegiate Association athletic board which finds that Holden played a basketball game last winter under the name of Ware, in violation of the rules. The board states that there is no penalty provided for the violation and that the committee which investigated the matter exhausted its power in finding the facts in the case.

The finding was made public here today.

POST OFFICE BUSY

As Result of New Order From Washington

The employees of the postoffice, carriers and clerks, have a job on their hands that will make them go some for this month at the result of an order by Postmaster-General Hitchcock recently sent all over the country. It seems that the postmaster-general desires to learn more of the detail of the department and hence has called for a daily report from each individual employee of the mail matter handled during the period of special count from May 1 to May 31 inclusive, including outgoing morning mail, mail collected and mail delivered.

Each collector must report on the number of letters, postals, etc., etc., that he collects and the time he takes

Under the different classes of the nature of the business must be itemized and the time given in hours and minutes. Owing to great variety of mail matter handled the detail is great and the employees have one big job on their hands. What the object of the unusual order is a mystery to all postal employees. They have simply been ordered to do the work and they are doing it.

GUILDHALL, Vt., May 11.—The life of Mrs. Florence Dodge will not be forgotten, even if the jury which has heard the evidence in her trial for the alleged murder of William Heath at her home in Lunenburg, Vt., decides that she is responsible for the man's death. In a statement made before the court convened today Judge Alfred Hall of St. Albans, who is presiding at Mrs. Dodge's trial at the Essex county courthouse in this town, said that when he charges the jury he will instruct them not to consider a verdict of murder in the first degree. The law in order to warrant a conviction for first degree murder and in the case on trial, the judge explained, the prosecution has not introduced any evidence to show premeditation on the part of Mrs. Dodge. Judge Hall said that he would instruct the jury to consider three possible verdicts, namely, guilty of murder in the second degree, guilty of manslaughter and acquittal.

Thirteen minutes after court opened today States Attorney Amey began his argument for the state. The case may go to the jury before night.

The courtroom was jammed to its capacity long before the session convened at 9 o'clock and many persons waited outside the doors in the hope of being able to secure a seat that might be vacated by the occupant during the proceedings. Mrs. Dodge, with her usual smile, took her seat inside the hall a few minutes before court was opened. Judge Hall announced privately before court opened today that the arguments should be concluded by 5 p. m. and charge the jury to give them the verdict. The judge also said that in his charge to the jury he would eliminate all consideration of murder in the first degree and would instruct them to bring in a verdict of murder in the second degree, manslaughter or acquittal.

The reason for this, he said, lay in the fact that the prosecution has shown no premeditation and the Vermont statutes require that premeditation must be proved before a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree can be returned. No witnesses were called during the thirteen minutes intervening between the opening of the court and the beginning of States Attorney Amey's argument. There was some doubt as to whether Horace W. Shaffer, the Portland, Me., handwriting expert who testified yesterday, had been sworn, so he was sworn today to make sure. The paint pot and brush which Heath had used as an exhibit of his life, were entered as exhibits and then Mr. Amey began his argument. Under Vermont procedure the state not only opens the arguments but closes them as well. As soon as Mr. Amey has finished, lawyers for the defense acquittal, after which Attorney General Sargent will make the closing plea for the state.

Before he had gone very far in his argument, Mr. Amey attempted to disregard the claim of the defense that Heath's death was due either to suicide or accident. Heath did not shoot himself, he said. He called attention to the fact that the bullet was found between the body and the undershirt and that it had entered the body under the arm.

"It is a mistake," he said, "to set up a suicide theory or accidental shooting."

The state's attorney said that the jury might draw the conclusion that Heath was not working at the time he was shot, as the brush was in the paint pot, but the prosecution, he said, did not undertake to tell in what position the man was when he was killed.

"It is difficult," Mr. Amey said, "for a person to save himself from his own crime because of circumstances which he overlooks. Mrs. Dodge said that she was in the kitchen and that she heard three shots. She heard three shots because three shots were fired. This statement of hers impoaches her credibility as a witness. It does not appear in the testimony that Mrs. Dodge told Heath where she kept her revolver. She says he fell on his face. How does she know he fell on his face

if she was in the kitchen. She was looking at him when he fell. She says that she rang the telephone. Guy Garlin rang the telephone twice, as the alleged murder of William Heath at her home in Lunenburg, Vt., decides that she is responsible for the man's death. Mr. Howe's Argument

Mr. Howe's argument was more of an oratorical effort than that of States Attorney Amey. "We have listened for nearly three hours," said Mr. Howe, "to a cry of murder, of premeditation, of manslaughter. Here there is a cry of murder when there is no murder; a cry of premeditation when there is no premeditation; a cry of manslaughter when there is no manslaughter. When the life or liberty of a good woman is at stake we must find out if there has been a murder."

Mr. Howe then explained to the jury the recognized legal axiom that a person accused of crime is to be presumed innocent until proved guilty. This was followed by his review and analysis of the argument of Mr. Amey.

When the afternoon session opened Mr. Howe continued his plea. Every seat in the courtroom was taken and chairs were brought in from the jury room and the county officers for the benefit of the great throng of spectators. The day was warm and all the windows of the courtroom were opened. This was greatly appreciated by those outside as it afforded them an opportunity to gather about the windows of the building on the outside, watch the proceedings, and drink in the flood of oratory.

It looked when the afternoon session opened as though the case would not come to the jury before tomorrow. Attorney Date of Mrs. Dodge's counsel was to follow Mr. Howe with Attorney General Sargent making the closing argument for the prosecution.

THOUGHT WIFE DEAD

Fruit Peddler Told Police He Had Killed Her

RUMFORD FALLS, Me., May 10.—An Italian banana peddler known as Joe Bill, startled Deputy Sheriff Niles this afternoon by giving himself into custody with the explanation that he had just killed his wife. A search was immediately started to find the body, but it was found that she was not dead, though in a dying condition.

Joe had been having trouble with his wife and each had been suing the other for divorce. For the last 20 years during which he has been in the fruit business here and at Lewiston he had been known only by the name of Joe Bill. He has accumulated considerable property.

YAQUI INDIANS FREIGHT RATES

Have Engaged in an Uprising Another Investigation is Ordered

DOUGLAS, Ariz., May 11.—The rising of the Yaqui Indians, who have been living peacefully in their settlements on the Yaqui river recently, but who are now making war on their own account, has furnished a new element in the already acute situation in the state of Sonora. Americans who arrived yesterday from Guaymas brought meagre details of the Yaqui rising. The Indians first demonstrated against Ortiz, which they captured without resistance, looting the seven stores in the town, run by Chinese and Mexicans, confiscating the merchandise and pouring the liquors in the streets.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—A comprehensive investigation of alleged unreasonable freight rates on wool, hides and pelts from western points of origin to eastern destinations was ordered today by the inter-state commerce commission. The inquiry will affect wool, hides and pelts rates throughout the country.

The investigation instituted on the commission's own initiative developed from complaints filed by the National Woolgrowers association and the Oregon railroad commission against western carriers, alleging the existing rates on wool, hides and pelts were excessive, exorbitant and discriminatory. The inquiry ordered is general in scope, the points of origin being in the states west of the Mississippi river and in Illinois and the destinations being all wool and hide centers east of the Missouri river to the Atlantic coast. It will include an investigation of the tariffs of several hundred railways, particularly those of the trans-continental carriers.

PROCTOR ILL EMBEZZLEMENT CASE WAS NOT COMPLETED

GREENFIELD, May 11.—The embezzlement case against Selectman Arthur Proctor of Northfield who was arrested six weeks ago following the announcement of a shortage of $6000 in the town finances was continued today at the request of the prosecution as the examination of the books had not been completed. Mr. Proctor was unable to be present, owing to illness.

DEATHS

KELLEY—Mrs. Georgianna A. Kelley died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elvira A. Leavitt, North Chelmsford. Her age was 77 years and eight months. Besides a daughter, she is survived by one grandson, Charles A. Leavitt, and one sister and one brother.

FAY—John Fay, aged 66 years, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bridget Luppold, 801 Rogers street.

REED—Mrs. M. J. Reed, aged 86 years, died this morning at the home of her son Bird C. Reed, 75 First street. Besides her son she is survived by five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral notice later.

For more than forty years Mrs. Reed was a professional nurse and served through the great smallpox epidemic that visited this city. She was a very lovable woman and was a great friend of the little ones.

THE HOUSE

WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT REDUCTION OF B. & M. DIVIDEND.—BOSTON, May 11.—Information regarding the reduction in the dividend of the Boston & Maine common stock from a six to a four per cent basis was requested of the railroad commission by the lower branch of the legislature. The order making the inquiry was introduced yesterday by Rep. Haines of Melrose and adopted today by a vote of 56 to 31.

BILL REJECTED

IT PROVIDED FOR CONSTITUTION FOR ALABAMA-LORRAINE

BERLIN, May 11.—The bill providing a constitution for Alabama-Lorraine regarding which the government parties have been endeavoring for several months to reach an acceptable compromise, was rejected in its entirety in the committee of the relating today. The conservatives were dissatisfied with the compromise giving the provinces votes in the Bundesrat and the liberals were displeased with the concessions concerning the electoral laws and the language question. The Reichstag will now attempt to settle the matter out of committee but the outlook for the bill is dubious.

A SUICIDE

POSTMASTER OF NATICK TOOK HIS LIFE

NATICK, May 11.—After suffering from a mental illness for the last six months, C. J. Wood, postmaster of Natick for the past twelve years, committed suicide by hanging in the shed of his home here today. Of late Mr. Wood had been unable to sleep nights and had been in the habit of getting up several times either to smoke or read. At one o'clock this morning Mrs. Wood was awakened by her husband, who said he was going to have a smoke, as he could not sleep. Mrs. Wood went down stairs to see where her husband was, a few hours later she found his body hanging from a beam in the shed. Mr. Wood, who was 71 years old, was a Civil war veteran.

SIMON HOWE DEAD

MARLBORO, May 11.—Ending a protracted illness of a complication of heart and kidney disorders, Simon Herbert Howe, a prominent shoe manufacturer and first mayor of Marlboro, died in Southboro today, aged 75 years. Mr. Howe was president of the S. A. Carroll shoe company, one of the largest manufacturing firms in the city. In 1880 when Marlboro was incorporated as a city, he was elected mayor, and had also served two years in the governor's council. He is survived by a widow, a son and a daughter.

EIGHT KILLED

During Thunderstorm in Germany

BERLIN, May 11.—During thunderstorms that occurred throughout Germany yesterday, lightning killed eight persons and near Hamburg destroyed a natural gas well which had been recently capped with the greatest difficulty.

DIPLOMATS MEET

To Discuss the Mexico Situation

MEXICO CITY, May 11.—Members of the diplomatic corps residing in Mexico City, today met at the American embassy on invitation of Henry Wilson, the American ambassador, to plan concerted action for the protection of aliens in the event that the situation in the capital reaches a stage necessitating the taking of measures to defend themselves. Mr. Wilson explained that his action in calling together the foreign diplomats to discuss the situation was merely precautionary. Later the American ambassador called on Francisco De la Barra, the Mexican minister of foreign affairs, to lay before him a contemplated movement on the part of the representatives of foreign governments stationed here. The details of the plan have not yet been made public.

THE WARD SUIT

Four Charges Dismissed by Court

NEW YORK, May 11.—The trial of John Ward's suit against Ban Johnson was resumed today. The early testimony was confined to Ward's own history of his baseball career, from the time he played with the Providence Nationals in 1878 until 1893, when he became captain and manager of the New York Giants. At the conclusion of Ward's testimony the defense moved that five of the charges, two for slander and three for libel, be dismissed. Judge Hand agreed to dismiss all but the fifth charge, which charges that Johnson refused to sit on the national commission with Ward and said he "would not stand for him." This charge is one of libel and must be tried. The other charges of libel and slander the court threw out as unsustained.

STRAW HATS

APPEARED IN LARGE NUMBERS IN BOSTON TODAY

BOSTON, May 11.—Straw hats blossomed like apple buds today under the general influence of an 85 in the shade temperature and in defiance of the unwritten law making the 25th instant the season's change to summer attire.

The hot spell and dry weather enhanced the seriousness of the forest fire situation throughout the state and in some parts of the state the sun shone like a fierce ball through the dense pall of smoke.

A BRUSH FIRE

Early this afternoon a telephone alarm was sent to this city from North Chelmsford for a brush fire raging in the village. The chief immediately dispatched the Westford street chemical to the scene of the fire.

ENGLISH AVIATOR

NARROWLY ESCAPED HAVING HIS NECK BROKEN

MINEOLA, L. I., May 11.—Tom Sopwith, the English aviator who landed in this country only a few days ago, nearly broke his neck here today. The Bleriot monoplane in which he was carrying Philip Wilcox, also an aviator of some note, was caught in a gust of wind at the "graveyard" turn of the field, whirled out of equilibrium, and pitched on its beam ends from a height of fifty feet. Only plucky manipulation prevented it from turning a complete somersault. Sopwith was thrown heavily and badly cut but rose without assistance. Wilcox landed on his feet and was not even scratched. The machine was wrecked.

KILLED HIMSELF

MAN HAD SUFFERED FROM NERVOUS TROUBLES

NEW YORK, May 11.—Charles D. Garnett, said to be a retired manufacturer of St. Louis, shot and killed himself today in Riverside park. Mrs. Garnett said that her husband had suffered from nervous troubles for some time past. He was 43 years old. They had been occupying apartments in this city for several weeks.

MADE WORLD'S RECORD

MOURMELON, France, May 11.—M. Niouport, the French aviator, made what is recorded as a new world's record for 100 kilometers yesterday. Officially timed, he did 62.1 miles in 50 minutes and 4 seconds.

HAVERHILL WALLOPED

Gray's Speed Boys Were There
With 14 Hits

With a somewhat banged up team Lowell went to Haverhill, Mass., to play the home team of the Lowell Grays. The Grays were the best team in the state and it would appear that the hoodoo has disappeared.

Conney was out with a bad hand and Moulton held down shortstop, while Dugan, the utility man, played second. Then Barrows went back to bat to close the game and Pitcher Warwick went into center.

Warwick was on the slab for Lowell and he held Haverhill at his mercy. The home team narrowly escaped a whitewash. On the other hand Lowell was there for 14 hits. Warwick was not his best with men on bases when he made the home team look like self-ing players. With the bases full and one out in the ninth he struck out the next two batters.

Moulton led the batters with two singles and a double while Fluharty, the captain of the wrecking crew, got a double with three on bases clearing the bases. Warwick was there with a double and a single while Wright, the Haverhill outfielder who went to the big league for a short time, is back on his old job in Haverhill and made three hits. Tom Fleming who managed the Lowell team for a brief interval during the regime of Al Winn, and who has been umpiring for the Lowell Textile school team, officiated as decision maker and gave a good account of himself.

DIAMOND NOTES

Haverhill here today.

Tom Fleming, captain of the Lowell team during the meteoric career of Al Winn, umpired at Haverhill yesterday and did a good job. Tom has been umpiring the textile school games this season.

Fluharty heads the wrecking crew.

We can win with a battered up team.

Warwick is another Wolfgang. He can hit in most any old place.

The fact that Tommy Gatterson injured his ankle in yesterday's game will not interfere with his collection of $50 at Spaulding park tomorrow. He is the first man in the New England league to get $50 for hitting the Bull.

Evans, who was tried out at third by Lowell, and Walter and Raymond Foye report at New London on the 15th.

Moulton is making a worthy successor to Fitzpatrick.

STOCK MARKET

WAS STRONG AT THE CLOSE

TODAY

Upward Trend of Prices Was Maintained to the Close—Activity of the Market Was a Big Feature of the Dealings

NEW YORK, May 11.—The largest fluctuations at the opening of the stock market today were the local traction issues. Int. Met. pfd. lost 1/4 and Brooklyn Transit gained 1/4. There were few other changes of significance, the market developing an irregular tone soon after the opening. The Erie issues showed further strength. Toledo, St. Louis & Western pfd. lost 1/4.

Considerable amounts of United States Steel were supplied around the opening figures but the offerings were well taken and the price advanced a fraction. Elsewhere the speculation displayed little feature but there was a somewhat steadier undertone to the dealings.

Trading in stocks almost ceased this morning after the opening business had been disposed of. Price changes were so small as to be meaningless and the market took on no decisive character, although the tone was firmer than yesterday. Bonds were steady, with continued heavy absorption of New York city securities.

Trading showed a little more vim for a time after mid-day and prices advanced. Reading, U. P. and U. S. Steel all scored good fractional gains but the demands were not persistent and prices afterward went off a trifle.

Extensive purchases of U. S. Steel carried it up steadily to 75 1/2, the high figure of the week and 1 1/2 above yesterday's final price. The unsuccessful attempt to break the price at the opening by dumping a large amount of this stock on the market having proved unavailing, the bears were forced to cover on a rising market. Considerable strength was also manifested by other favorite stocks.

The market closed strong. The upward trend of prices was maintained to the close with a broader inquiry for the dividend paying stocks. The activity and strength of the bond market furnished an effective back for confident buying of stocks.

Boston Copper Market

BOSTON, May 11.—Local coppers opened irregular today on meagre trading. Calumet and Hecla dropped to 45 1/2 the lowest in 25 years. Superior and Boston advanced to 5 1/4, while the remainder of the list was weak.

Spot Cotton

Cotton spot closed quiet, 15 points up. Middling Uplands 15.50. Middling Gulf 15.15. Sales, 1600 bales.

THE WATER BOARD

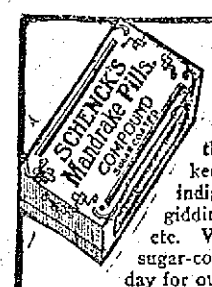

Will Recommend the Building of Two New Reservoirs

In the very near future the water board will recommend to the city council the building of two new reservoirs with a capacity of about 4,000,000 gallons each. It will be recommended that one of the reservoirs shall be covered. The covering will mean a considerable increase in the cost but it is deemed advisable and necessary that one of the reservoirs should be covered in order to obscure the sun and prevent the growth of algae. The two reservoirs would cost, approximately, $75,000. Each of the reservoirs would be equal to a day's supply and one could do the work while the other was being cleaned. The old reservoir has not been cleaned for years because of the fact that there was not another reservoir to relieve it. The water board would recommend that the new reservoirs be built of reinforced concrete. This is not an absolutely new proposition on the part of the water board. It was outlined in The Sun several months ago but the water board had so much on its hands at that time that the reservoir proposition was allowed to remain in the background for the time being. The board had other big expenses to consider including the purchase of a new pump for the West Centralville pumping station and the acquisition of more land for new wells.

The board feels, however, that it can no longer delay its recommendation for the new reservoirs and do justice to the tax-paying water takers, especially the people in the Highlands. The water supply for fire service in certain portions of the highlands is decidedly inadequate. The water board is willing to admit that it is so and the trouble is due to the fact that the old reservoir is too low. In some streets in the Highlands the residents are short on water even for domestic purposes. The old reservoir is too low and is not capable of the necessary pressure. The proposed new reservoirs would be 30 feet higher than the old reservoir and the water would much better service for the Highlands. The water board says that the new reservoirs are an absolute necessity and the quicker they are built the better for the city as a whole. The proposed site for the new reservoirs is near the old reservoir, but on higher land and most of the land included in the proposed site, is situated, belongs to the city.

SUPREME COURT

To Decide Coal Land Case

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The fight over probably the richest coal lands in the world was transferred today to the supreme court of the United States when the government docketed an appeal from the order of the federal court of Washington, quashing the so-called Stracey group indictment.

DANGER POINTS

Inspected by Waterways Committee

The committee on waterways, Councilman Coughlin, chairman, went out in automobiles at 2 o'clock this afternoon to view the danger points along the canals and rivers in Lowell. The committee on waterways was appointed as the result of an order introduced by Councilman Coughlin for the safeguarding of waterways throughout the city. After looking the home territory over the committee went to Bedford to look into a system of protection against drowning installed there. Upon returning to Lowell the committee will meet and prepare its recommendations for the city council.

The sub-committee of the committee on appropriations will hold a conference with the public hall commission tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The regular meeting of the board of health will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

VISITED PARKS

Henry F. Carr Already Displaying Interest

Although Henry F. Carr, whose appointment to the park board has been confirmed by the common council, is not a full fledged member of that body yet, still he is displaying a lively interest in the work of the department. Yesterday he visited the South common and then traveled to Fort Hill park. He says that he was not at all satisfied with conditions on the common and saw several matters that he will call to the attention of the park board should he become a member, and that seems certain, as there is no doubt that the aldermen will concur with the council in confirming the nomination. If Mr. Carr is as active as a park commissioner as he was as a member of the common council, things will be stirring in that department. When in the council he introduced the order that provided for the remaining of the streets of the city, and he also presented the order to change the fire lines in Centralville, a measure that greatly encouraged building in that section. He took active interest in school matters also and was instrumental in having important improvements made in the Butler school including the installation of a new boiler. This morning Mr. Carr made an inspection of the north common.

TO CREMATE BODY

LONDON, May 11.—In accordance with the wish revealed in his will, which was examined today, the body of Lafarge the Great, the eccentric vaudeville performer who lost his life in the fire that destroyed the Empire music hall at Edinburgh, Tuesday, will be cremated and the ashes placed between the paws of his trained dog Beauty, the body of which rests in a pretentious tomb in Piers Hill cemetery at Edinburgh.

BIG AVIATION MEET

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 11.—With a total of 15 events scheduled for the first day, a three days' aviation meeting in which Glenn Curtiss, J. A. D. McCurdy and Lincoln Beachey are to be the chief participants, opened this afternoon at the Bridgeport aerodrome, a practically level tract of 52 acres of land enclosed by a high board fence. The flights are to be made under the direction of Mr. Curtiss and additional interest will be given them by the fact that United States army and navy officers will take part.

BISHOP NAMED

MGR. THEN TO SUCCEED LATE BISHOP BONACUM
ROME, May 11.—Announcement was made at the vatican today that the Right Rev. Mgr. Thien, chancellor of the diocese of Wichita, Kan., has been appointed bishop of Lincoln, Neb., in succession to the late Right Rev. Thomas Bonacum.

FUNERAL NOTICE

HANCOCK.—Died in this city, May 9, at 59 Third street, Mrs. Eliza Soper Hancock, aged 87 years, 4 months, 9 days. The funeral services will take place at her home, 59 Third street, Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial at Coventry, Vt. Friends are invited without further notice. Undertaker Geo. W. Healey in charge.

LACK OF RAIN

HAVING ITS EFFECT ON STREAMS AND RESERVOIRS
MANCHESTER, N. H., May 11.—The lack of rain this spring besides rendering the roads so dry that forest fires have spread through great areas in New Hampshire, is beginning to have a marked effect on streams and reservoirs. Both mills and water supply systems are already suffering to some extent and unless there is unusually heavy precipitation during the next two months it is feared that conditions this summer will be serious. At Franklin the water in the Windpessaukee river has fallen to such an extent that some of the grinders in the pulp mills of the International Paper Co. have had to shut down and a number of pulp makers are out of work. Supt. Perry of the water department of the city of Dover expressed the opinion that it will be necessary to sink several artesian wells to prevent a water famine there. The water in Willard's pond, the principal source of supply for Dover, is now six inches lower than it was at this time last year.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KEEP CLEAN WITH CARBONOL

SOMETIMES soap-and-water cleanliness is enough. Sometimes "aseptic" cleansers are absolutely necessary, and in such cases you should mix Carbonol in the water used in cleaning. A dash of Carbonol in a pail of water gives the whole mixture powerful disinfecting qualities. Garbage cans and all repositories of refuse should be cleaned with it to kill the germs, to keep away flies and to suppress odors. Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the cellar before sweeping and the musty smell will disappear. A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

President Taft deserves credit for his firmness on the reciprocity measure. No doubt he feels that upon that he must stand or fall.

Speaker Walker of the Massachusetts house seems to be playing politics with great earnestness. He tried to offset his opposition to the federal income tax by moving for an amendment to the state constitution providing for a special form of income tax. In this he was wisely foiled as the federal amendment is likely to be adopted in the near future in spite of all opposition.

CAN WE HAVE HOME RULE?

The question arises whether the city of Lowell can secure from the legislature the privilege of conducting its own local affairs. Lowell is now before the legislature for the second time with a draft of a new charter for submission to the people. The last attempt was rejected by the legislature and if the present petition be also rejected, it will appear that we are denied the privilege of home rule and obliged to continue doing business under an antiquated charter that places responsibility nowhere and that encourages inefficiency and extravagance.

THE SITUATION IN MEXICO

It is high time that President Diaz of Mexico began to take the revolution seriously. His chief apprehension up to the present has been lest the United States should intervene to stop hostilities and compel the federal government to make terms of peace with the rebels. The Mexican government apparently has little fear of suppressing the rebellion finally, and considering the fact that General Madero, leader of the rebel forces, represents but a small fraction of the population and that the rebellion has spread over but a small territory compared with the entire country, it would seem that the conflict is greatly exaggerated in importance. However, the spirit of rebellion under favorable conditions will spread rapidly, and now that the revolution starts with renewed vigor after the failure of peace negotiations, it would appear that the federal government will have to assert its power very soon if it would stem the tide of rebellion in time to save the republic. The rebels are spreading havoc and ruin wherever they go, and many non-combatant Americans have been killed by stray bullets from the fight near El Paso. It would seem that the rebels must be getting ammunition secretly from the United States or some other unexplained source as they seem to be well supplied. The presence of Col. Garibaldi of Italy as a lieutenant of General Madero is quite significant.

President Diaz is an old man, and he has been in office since 1876. To residents of this country there is something apparently absurd if not tyrannical in the idea of the president of a republic holding office so long. But conditions in Mexico cannot be judged from conditions here. The country has a population of 18,000,000 scattered over an immense area of 767,000 square miles mostly in the torrid zone.

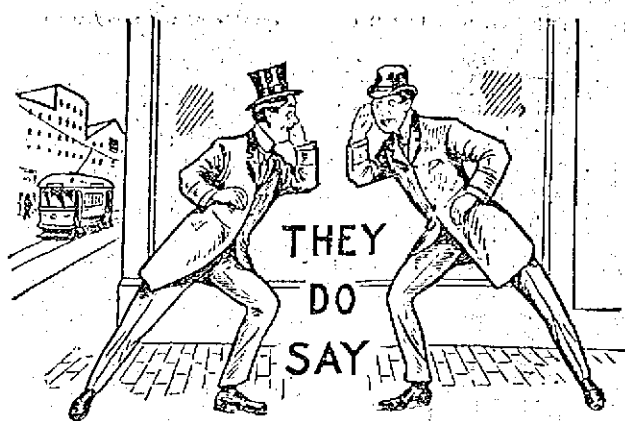

President Diaz took charge of the government when the country was at a low ebb, when its people were in ignorance of the outside world, with no means of education or communication. In spite of vast difficulties he succeeded in bringing order and stability out of chaos, replacing poverty by prosperity, insolvency by national credit, promoting education by the establishment of well conducted schools. He aided the general development of the country by encouraging the construction of railroads and brought about better conditions between the land owners and the occupants of the soil on questions that had long been a source of trouble.

Mexico has a constitution under which regular elections are held. How it came that President Diaz has held office so many years is the question nobody can explain; but it is claimed by his friends that his wise leadership and direction of public affairs inspired the people with such confidence in his ability, that they never felt disposed to remove him and so he became a fixture beside which other candidates seemed small in comparison.

Another and perhaps a more accurate explanation is, that President Diaz being skilled in the art of politics and having on his side the prestige and power of being chief executive of the republic found little difficulty in securing re-election from year to year. There are certainly no Yankee politicians down there or Diaz would have been ousted long ago, no matter how indispensable his services to the republic.

The absence of any powerful opponent made his perpetuation in office an easy matter; and he generally also had the privilege of dictating who the other leading elective officials should be. But while Diaz may have been a dictator in the matter of retaining office, nobody can deny that he has at all times used his influence to promote the welfare of his country so that on the whole Mexico was probably better off by retaining President Diaz than she would have been by changing to the class of aspirants who wanted his place. The present rebellion has brought up the question of forcing Diaz out of office; but he very wisely declined, stating that to do so in the present disturbed state of the country would open the way to all sorts of irregularities. In that he is right. Elections under the present effervescent state of feeling in Mexico could accomplish no good purpose and the retirement of the lawfully constituted government to give place to a band of marauders would certainly lead to chaos and anarchy a thousand times worse than anything thus far produced by the rebellion.

President Diaz has hitherto appeared to be more afraid of American intervention than of the rebel attacks. But if he wants to avoid intervention, he must bestir himself in suppressing the rebellion, now making such headway. The government has the power to do it; but the country is wide and where the rebels are so widely scattered it is difficult to meet them at all points. It is probable that Madero's main object is to get Uncle Sam to step in and order a halt. There is reason to believe that the rebels are purposely sending bullets across the Texan border in order to induce intervention. Gen. Madero while charging all kinds of graft against President Diaz is himself the owner of an estate of 5,000,000 acres on which the people are oppressed. Personally, it is conceded, Madero is not a desirable man to be elevated to any commanding position in the republic.

That 88 from 106 still leaves 18.

That a resident of William street who wears a straw hat all the year round was the only one to beat out Col. Chadwick on being the first Lowell man to appear in public with the straw lid this spring.

That now that the park board has a commissioner who learned to play the great national game on the South common we may expect to find a change of conditions at that place.

That even the trees on the South common are drooping their heads with shame as the result of the recent newspaper articles relative to conditions at that public breathing place.

That the board of trade's show night at Lincoln hall this evening will not only be an innovation in the line of a smoke talk but will be of great benefit to the business men of Lowell. That few people in Lowell realize that high class shoes are now being manufactured in this city.

That henceforth it's Commissioner Carr, C. C. See?

That a poor motor and a new motor make a combination that jars passengers and causes delay.

That it is not yet settled whether the seniority shaken on the local street railway will improve the service.

That there is still a crying need for the occasional visit of the street car sprinkler to outer Rogers street, especially when Lowell is playing at Spalding park.

That while the street railroad is making big improvements at Lakeview, Mr. Charles Bunker, the lessee of Willow Dale is also improving that resort with a view to giving the public added attractions this summer.

That John J. Dawson couldn't stand the criticism of his friends when he appeared in Merrimack square yesterday with his last year's straw lid on, and beat it back to his apartments where he speedily donned his Dunlap.

SEEN AND HEARD

One good thing about Woburn is that after the 10.30 train from Boston leave there, Lowell passengers can find seats.

No, we would not advise you to change just yet. If you must take 'em off keep 'em handy.

It's costing Uncle Sam a nice penny to witness that family quarrel in Mexico.

A young storekeeper who had failed the previous day was so diligent about meeting his creditors that he gave his wife the following instructions:

"Now, Marie, if anyone rings, you answer the door and tell them that I'm not in. 'I'll hide.'"

Nor had he long to wait until a loud jangling of the bell assured him that an irate creditor stood at the door.

"It was only a reporter, however."

"I wish to speak to your husband."

"But he isn't in," protested the woman.

"Well, I understand," said the reporter, getting out his notebook and pencil.

"That he is insolvent."

"O, yes," cried the wife, a happy inspiration seizing her; "he went over there on the 2.40 train yesterday, and I don't expect him back until tomorrow."—Lippincott's Magazine.

"Why is your grandpa's face bandaged?" asked the lady next door.

"He was sleeping in his big chair," explains the little girl, "and Willie turned the nozzle of the vacuum cleaner against his whiskers."—Life.

List to the irony of honesty:

"I may as well tell you, Mr. McGreary, that I am not buying this hair dye for an elderly friend; I expect to use it myself."

"I won't pretend, Mrs. Kowler, that the reason why I never have any photographs taken is because they never look like me; they always do."

"Gentlemen, I'm not going to lie to you; my friends have not asked me to be a candidate for this office. I'm a candidate for it because I want the salary."

"Mr. Hilker, there's no use in pre-

YOUNG STOWAWAY

WAS HELD UP AND WILL BE RETURNED

BOSTON, May 11.—On board the Warren liner Sagamore, when she reached her berth at pier 42, Hissac docks, yesterday afternoon, was James McDonough, aged 20, a native of England, who stowed away on the vessel April 23, the day she left Liverpool.

For nine days he mingled with the cattle and crew. He got his meals regularly and was congratulating himself on his good luck when an officer met him in the engine room alleyway three days ago. The officer questioned James, who became confused and told conflicting stories. Before Capt. Fenton he confessed that he had hid on board at Liverpool.

He was barred by the immigration inspector and taken to Long wharf, where he will occupy the stowaways' room until the Sagamore is ready to leave here next Tuesday, when he will be sent back to England. He will probably have to face a term in the workhouse when he reaches Liverpool, for stowing away is a misdemeanor under the English laws, and is punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

Richard Williams, secretary of the Warren line at Liverpool, and Thomas Scholes at Hartford were passengers. Scholes brought away seven valuable

GOVERNOR FOSS

Asked to Act in Boy Leper Case

PROVIDENCE, May 11.—Gov. Foss, yesterday afternoon wrote to Gov. Ross of Massachusetts asking him to use his influence to secure asylum for Harry Sheridan, the Pawtucket schoolboy leper, at Pentecost island colony as a private patient. The Massachusetts authorities have refused this permission and the boy's future is very much unsettled.

Yesterday Mayor Giles W. Estlerbrook, Col. Collector E. W. Blodgett and Health Officer Byron U. Richards of Pawtucket held a long conference with Gov. Foss. They asked the governor to assist in the matter, explaining that there is no place in Rhode Island for the isolation of lepers and that the boy can be cared for at Pentecost island as a private patient if the necessary permission is granted by the Bay state authorities.

It was explained that Gov. Foss has no authority in the case, but it is desired to obtain his moral support. Gov. Foss complied with the request.

At a meeting of the Radcliffe council, Miss Eleanor M. Buckingham, A. B. Radcliffe, 1892, was appointed mistress of Grace Hopkins Eliot hall for 1911-12, to take the place of Miss Grace E. MacLachlan, who has been mistress of the hall since it was opened in 1907, and retired at the close of the present year. Miss Buckingham has several years experience as teacher in both public and private schools.

Announcement was made today that John V. Farwell, Chicago, will be the only name formally presented to the graduates of Yale for the vacancy on the corporation caused by the expiration of the term of the late Henry F. Dimock of New York. Mr. Dimock, who died shortly after the call for "nominations" was issued; Hon. Clifford Finchot and Mr. Farwell alone were named by the necessary number of graduates, twenty-five, to constitute a formal nomination. Mr. Finchot has withdrawn his name, leaving only that of Mr. Farwell to be voted upon in June.

Mr. Farwell was graduated from Yale in 1879. He is president and general manager of the firm of John V. Farwell & Co., and is a director of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad and other important companies. He has been very active as a citizen in Chicago, where he has been prominently connected with the Municipal Voters' league, the "Chicago Plan" commission, etc. He has been president of the Chicago X. ADMITS HIS GUILT

Confession Made to Gov. Foss at Prison — Unusual Scene When Ek Was Told of Pardon—Woman Nearly 70 Was Set Free

BOSTON, May 11.—Gov. Foss and the executive council yesterday pardoned three prisoners, two men and a woman, and in the case of one received the man's thanks, in an unusual scene at the state prison in Charlestown, during which another prisoner declared the man innocent and himself the guilty one.

The pardoned ones are: Axel W. Ek, who was convicted in Worcester in February, 1905, of manslaughter in causing the death of William Warrusavicz and was sentenced to a term of not less than 10 and not more than 12 years. He was released after having served five years and three months.

John J. McCarthy, who was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory in January, 1911, for assault with intent to rob.

Mrs. Genina Mazzocco, nearly 70 years old, who, because of her inability to pay a fine of $25, having been convicted of assault and battery upon her son's wife and required to furnish Security to keep the peace, has been confined in the Charles street jail.

At a meeting of the executive council yesterday it was voted that that body recommend the granting of pardons. The pardons were sent to the governor and remained upon his desk awaiting his signature.

Gov. Foss, Lieut. Gov. Frothingham, members of the executive council and Executive Secretary Dudley M. Holman, started immediately for the Charlestown prison and made a thorough inspection of the institution.

Makes Promise to Governor

Secretary Holman gave the account of what happened at the prison.

When they entered the prison orchestra was playing and the governor and council listened for some moments. The orchestra played several pieces by request.

Warden Bridges then summoned Ek, who was a member of the orchestra. The governor asked Ek if he would appreciate a pardon if it should be extended to him, and if he would go back to work and hereafter be a law-abiding and upright citizen. Ek promised to do so.

Warden Bridges then summoned McCarthy, who was a member of the orchestra. The governor asked McCarthy if he would appreciate a pardon if it should be extended to him, and if he would go back to work and hereafter be a law-abiding and upright citizen. McCarthy promised to do so.

Warden Bridges then summoned Mazzocco, who was a member of the orchestra. The governor asked Mazzocco if she would appreciate a pardon if it should be extended to her, and if she would go back to work and hereafter be a law-abiding and upright citizen. Mazzocco promised to do so.

Whereupon the governor told him that the council had already voted to grant him a pardon and that upon their return to the state house this afternoon the governor would sign the pardon.

A cheer broke from the men, and a member of the orchestra, who is under sentence for manslaughter, rushed to the governor took him by the hand, fell upon his knees and before the governor knew what he was about kissed his hand several times, saying in broken English, "He innocent, I guilty." He meant that Ek was innocent but that he acknowledged his own guilt.

Doubt as to Conviction

The two men were room-mates, and the Italian who acknowledged his own guilt is a skillful musical instrument maker and does some excellent work.

Warden Bridges, said both men had splendid records. None of the men showed an envious disposition because of the pardon.

Together with three others, Ek was charged with assaulting and beating William Warrusavicz, from which he died. The others were given sentences in the house of correction for two years. There has always been a question as to who was guilty, and Dist. Atty. Stiles, in his report to the governor, stated that Capt. O'Day and two other inspectors of police in Worcester united in saying they thought the public interest would not be harmed if Ek was pardoned.

Up to this time he had always borne an excellent reputation, and had not been in any trouble whatsoever. George Taft, who was district attorney at the time Ek was sentenced, also recommended the pardon.

Judge Approved Pardon

John J. McCarthy was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory in January, 1911, for assault with intent to rob. Judge White and Dist. Atty. Sawyer agreed to the pardon. Four men were concerned in the robbery. McCarthy always maintained that he was innocent.

Mrs. Genina Mazzocco was convicted with her son. The parties are now thoroughly reconciled to each other, it is said. The court imposing the sentence revoked its order relative to the son, but found that it was not authorized to do so in the case of the mother-in-law.

Judge Ely recommended the pardon. The attorney general ruled that in order to secure her release she must be pardoned by the governor and council.

The governor visited Jesse Pomeroy, the life prisoner, and was interested in listening to what Pomeroy had to say concerning his treatment. Pomeroy said that under Gov. Long he was permitted to go to the chapel with the other prisoners, but when Warden Russell took charge, this privilege was taken away from him on the ground that he was sentenced to solitary confinement which did not permit him to attend chapel.

Pomeroy is allowed an hour's exercise in the yard a day, but always by himself, and he has no fault to find with his general treatment, but he does desire to have some of the restrictions removed which keep him absolutely separated from all the world.

Secretary Holman's account states that it is quite possible some action may be taken in this regard.

The governor talked with a number of the prisoners and expressed himself as pleased with conditions.

COL. L. E. COOK

BUFFALO BILL'S GENERAL AGENT IN TOWN

Col. Louis E. Cooke, general agent of Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East combined exhibitions, visited this city today in the interests of the mammoth aggregation which he directs. He found time to call on a number of long-time friends. Col. Cooke, for many years guided the Barnum and Bailey circus during its most successful years. He is unquestionably one of the greatest showmen in the world.

when searched a policy of $1100 was found in his pockets, it is alleged.

Chief Mason of the fire department was at a loss to account for the origin of the fire, which he said appeared in several different places.

The speakers of the evening will be: Mr. Alfred W. Donovan, Rockland, Mass., president N. E. Shoe and Leather association. Mr. Thomas F. Anderson, Boston, Mass., secretary N. E. Shoe and Leather association. Mr. Carl M. Phil, "History of Shoe Manufacturing in Lowell." Mr. Charles F. Brigham, "Lowell a place to make shoes."

The speakers from experience are eminently qualified to address the meeting and an evening of enthusiasm and interest is assured.

After the formal exercises a general discussion upon the matter of forming a Realty company will be held.

MURDER CHARGE IN THE CHURCHES

Two Men Arraigned in Court

FARMINGTON, Me., May 11.—John Nott, aged 35, and Giuseppe Castiglione, aged 35, both of Chisholm, were held in the municipal court here yesterday afternoon without bail by Judge Pollman for the September grand jury, charged with the murder of Dominick Ventrell, aged 40, at Chisholm, last Sunday night.

Dr. George L. Pratt of this place, county medical examiner, testified that the autopsy on Ventrell revealed three stab wounds in the right breast and side. Two were wide and jagged and penetrated the right lung. The third wound was cleaner cut and had penetrated the liver. He thought two weapons were employed.

Other witnesses testified to finding the wounded man in his yard with his hands pressed to his breast, and to seeing two men answering to the general appearance of the prisoners running from the premises.

Joseph Cancellero, who boarded at the Nott house with the defendants, identified a coat as one taken off and left at the boarding house by Nott shortly after the stabbing is said to have taken place. It is alleged there are human blood stains on this coat.

Witness also testified to seeing a long knife and a weapon made from a river driver's pick pole in Nott's hands Sunday afternoon.

The men were captured Monday night in West Peru, near Rumford, and with them was Omerio Gallinelli, said to have fled with them from the boarding house. He is held in $2000 bonds as a witness, in default of which he is held in jail.

FIRE AT BANGOR

Two Persons Placed Under Arrest

BANGOR, Me., May 11.—Two people are locked up in the police station pending investigation of a fire which broke out shortly after 3 o'clock last night in a dwelling house with a saloon and poolroom beneath, on Front street, at the foot of May street.

The alarm from box 22 rung in for the conflagration of April 30 started the city. The property is owned by Mrs. Alice Haverly, leased by Pope D. McKinnon and was subleased by Joseph King, the upper part being used as a lodging house.

When the firemen arrived the house was found locked, and unoccupied, but blazing furiously. The property loss will probably be $30,000 or more.

Joseph King and Alice Armstrong, his housekeeper, were arrested and locked up. King said that he had but $300 insurance on the furniture, but

BOARD OF TRADE

Important Meeting of Directors Held

THE ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD IN JUNE

Postmaster Legare to Make Improvements in Postal Service as Requested—Resolutions to be Presented Geo. M. Harrigan

An important meeting of the directors of the board of trade was held yesterday afternoon. Several new members who had been passed upon by the membership committee were admitted, and a committee was appointed to bring in a list of officers to be balloted for at the annual meeting in June. Several committees reported and by a unanimous vote George M. Harrigan was given a rising vote of thanks for the work he did in clearing up the land titles in Filbertica making it possible for the Boston & Maine to locate their car shops there. He was also voted that a set of resolutions be drawn up by the secretary and presented to Mr. Harrigan on behalf of the board.

Secretary Murphy's report showed that the secretary had been a very busy man during the past month. President Greene said Mr. Murphy was instrumental in having a huge advertising sign from being erected on the building at the corner of Middlesex and Gorham streets, leased by the D. L. Page Co.

Daniel F. Carroll presented a report on behalf of the realty committee which was placed on file.

Henry A. Smith was elected a delegate to the state board of trade.

George M. Harrigan for the postal affairs committee reported on several matters which were brought to the attention of Postmaster Joseph A. Legare, one of which was the placing of cards on mail boxes stating the time of collection. Many of the cards have become worn out and have not been replaced. Another matter which the committee called his attention to was the collection of mail from the down town boxes in time to get the late train for Boston and New York. Postmaster Legare has made arrangements for this as well as for the renewing of worn out cards on the boxes. President Greene and Mr. Harrigan made the statement that Mr. Legare seemed anxious to better the service and courted suggestions from business men tending to that end.

The following committee to bring in a list of officers to be balloted for at the annual meeting in June was appointed: William F. Hills, James E. O'Donnell and Frank Ricard.

This evening a general meeting of the board will be held at Lincoln hall which has been designated as "Shoe Night."

The speakers of the evening will be: Mr. Alfred W. Donovan, Rockland, Mass., president N. E. Shoe and Leather association. Mr. Thomas F. Anderson, Boston, Mass., secretary N. E. Shoe and Leather association. Mr. Carl M. Phil, "History of Shoe Manufacturing in Lowell." Mr. Charles F. Brigham, "Lowell a place to make shoes."

COMPANY K, 6th REGIMENT, ORCHESTRA

1st cornet, Musician Harry Ghard; 1st violin, Private Warren White; 2d cornet, Corp. Edgar Luce; 1st cornet, Corp. Roswell Jefferson; trans. Musician Williston Carr; piano, Corp. S. R. Waller; flute, 1st Serg. Harry Sheldon; 1st violin, Private Frank L. McCool; second violin, Lance, Corp. Frank Huntley.

That Captain James N. Greig of Company K is proud of his new orchestra and his howling team was evidenced last evening when he entertained the members of both at a delightful banquet served in his hospitable home, 76 Bellevue street, all the members being in attendance. After the discussion of an excellent menu of the orchestra opened up and entertained with a most acceptable program while Capt. Greig and Corporal Luce sang several pleasing solos. Corp. Roswell Jefferson, a member of the orchestra, made a farewell address as he resigns from the company to go to Boston where he has accepted a responsible position. The orchestra was organized a short time ago by Dr. S. R. Waller and is the only one of its kind in the Massachusetts militia. It is an amateur organization and is in business for the pleasure it affords the members of the company. It has appeared several times at the Armory and before the Spanish War Veterans and the Women's Relief Corps, always making a big hit.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, including a pillow inscribed "Our Robert," from the family; pillow inscribed "Our Second Hand," from the Root Mills male room; wreath inscribed "Uncle," from George Cameron; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dickey; wreath from Franklin House; wreath, employees of Lawrence Company; spray of pinks from Mr. John Russell and family; spray of pinks from Miss Jeanette Patrick; basket of flowers from Misses Margaret and Josie Miller; and spray from Jonathan Wood and family.

Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker C. M. Young.

Scored a Big Hit in Associate Hall Last Night

The Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, last night clinched the right of being co-members with the famous "Kings of the Black Face" when they presented a minstrel show, which while being their initial effort was a great success. It was the first time that the Knights' proposition for membership was advanced to minstrelsy, but it was such a success that it is a safe assurance that their friends may look forward to it as an annual affair. An audience taxing the capacity of Associate hall was present and long before the overture was started every seat was occupied.

At 8:30 o'clock two large "Old Glories" which hid the stage setting from inquisitive eyes of the audience were parted. The scene presented was a most beautiful one, and was heartily applauded by the audience. Seated in four tiers were the members of the chorus, while the first row of the circle was occupied by the soloists, and men and women. After the applause which greeted the picture had subsided William F. Thornton, as introductory introduced the ends. A grand introductory overture of the most popular songs was rendered with a vim by the chorus. At all times Mr. Thornton had the chorus well in hand and the manner in which the songs were given testified to his ability as a director. The first solo of the evening, "Your Eyes Have Told Me So," was given by Mr. Frank Cannon, a young man with a promising baritone voice. He was followed by Edna Mrs. Eugene McCarthy, who sang in a captivating manner, "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey." Mr. McCarthy introduced some very clever dance and march steps in his solo which caught the fancy of the audience. In the chorus of his song he was assisted by Miss Lena O'Neil, a young miss who took the solo part, while Miss Margaret McDonough and Mr. McCarthy harmonized. The effect was a very pleasing one, and brought the soloists rounds of applause. Miss Mary Corcoran, who substituted for Miss Vera McArthur, whose illness prevented her from being present, sang Deke's famous ballad "O! Promise Me." Miss Corcoran, kindly consented to sing the solo yesterday morning, and gave it in a very capable manner. Miss Margaret McQuillan one of the end women sang "I Feel Religion Comin' On" in a characteristic southern style. Mr. William L. Gookin gave as his number "My Hero," the solo which gave the opera, "The Chocolate Soldier," an envious position in the operatic world. Mr. Gookin sang it in an easy and artistic manner, and had to respond to several encores. Time—Continued to page eleven

The Boylston-Beatty Combination Was the Biggest Winner With the Lawrence Men Second—List of the Others Who Landed Prizes

The last day of competition in the National Duck and Candle Pin Bowling congress on the Crescent alleys, brought forth many surprises. The only entry on the card was that of the Majestic alleys of Lawrence, and what the visitors did brought disappointment to many bowlers who felt that they had the coin clinched in ducks and candlepins.

The team last year won the championship for a five-man team at duckpins, and yesterday managed to pull out second prize with a total of 1492. What they failed to do at duckpins, they made up for at candlepins, for they broke the record established by the Boylston-Beatty combination of Boston, which was made on the second day of the tournament. On that occasion the Boston cracks put up 1497 and yesterday Majestic split the pins for 1544, and it landed the candlepin championship for 1911.

A peculiar thing about the five-man candlepin figures of 1497 was that it was the second round, and without the hammering of team after team, only to be wiped off the slate by the last entry on the card and the last three strings rolled by Lawrence men were the ones that cost Boston the championship.

Peel of the Majestic team of Lawrence was the start of the individual candlepin class, for he rolled 335, which John Christopher of Boston rolled second money. McCarthy and Harrison of Majestic scored third in the two-man class.

When it is considered that the Boylston-Beatty team composed of candlepin rollers won the duckpin class with 1602, and the Majestic duckpin rollers scored at candlepins, it makes it plain that trying to pick a winner in a tournament of this kind is time wasted. Moreover it proves that no matter what kind of a combination is brought together, if they are small ball rollers they have a chance to win at either one style or the other, and that the specialists at a particular game don't always win.

While it is true that the Majestic boys roll nothing but ducks at Lawrence, it is not to be inferred that they cannot roll candlepins or that their tournament score is a fake. Sometime ago the same team rolled a special candlepin match with the Carruth team on

Physicians say that after a close shave, the skin, seen under the microscope, looks like raw beef. This favors the growth of disease germs and accounts for many skin diseases that disfigure men's faces.

To prevent this, and ease the stinging caused by water and soap, dust the face over with Comfort Powder, after washing with warm water. Comfort Powder is antiseptic and healing, makes your face feel fine, is harmless and kills all germs. See that signature E. S. Sykes is on the box you buy.

In the legislature yesterday the bill providing for the marking of prison-made goods was rejected finally and a great victory scored by Rep. George Marchand of this city.

This bill was originally reported adversely upon by the committee on prisons of which Rep. Marchand is house chairman. It was substituted by the house for the adverse report, but was fought hard at every stage by Rep. Marchand.

In his argument against the bill Rep. Marchand pointed out that one result would be to deprive the prisoners of work which is necessary to their health and happiness and that the prison-made goods of this state would be in direct competition with those of other states which would not have to be marked.

The bill was opposed by Messrs. Greenwood of Everett and Underhill of Somerville, and favored by Egan of Boston and Curtin of Boston. Mr. Saunders of Clinton also opposed the bill.

By a roll call vote of 53 to 102, the house refused to pass the bill to be engrossed, and it was rejected.

If Mothers Only Knew

When children are cross, irritable and peevish it does not signify that they have bad tempers. It shows that there is something wrong with the child which it is not able to explain, and which the mother—If She Only Knew—could easily and quickly cure. Mothers, study your child's symptoms: if cross, peevish, nervous, grite the teeth, wet the bed, picks the nose, has variable appetite or bowels, suffers with wind-colic or headache, is irritable and restless, has furred tongue or offensive breath, you may be sure that child is troubled with worms, which cause nearly all the ills of childhood.

Don't delay—disease comes suddenly—a few doses of the wonderful old-time remedy—will give your children that vigorous health which is so important to their future happiness. Dr. True's Elixir cures the worms, if there are any—if not it acts as a gentle laxative and tonic. It cleans out all waste matter from the stomach and bowels, tones and strengthens the entire system of adult and well children. Dr. True's Elixir is a safe, pure, vegetable tonic and has been the standard household remedy for sixty years. Write for free book, "Children and Their Diseases." Sold by all druggists, 25c per bottle. True's Cough and Croup Remedy made. Price 25c. Sent anywhere on receipt of price.

ABSOLUTE SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION OF TWO PARCELS OF LAND SITUATED ON ARLINGTON ST., DRACUT CENTRE.

Saturday, May 13th, 1911

First Parcel at 3 o'clock

Comprises a lot containing one-fourth of an acre of land, more or less, situated on the corner of Arlington street and Arlington avenue. It has a combined frontage of 200 feet on the two streets, thereby affording one ample room, to build and reserve a large portion for garden purposes. There are 21 apple trees bearing this year. The lot is high and dry and very fertile, is enclosed by a wire fence and has gas and town water in the street. It is within five minutes' walk of the Bridge street car line. This lot would make a grand site for anyone desiring to erect a country house. Terms: $100 to be deposited with the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

At 3.30 o'clock P. M.

I will sell a lot containing 20,872 square feet of land, more or less. This lot is located on Arlington street Dracut Centre, about 500 feet from Bridge street, adjoining the firehouse lot. Is high and dry and has a frontage of about 30 feet on the street, has gas and town water and within two minutes' walk of the Dracut Centre electric. If you are looking for a first class lot in the suburbs of Lowell be sure and attend this sale, as the same is to be positive.

Terms: $100 to be deposited with the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

Grows Five Inches of New Hair in Thirty Days

Both men and women, inclined to baldness or dandruff, will be interested in the following simple home formula for hair and scalp treatment, strongly recommended by a reader who states that from its use, in thirty days, she grew new hair five inches long.

Ray Rum 8 oz.
Lavender de Composee 2 oz.
Menthol Crystals 1/2 dr.

These ingredients are all staple, standard and inexpensive pharmaceutical products kept by any well equipped druggist. Let the druggist mix them for you or you can do it yourself at home. You will stand half an hour before using, apply night and morning, rubbing briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush.

This preparation is not only a wonderfully rapid hair grower, but it quickly stops dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp, and even though it is neither a stain nor dye, will restore hair its natural color to gray, streaked or faded hair in nine cases out of ten.

Before publication we presented this prescription to Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., and they state that they have applied it many times for their patients who report most astonishing results from its use.

THE OPERA HOUSE

A rising young preacher of exalted reputation falls in love with a young and handsome circus rider in the play "Polly of the Circus" that will be seen at the Opera House tonight.

Two deacons of the young pastor's church raise all kinds of particular trouble over the affair and the women of the congregation storm in scandalized fashion, but you will sympathize with the preacher and his love for the circus rider, and love her too.

"Polly of the Circus" is a protest against the extraneous of show people by the churches. In this production Frederic Thompson reaches out beyond the footlights and taps the conscience of the audience on its shivering shoulders.

The story deals with circus life and shows pictures that are wonderful creations which only a man like Frederic Thompson could produce, as he has proven to the theatre-loving public that he knows what they want in the amusement line, having produced such successes as "Brewster's Millions," "A Fool There Was," the big New York success, "The Spontaneous," and the success of "Polly of the Circus" is nothing but a wonderful. We will see a very realistic and wonderful.

showing the savdust ring as we saw it on the lot many and many a time, with the crowns, acrobats, gymnasts, bareback riders, ringmasters, tumblers, the beautiful horses and ponies that do the most remarkable tricks, and "Little Nell" the performing elephant, and the aerial acts, all on the stage of a theatre, which is phenomenal. This is the same production that played its sold year at the Liberty theatre, New York City. Watch for the street parade.—Adv.

"JUMPING JUPITER"

Richard (Himself) Carls is said to be at his funniest in his own musical comedy "Jumping Jupiter" in which he will be seen here for the first time at the Opera House on May 24. The piece has distinction in its cast and sumptuous elegance in its costuming. Karl Hoschina of "Madam Butterfly" fame has written some beautiful songs for "Jumping Jupiter" and among the prominent players in Mr. Carls' support are Edna Wallace Hopper, Burroughs and many others of equal note. Seats are now on sale.—Adv.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Don't miss the final opportunity to see the Donald Meek Stock company before the season's close, for the company will bid its adieu to Lowell with the close of the week. For a closing attraction the company is offering one of the funniest comedies ever put on the stage replete with bright dialog and abounding in uproariously funny situations and complications, but absolutely free from any coarseness or vulgarity. With the exception of Miss Isabel Estelle, who is playing in Milwaukee at the head of a big stock company, the entire company appear in congenial roles. Mr. DeDeyn and does it ample justice, while Mr. Meek has a part just suited to him, that of a nervous elderly Englishman, who has a hunch on getting married in a hurry and who wants to marry another man's wife, not knowing that she is already spoken for. Miss Lillian Nalderauer has a particularly pleasing part in which she amply displays her cleverness, while Messrs. Cairns, Marston and Russell are all well cast. Misses Doris Dutton and Belle Bales as twin sisters are simply bewitching. The play is finely staged and richly costumed. At the conclusion of the week Mr. DeDeyn will go to Scranton, Pa., where he opens at the head of his summer stock company, while Mr. Meek is under contract to appear at the Casino square, where he will assume the character of "Bob Acres" in a revival of Joseph Jefferson's great success, "The Rivals." It was previously announced that Mr. Meek would appear in another play of lighter character, but it has been decided to present "The Rivals." Seats for the performances this week may be secured in advance by telephone, 311.—Adv.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Pierce and Roslyn, in their high-class singing act are winning friends by the score at the Merrimack Square theatre this week. Their program includes a variety of music, of classic, popular, and comic, and is given with unusual skill. Mr. Pierce possesses a fine baritone voice and Miss Roslyn, besides being an excellent soprano, is a pianist of merit. On Friday night this pair will give an operatic recital of many of the selections from the high-class operas. The affair promises to be one of the real musical treats of the season. Another act that is sharing in the honors of the week is that presented by Harlow and Plunkett.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today the Theatre Voyons shows a decidedly novel show in which a western biograph entitled "In the Days of '49" is the star. It is a tale of the old mining days when adventure was plenty and exciting times frequently occurred. Then there is one of the cleverest Vitaphone comedies of the year entitled "Soldiers Three" in which three Highland soldiers get into a peck of trouble because of the pranks of their sweethearts. Then as a strong dramatic offering "Hungry Hearts" cannot fail to please for it is most pleasingly acted and finely staged.—Adv.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The vaudeville features commencing today include the Musical Rosters, the greatest of European musical novelties; Billy Barlow, extemporaneous comedian; Spissel, LaDell and Engel, European pantomimists; in their funny offering, "The Dutchman's First Visit." Three reels of the latest motion pictures will be interspersed in the bill. Matinees, 2:15; evenings at 7:15.—Adv.

HOW TO MAKE COMPLEXION SATINY

(Modes and Toilettes.)
"Don't smother the skin's pores with powder!" is the warning of Arlino (Koon), a well known authority on beauty. A good lotion will do more to promote an ideal complexion," she says, "than anything else, and if an original package of mayatone is dissolved in eight ounces of witch-hazel, you will have the finest thing obtainable for the skin."

"The use of a mayatone lotion clears and beautifies the skin and gives to any complexion that exquisite satiny appearance and smoothness so much admired."

"Aside from being a complexion beautifier, mayatone prevents the growth of hairs, and protects the skin from harsh winds and changing weather. Using it guards against tan, freckles or sunburn."

FIVE LIVES LOST MAN WAS FINED $20

Men Were Suffocated in a Mine Near Larksville, Pa. He Was Found Guilty of Illegally Selling Liquor

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 11.—Five lives were lost by suffocation in the Boston mines of the Delaware & Hudson Co. near Larksville, near here, today. The dead:

GEORGE FEEDER, driver.
JOHN MELODSKI, door-boy.
JACOB KENULLA, miner.
CHARLES KUMISKI, laborer.
WILLIAM ADAMKE, laborer.

A strike began at the colliery on Tuesday and only a small number of men were at work.

Fire broke out last night in a section of the mine where rock miners were employed, but it is said to have been gotten under control without difficulty. Eleven men were at work in that section. After midnight the odor of smoke was detected and another alarm was sounded. All the employees in the inside workings made their way from a side vein to the main gangway, but the smoke had become so dense that nearly all were overcome. Several rescue parties at the risk of their lives then entered the workings and succeeded in taking out three men. The rescuers returning to the gangway stumbled over the bodies of the dead. The latter were brought out as quickly as possible. Several of the rescuers were overcome by the smoke. The fire continues to rage in the mine but the company officials state that they expect to have it under control in a short time.

In police court today Walter D. Falls, who was charged with illegally selling liquor in the town of Chelmsford, entered a plea of guilty, and a fine of $20 was imposed.

Larceny Cases

In police court this morning Fred Jeffrey was charged with the larceny of $3 from Mrs. Agnes C. Ouellette. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty, but after hearing the evidence the court found him guilty and imposed a fine of $15.

Mrs. Ouellette testified that on Feb. 27, Jeffrey and his step-father, Michael Leboeuf, paid her a visit at her boarding-house in Dutton street. Later on during the day, Jeffrey returned and said that his stepfather had sent him to borrow $3 from her. The woman loaned the amount asked for but has not yet been paid. Some time ago she discovered that Leboeuf had nothing to do with the borrowing of the money, so she made a complaint. The defendant testifying in his own behalf denied using his stepfather's name to get the money, and said that last Sunday he sent $1 to Mrs. Ouellette and that he was going to pay the balance this week, but the woman refused the money, saying it was too late.

At this point the court found the defendant guilty and imposed a $15 fine.

FOR SLIGHT FIRE

Firemen Called to Middlesex Street Store

At 3:08 o'clock this morning an alarm from box 72 summoned a portion of the fire department at the Adams Hardware company in Middlesex street, for a slight fire in the cellar of the establishment. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion. It is believed, and the damage was slight, partly caused by the smoke.

Several Still Alarms

A still alarm for a slight fire on the Allen street dump was given at 6:49 o'clock this morning. There was no damage.

Another still alarm was given at 10:12 o'clock this morning for a chimney fire in Concord street, and at 10:15 o'clock the firemen were called by telephone to the building of James Dolan, in Concord street, where a stove was acting suspiciously.

LOWELL 15 - HAVERHILL 4

ANNUAL REUNION

Of the Survivors of the Famous
Abbott Greys

The survivors of the Abbott Greys, Company A, 2d Massachusetts, observed today the 50th anniversary of their regiment leaving Lowell for Camp Andrews, West Roxbury, Mass., the mobilization camp of the Massachusetts troops.

Foster of Somerville, M. N. Corner of Danvers, D. W. Brown of Springfield and Alexander Morse of Lowell. A business meeting was held in the forenoon during which Mr. Dexter Butterfield was elected president of the organization, and W. T. McAlpine secretary. At this meeting a letter of regret from M. G. McLaughlin of the Old Soldiers Home, Hampton, Va., who could not attend, was read.

HAS LARYNGITIS

Camorrist Informer Reported Ill

VITERBO, Italy, May 11.—Gennaro Abatemaggio is suffering from an acute attack of laryngitis and was unable to appear at the trial of the camorrist today, much to the disappointment of the spectators. He has been expected to see him confronted by Enrico Alfano, the alleged actual head of the camorra. Maria Stendardo, the woman prisoner, was also reported to be critically ill with pneumonia. The session was occupied with testimony of minor importance.

THE WATER DEPT

Because of the number of new houses that have been built in Farnland road, the water department will have to lay 500 extra feet of 12 inch pipe there. The department has been busy for the job for several days and will be through with it this week. Most of the new houses in Farnland road were built by Jacques Boisvert.

COUGHLIN OPPOSED

Councilman Coughlin said today that he was opposed to the erection of a contagious disease hospital on the site selected by a majority of the contagious hospital commission and he says he has been asked by several persons living in the vicinity of the city farm in Chelmsford street to oppose it.

Haverhill put in its best pitcher, Friel, in the game with Lowell at Spalding park this afternoon, but he did not seem to tease the local players in the least, for in the first inning they hammered him for two three-baggers and a two-bagger which netted three runs.

Tom Fleming who at one time managed a Lowell team officiated as umpire and gave general satisfaction.

The attendance was large and the weather conditions were excellent but the dense odor of smoke from a forest fire several miles away was not enjoyed by the enthusiasts.

Prior to the game it was announced that Duval had been released to Haverhill.

Lowell
Moulton, ss
Dugan, cf
Conney, 2b
Magee, 1b
Fleury, rf
Wright, lb
Boultes, 3b
Huston, c
Warwick, p

First Inning
Lowell scored three runs in the first inning while the visitors failed to send a man across the plate. Courtney opened with a line drive to Boultes and failed to reach first. Aubrey struck out and Barrett flied to Magee.

In the latter half of the inning Moulton sent the ball to deep left field for a three-bagger. Courtney made a good attempt to gather in the ball, but failed to do so. Dugan hit over Hoult's head for a three-bagger, scoring Moulton. Courtney flied to Courtney and Dugan scored on the put out. Magee hit to left field for two bases, stole third and scored on O'Donnell's bad throw. Fleury hit to Pfeffer and was retired at first. Wright hit to Friel and was out at first.

Second Inning
The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the second inning. Friel hit out on strikes. Grubb hit to Moulton and died at first while McGamwell struck out.

Lowell added two more runs in the latter half of the inning. Boultes, the first man up, hit the ball to the right field fence for three bases and he scored on Huston's fly to Barrett. Warwick hit to Aubrey and was out at first. Moulton hit to Barrett, who dropped the ball and the former managed to reach second. Dugan sent a fly to McGamwell, who dropped it and the runner was safe at first. Conney followed with a single to left and Moulton came home. Magee hit to Grubb and was out at first.

Third Inning
In the third inning Pfeffer drew a base on balls and O'Donnell went out on a fly to Warwick. Friel hit to Courtney and Barrett flied to Courtney.

In the latter half of the inning Fleury hit to Pfeffer and was out.

at first, Wright following with a strike out. Boultes hit to Grubb who threw badly to first and the runner was safe and then went to third on the throw, but Huston went out on strikes.

Fourth Inning
In the fourth inning Aubrey flied to Courtney, Barrett hit to Wright and failed to reach first, while Hollis was retired on strikes.

Lowell jumped on Friel with both feet and hands in the latter half of the inning and when the side was retired five runs had been scored. Warwick started off by striking out and Moulton dropped the ball to the great delight of the crowd and Moulton went to second. Dugan hit to Aubrey and Moulton was caught between the bases. Dugan going to second on the play. Courtney walked to first after being hit by a pitched ball. Magee singled to center field and Dugan and Courtney scored. Fleury hit to left field for a single, scoring Magee. He then stole second. Wright sent the ball into the left corner of the grounds for a home run, scoring Fleury and himself. Boultes hit to center field for two bases but Huston hit to Friel and was out at first.

Fifth Inning
Haverhill broke the ice in the fifth inning and scored three runs. Grubb started off with a base on balls and McGamwell followed with a fly to Courtney. Pfeffer walked to first and O'Donnell made Haverhill's first hit scoring Grubb. He then stole second. Friel flied to Huston, the latter making a pretty catch. Courtney singled to center field scoring Pfeffer and O'Donnell. Aubrey singled to center but Barrett went out on a foul fly to Huston.

Sixth Inning
The visitors scored another run in the sixth. Hollis hit over Fleury's head for a home run inside the grounds. Grubb was retired on a fly to Boultes and McGamwell followed with a single to left field. Pfeffer hit to Boultes who threw to Courtney who got McGamwell at second and the ball was sent to first for a double play.

Conney flied to Courtney. Magee struck out and Fleury flied to O'Donnell.

Seventh Inning
O'Donnell singled and Friel hit to Courtney. Moulton flied to Barrett and Dugan hit one to Friel who succeeded in knocking it down and Pfeffer flied it to first in time to get the runner.

Wright hit to Aubrey and failed to reach first. Boultes then sent the ball over Courtney's head for a home run inside the grounds. Huston flied to Courtney. Warwick singled to center field and Moulton sent a grounder to Grubb and was out at first.

Eighth Inning
Hollis opened the eighth by striking out. Grubb went to first on a free pass. McGamwell went out on a fly to deep right field. Pfeffer flied to Huston.

Dugan hit a red hot grounder which struck Aubrey on the knee causing a delay in the game. Dugan stole second. Courtney singled to left sending Dugan to third. Magee hit to right field for two bases scoring Dugan. Fleury tried to center scoring Courtney and Courtney went to third. Wright hit to Grubb and died at first. Boultes made his fourth hit, a single to center field scoring Fleury. Boultes stole second. Huston flied out to Barrett and Boultes stole third on the out. Warwick struck out.

Ninth Inning
Wheeler went to bat for O'Donnell and flied to Magee. Friel got his base on balls. Courtney hit to Moulton forcing Friel at second. Courtney threw bad to first allowing Courtney to go to second. Aubrey drew a base on balls. Barrett struck out.

SPECIAL SESSION

PROVIDENCE, May 11.—Following the adjournment of the legislature this morning, Governor Aram J. Pothier announced today that he expected to call a special session this afternoon in order that the pledge of the republican party to enact taxation laws might be fulfilled and that he will make wholesale use of his veto power to prevent a deficit in the state treasury.

The power of the veto has only been vested in the governor of this state for two years and in this term his prerogative has been exercised three times. The legislature having taken no notice of his special message to curb the raid on the Rhode Island treasury, Governor Pothier declared today that "he would veto more bills and resolutions than will be vetoed in the next ten years to come."

Although no general assembly in the past decade has received so many bills to consider this legislature considers that it has passed an unusual number of good bills.

Manhattans, No. Billerica, Fri. eve.

GOVERNOR BASS

Gov. Bass of New Hampshire and members of his council came to Lowell yesterday as the result of an act passed by the New Hampshire legislature last spring. The legislation in question had to do with the Nesmith property in Merrimack street and the closing of Pollard avenue. The will of John Nesmith provided for the establishment of a asylum in New Hampshire for the blind and in order to close Pollard avenue it was necessary to have the abutters agree to it. So far as New Hampshire was concerned, the governor and his council were given the authority by the legislature to act in the matter. They came to Lowell yesterday in an automobile and were met by Fred N. Dunbar representing the property of the John Nesmith estate. The reason for closing Pollard avenue is the proposed extension of the buildings there both of the Nesmith and Hildreth estates.

THE DODGE TRIAL

Court Will Instruct Jury Not to Consider First Degree Verdict

GUILDHALL, Vt., May 11.—The life of Mrs. Florence Dodge will not be forfeited, even if the jury which has heard the evidence in her trial for the alleged murder of William Heath at her home in Lunenburg, Vt., decides that she is responsible for the man's death. In a statement made before the court in a session today Judge Atwood, at Mrs. Dodge's trial at the Essex county courthouse in this town, said that when he charges the jury he will instruct them not to consider a verdict of murder in the first degree. The law of Vermont, Judge Hall said, provides that premeditation must be shown in order to warrant a conviction for first degree murder and in the case on trial the judge explained, the prosecution has not introduced any evidence to show premeditation on the part of Mrs. Dodge. Judge Hall said that he would instruct the jury to consider three possible verdicts, namely, guilty of murder in the second degree, guilty of manslaughter, and acquittal.

If she was in the kitchen. She was looking at him when he fell. She says that she rang the telephone twice. As the telephone operator has testified, but Mrs. Dodge did not ring the phone. A guilty conscience prompted her to make that remark about prison, the attorney went on, referring to the alleged statement of Mrs. Dodge, to the effect that she would have to "go up." "If," said Mr. Ames, "Heath had shot himself, the thought of prison would never have entered her mind. Her statements to Mrs. Howard also showed that she had a guilty conscience."

At this point a brief recess was taken. Continuing Mr. Ames' further criticism of witnesses for the defense, several of whom he declared were unreliable. One of the experts showed, that the first two shots were fired by a person entering the room, for the reason that one of the marks was nearer the door than the other. He claimed that it was the third shot that killed Heath and that there was a sufficient interval between the second and third shots to permit the person firing to deliberate on the act. He defined the different degrees of homicide, murder in the first and second degree and manslaughter and closed by saying that the duties of the prosecuting officer were often disagreeable, but nevertheless they had to be performed. Then Mr. Howe immediately began his arguments for the defense.

Mr. Howe's Argument
Mr. Howe's argument was more of an oratorical effort than that of State's Attorney Ames. "We have listened for nearly three hours," said Mr. Howe, "to a story of murder, of premeditation, of manslaughter. Here there is a cry of murder when there is no murder, a cry of premeditation when there is no premeditation; a cry of manslaughter when there is no manslaughter. When the life or liberty of a good woman is at stake we must find out if there has been a murder."

Mr. Howe then explained to the jury the recognized legal axiom that a person accused of crime is to be presumed innocent until proved guilty. This was followed by his review and analysis of the argument of Mr. Ames.

When the afternoon session opened Mr. Howe continued his plea. Every seat in the courtroom was taken and chairs were brought in from the jury room and the county officers for the benefit of the great throng of spectators. The day was warm and all the windows of the courtroom were opened. This was greatly appreciated by those outside as it afforded them an opportunity to gather about the windows of the building or the outside, watch the proceedings and drink in the flood of oratory.

It looked when the afternoon session opened as though the case would not go to the jury before tomorrow. Attorney Dale of Mrs. Dodge's counsel was to follow Mr. Howe with Attorney-General Sargent making the closing argument for the prosecution.

BATES ATHLETE

PLAYED BASKETBALL UNDER NAME OF WARE

BOSTON, May 11.—The athletic standing of Marion W. Holden of Bates college, a member of the track team that will compete on Saturday for the Maine intercollegiate athletic championship, which was questioned by the Colby Athletic association, has been investigated by the Maine Intercollegiate Association athletic board which finds that Holden played a basketball game last winter under the name of Ware in violation of the rules. The board states that he had done all the work allotted to them, while the state highway commission takes an opposite view of the situation.

ROADS AND BRIDGES

The legislative committee on roads and bridges came to town this morning and called at city hall for a brief period. Senator Joseph Hubbard is chairman of the committee and George H. Stevens of Duxbury is clerk. The visit to this city was to inspect the state highway between Lowell and Lawrence. The county commissioners have claimed that they had done all the work allotted to them, while the state highway commission takes an opposite view of the situation.

REBEL LEADERS

In Hopes That Further Fighting Will Not be Necessary

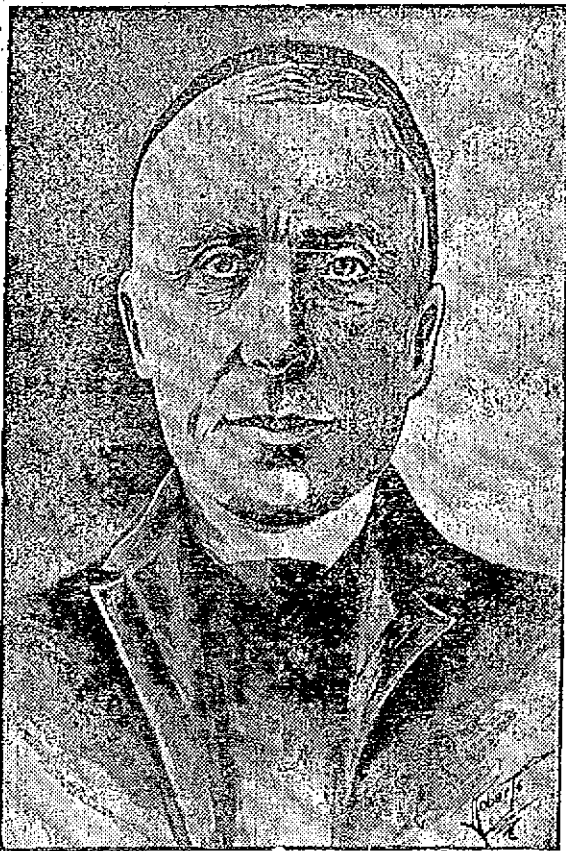

General Navarro Has Been Paroled With His Officers—The Insurrectos Are Now Well Provided With Ammunition—Another Attempt at Peace Will be Made

JUAREZ, Mexico, May 11.—The insurgents are determined not only to hold Juarez against any attack but to prevent a fight in this vicinity if possible. Plans were being laid at the insurgents headquarters today for a force of several hundred men to march south to meet General Rabago, the federal leader who is reported to be on his way here from Chihuahua, with a good sized army. The rebels already have about three hundred men at Casas Grandes and probably will open fire on Rabago when he arrives there. It is not known what chief will be sent south from Juarez.

The town was quiet today for the first time in several days. The inhabitants slept peacefully in their homes while insurrecto sentries stood guard.

General Navarro, who was paroled with his officers last night, spent the night in the same house with General Francisco Madero, Jr. Though the federal commander now has been given the liberty of the city he does not seem to be much about town because there are said to be several insurrectos who cherish a grudge against him for alleged bayoneting of the wounded in other battles of the revolution. Rebel officers, however, have given strict orders not to harm any of the paroled federals. The insurrectos today are the conquerors in a town which is the most important capture of the revolution, not only because it is a port of entry from the United States and that the insurrectos believe that within the next 24 hours food and supplies will be crossing the line to them unmolested. GOLDEN JUBILEE VASELINE

Of Cardinal Gibbons' Ordination to Priesthood Observed

NEW YORK, May 11.—In honor of the golden jubilee of his ordination as a priest and the silver jubilee of his elevation to be a cardinal, the Catholic club gave a reception to Cardinal Gibbons last night.

Six pages in black velvet court uniforms, slashed with white, and four young men bearing lighted tapers trimmed with scarlet ribbons met the cardinal at the clubhouse entrance. Following him were acolytes in white surplices, the light commander of the Order of St. Gregory in full court uniform, members of the order wearing its gold and silver decorations, and prelates of the church from New York and other cities. The procession was greeted as it passed from the club rooms by a reception committee, the members of which carried tiny candles and gold flags. They escorted the guest of honor to the ballroom, where a throne had been prepared for him.

With Archbishop Farley at his right and Frank Gannon, president of the Catholic club, at his left, Cardinal Gibbons took his seat upon the throne. Among the churchmen there were Bishop Cusack of New York, Bishop McSheehy of South Africa, Bishop McDonnell of Brooklyn, Mons. Mooney, Lavelle and Kearney. Waiting to be presented were more than 2000 men and women, who thronged the ballroom and adjoining rooms, which

HOUSES BLOWN DOWN

Terrific Windstorm in Minnesota and North Dakota

MOORHEAD, Minn., May 11.—A great funnel shaped cloud bringing with it a terrific wind bore down on Felton, 20 miles north of this city, yesterday afternoon, tore down a dozen buildings, blew in every good sized window in the village and tore up trees in large numbers. Andrew Peterson, a farmer living two and one-half miles from Felton, was seriously injured when his barn was overturned. At Fargo, N. D., two dozen houses and barns were blown down and many of them were carried far across country; hundreds of windows were shattered and the telephone and electric light service was demoralized. One farmer was seriously hurt. At Marion people rushed for their cellars to escape the debris and flying timbers.

BURNED TO DEATH

Baby Perished in Fire in House in Lynn

LYNN, May 11.—Less than three minutes after Mrs. James J. Foley left her home at 48 Collins street terrace yesterday afternoon to go to a nearby store her 2-year-old daughter, Lorella, had been burned to death and her 4-year-old son, Walter, who set the house afire while playing with matches in the kitchen, would have met a similar fate but for J. P. Murphy of 382 Harrison avenue, Boston, and Charles Thompson of 4 Silsbee street. Had the men known of the presence of the baby in the house they might have rescued her, but the smoke in the kitchen was so dense that they failed to see the child on the floor.

When Mrs. Foley went to the store she locked the door. She had hardly got out of sight of the house when Murphy, who is a bill distributor, discovered fire in the kitchen. He shouted to Thompson. They forced two windows and entered the house. Murphy picked up the boy and passed him through a window to Mrs. Edward Coates of 73 Collins street. She told the men that there was a baby in the house and they started to search for the infant.

They looked over three rooms without finding the child, and it was not until Thompson saw what he thought was a pile of rags burning on the floor, under the kitchen table, that the infant was discovered.

Thompson reached down to throw the bundle out of a window and discovered it was the body of the child. The clothing was completely consumed and the child's body was horribly burned. Just as the firemen reached the house Mrs. Foley returned, and when she was told of the death of her child she was prostrated. The fire did slight damage to the kitchen.

day, and the ceremony was performed by Recorder R. S. Maughlin in the parlor of his home at Tenafly, N. J. The general's daughter, Miss Harriet W. James, stood up with the bridegroom and did quite as well as a best man, for the general calls her "Harry." She is 55.

The bride arrived in an automobile at Glen Burnie, the general's ivied stone villa at Highwood, midway between Englewood and Tenafly, shortly after 12 o'clock, with her brother, A. M. MacDonnell, and Mrs. Barbara Cook, whose husband was Frederick Cook, a former secretary of state. The general had long been waiting and hoped to arrive in the car. Two old employees of the Lincoln National bank, of which General James is president, M. E. Martin and Charles Munier, made up the wedding party and they were off for the recorder of Tenafly.

"It was not long before the car whisked back to the house. The knot had been tied and the general's happiness was complete.

"Boys, isn't she a beauty?" exclaimed the general when he introduced his bride.

She wore a navy blue travelling suit with an emerald-green collar and a white Panama hat with broad black velvet ribbons. The general is a fine figure of an old man. His hair is gray, but he is erect and has a firm step. This is the first time that the general has married a divorced woman, for she is not a widow. Mrs. Gaffney divorced her husband August Gaffney of Utica. The general called attention to the fact that she is a direct lineal descendant of John Adams, president of the United States.

After the knot had been tied the wedding party set out for New York in an automobile to attend a reception given by Mrs. Cook at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Savoy. After the reception the couple will go to Atlantic City for their honeymoon.

INVALID BURNED

Tried to Light His Pipe in Bed

BOSTON, May 11.—One of the most pathetic incidents that have occurred in Boston in many months occurred in Jamaica Plain at noon yesterday. While a fire raged in the upper part of a dwelling house, during which an invalid was badly burned, the body of the mother lay in a coffin in one of the rooms on the first floor.

Mrs. Louisa Fredericks, widow of the late William Fredericks, died at her home, 14 Cheshire street, Jamaica Plain, Monday. Previously to and during her fatal illness her son, Henry, had been confined to his bed for about six months. Even after the death of his mother, Henry Fredericks, who is 45 years old, was unable to leave his bed, where he has long been a sufferer from a complication of diseases.

Yesterday noon, while the remainder of the family with relatives and friends who had called to offer their condolences were seated downstairs, Fredericks propped himself up in bed, preparing to light a pipe. So weak was he that he could not get up, and he dropped the lighted match upon the bed and the clothing caught fire.

The fire spread with great rapidity and although he did his utmost to arouse those on the floor below, his cries were unanswered and he bravely attempted to extinguish the flames himself. While combating the flames he was badly burned about the face

Many Forms of the Dread Disease Are Curable by this Remedy

MR. LUCAS SAYS IT SAVED HIS LIFE

This Cleveland Man Was Getting Worse All the Time When He Began the Treatment But Improvement Quickly Followed—Read His Grateful Statement.

Fresh proof is furnished almost daily of the wonderful power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in the treatment of the most severe nervous disorders. No claim is made for the treatment that is not substantiated by proof that is open to the most rigid investigation and the evidence is indisputable that there are many forms of paralysis that are readily curable by these tonic pills. In cases that are not entirely curable the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills often results in such radical improvement that life is once more made worth living to the formerly hopeless sufferer.

The evidence upon which the claims of this remedy is based is not confined to a single cure. All over the United States there are men and women going about their daily occupations with little or no inconvenience, who, before taking the treatment, had been declared beyond the help of medicine. No sufferer from a severe nervous disorder who has not tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should abandon hope, for the remedy that has brought about these marvelous results for others is surely entitled to a thorough trial.

The Latest Evidence

The most recent case to come to public attention is that of Mr. D. L. Lucas, of No. 1182 East 103d street, Cleveland, Ohio, a man well known in real estate circles in that city. He had a remarkable escape from death as is shown by the following statement:

"My trouble started with a stomach disorder, but I believe that malarial poisoning was the original cause and this was the opinion of the doctors who attended me. Creeping paralysis finally resulted from the broken down condition of my health and I came very near to death. During the greater part of my sickness I could get about the house by holding on to articles of furniture but at times was confined to my bed.

Limbs Were Shrunken.

"The paralysis came on slowly but was never complete. I had trouble with my kidneys and my liver was tormented all the time. My lower limbs shrank perceptibly, I suffered some with shooting pains, my appetite was feeble and I was altogether in a terrible condition.

"When the disease was at its worst I called my wife to my bedside and told her that I was getting worse all the time and if I kept on in this way there would be no help for me. I had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People some time before and been benefited and I told her I thought that if I gave them a thorough, persistent trial they would do me good. She agreed with me and I started taking the pills. After a few doses I saw that the medicine was helping me and I continued the treatment, following the directions closely and observing strictly the instructions regarding diet and bathing.

"Schenectady, N.Y., May 1, 1911. I hereby certify that the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company has instructed this bank to pay for its account the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to the first person presenting the proof necessary for the collection of the reward offered above.

J. E. VAN EPS, Cashier, Union Nat'l Bank, Schenectady, N.Y.

No sufferer from paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, or any nervous disorder resulting from or dependent upon a run-down condition of the system can afford longer to neglect Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the great blood builder and nerve tonic. and arms, and when those downstairs finally became aware of the fire they found the sick man enveloped in flame and suffering great agony.

Miss Louise Fredericks, a member of the family, telephoned station 18. The members of the engine 28 responded to the alarm and confined the fire to the room in which it originated. A damage of about $50 was caused.

When the excitement of the fire had subsided it was learned that Henry Fredericks' condition was serious. Dr. Malone, who was summoned, found that the man's vitality, already weakened by his long illness, was greatly overtaxed and his condition yesterday afternoon was critical.

Stars and Stripes on Throne

Back of the cardinal's throne were American flags, and the American colors were prominent in the throne itself. The shield, bearing the coat of arms, was quartered in the American colors and decorated with a star, representing Columbia. Above the shield was a cross, and above that was a cardinal's hat, the tassels of which were draped in a conventional design.

Three lion heads, studded with gold and silver, indicated the nature of the jubilee being celebrated, while the cardinal's motto, "Emitte Spiritum Tuum," formed the shield's base. It was a piece of heraldic designing such as had never been attempted in America before, and was considered by the thousands who admired it as an effective grouping of the American colors in a manner to serve the purposes of honoring the church's one American prince.

Only a brief program of speeches preceded the presentation of the altar to Cardinal Gibbons. President Gannon welcomed the distinguished visitor to the Catholic club on behalf of its directors and members, and expressed the hope that he would be present again in the near future to attend the ceremonies planned in honor of the forthcoming jubilee of Archbishop Farley's service in the church. As presiding officer of the evening he introduced Justice Victor J. Dowling of the court of appeals.

TROMBLEY LOST

Couldn't Throw Pappas Within Agreed Time

Eugene Trombley, lightweight champion of the world, ran into a snag at the Star theatre last evening. He agreed to throw Kid Pappas twice in an hour but didn't throw him at all and hence lost the match. Trombley was on top most of the time, but couldn't turn over the Greek.

John Killonis and Wilfred Barretto went 16 minutes in an exciting match, without a fall.

James Poulos of Manchester threw Mike Kapos of Lowell in 12 minutes. Nelson Desmarais referred the preliminaries, and Wilfred Barretto officiated in the final.

The bouts were put on under the management of John Killonis.

LOWELL NUN

DIES AT VISTATION CONVENT IN MOBILE, ALA.

A telegram was received in this city yesterday announcing the death of Rev. Mother Stanislaus, of the convent of Visitation, at Mobile, Ala. She was known in the world as Miss Mary Campbell and was the sister of Mrs. Elizabeth Hart of 31 Exeter street, and an aunt of Mr. Walter Hickey, the well known starter for the Boston and Northern street railroad. She had been a member of the order of the Visitation for 55 years and for the past 40 years had been mother superior. Miss Frances Hickey, a niece, left Tuesday morning for Mobile, but did not arrive in time to see her aunt alive.

GENERAL JAMES

Is Married for the Fourth Time

NEW YORK, May 11.—At noon yesterday, General Thomas L. James, who was postmaster-general in President Arthur's cabinet, and is now in his 81st year, entered the bonds of wedlock for the fourth time. The bride was Mrs. Florence MacDonnell Gaffney of Utica, N. Y., who was 35 on her last birth-

THOUGHT WIFE DEAD

Fruit Peddler Told Police He Had Killed Her

RUMFORD FALLS, Me., May 10.—An Italian banana peddler, known as Joe Bill, banished Deputy Sheriff Miles this afternoon by giving himself into custody with the explanation that he had just killed his wife. A search was immediately started to find the body, but it was found that she was not dead, though in a dying condition.

YAQUI INDIANS FREIGHT RATES

Have Engaged in an Uprising Another Investigation is Ordered

DOUGLAS, Ariz., May 11.—The rising of the Yaqui Indians, who have been living peacefully in their settlements on the Yaqui river recently, but who are now making war on their own account, has furnished a new element in the already acute situation in the state of Sonora. Americans who arrived yesterday from Guaymas brought meagre details of the Yaqui rising. The Indians' first demonstration was against Ortiz, which they captured without resistance, looting the seven stores in the town, run by Chinese and Mexicans, confiscating the merchandise and pouring the liquors in the streets.

PROCTOR ILL

EMBEZZLEMENT CASE WAS NOT COMPLETED

GREENFIELD, May 11.—The embezzlement case against Selectman Arthur Proctor of Northfield, who was arrested six weeks ago following the announcement of a shortage of $6000 in the town finances was continued today at the request of the prosecution as the examination of the books had not been completed. Mr. Proctor was unable to be present, owing to illness.

DEATHS

KELLEY—Mrs. Georgianna A. Kelley died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elvira A. Leavitt, North Chelmsford. Her age was 77 years and eight months. Besides a daughter, she is survived by one grandson, Charles A. Leavitt, and one sister and one brother.

FAY—John Fay, aged 56 years, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bridget Luppold, 804 Rogers street.

REED—Mrs. M. J. Reed, aged 86 years, died this morning at the home of her son, Mr. C. Reed, 76 First street. Besides her son she is survived by five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral notice later.

For more than forty years Mrs. Reed was a professional nurse and served through the great smallpox epidemic that visited this city. She was a very lovely woman and was a great friend of the little ones.

THE HOUSE

WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT REDUCTION OF B. & M. DIVIDEND

BOSTON, May 11.—Information regarding the reduction in the dividend of the Boston & Maine common stock from a six to a four per cent basis was requested of the railroad commission by the lower branch of the legislature. The order making the inquiry was introduced yesterday by Rep. Holmes of Medford and adopted today by a vote of 55 to 31.

BILL REJECTED

IT PROVIDED FOR CONSTITUTION FOR ALSACE-LORRAINE

BERLIN, May 11.—The bill providing a constitution for Alsace-Lorraine regarding which the government parties have been endeavoring for several months to reach an acceptable compromise, was rejected in its entirety in the committee of the reichstag today. The conservatives were dissatisfied with the compromise giving the provinces votes in the Bundesrath and the liberals were displeased with the concessions concerning the electoral laws and the language question. The reichstag will now attempt to settle the matter out of committee, but the outlook for the bill is dubious.

A SUICIDE

POSTMASTER OF NATICK TOOK HIS LIFE

NATICK, May 11.—After suffering from a mental illness for the last six months, C. J. Wood, postmaster of Natick for the past twelve years, committed suicide by hanging in the shed of his home here today. Of late Mr. Wood had been unable to sleep nights and had been in the habit of getting up several times either to smoke or read. At one o'clock this morning Mrs. Wood was awakened by her husband, who said he was going to have a smoke as he could not sleep. Mrs. Wood went down stairs to see where her husband was, a few hours later and found his body hanging from a beam in the shed. Mr. Wood, who was 71 years old, was a Civil War veteran.

SIMON HOWE DEAD

MARLBORO, May 11.—Easing a protracted illness of a complication of heart and kidney disorders, Simon Herbert Howe, a prominent shoe manufacturer and first mayor of Marlboro, died in Southboro today, aged 75 years. Mr. Howe was president of the S. A. Carroll Shoe company, one of the largest manufacturing firms in the city. In 1890 when Marlboro was incorporated as a city, he was elected mayor and had also served two years in the governor's council. He is survived by a widow, a son and a daughter.

ENGLISH AVIATOR

NARROWLY ESCAPED HAVING HIS NECK BROKEN

MINEOLA, L. I., May 11.—Tom Sopwith, the English aviator who landed in this country only a few days ago, nearly broke his neck here today. The Blériot monoplane in which he was carrying Philip Wilcox, also an aviator of some note, was caught in a gust of wind at the "graveyard" turn of the field, whirled out of equilibrium, and pitched on its beam ends from a height of fifty feet. Only plucky manipulation prevented it from turning a complete somersault. Sopwith was thrown heavily and badly cut but rose without assistance. Wilcox landed on his feet and was not even scratched. The machine was wrecked.

KILLED HIMSELF

MAN HAD SUFFERED FROM NERVOUS TROUBLES

NEW YORK, May 11.—Charles D. Garnett, said to be a retired manufacturer of St. Louis, shot and killed himself today in Riverside park. Mrs. Garnett said that her husband had suffered from nervous troubles for some time past. He was 43 years old. They had been occupying apartments in this city for several weeks.

MADE WORLD'S RECORD

MOUREMELON, France, May 11.—M. Nieport, the French aviator, made what is recorded as a new world's record for 100 kilometers yesterday. Officially timed, he did 121 miles in 50 minutes and 1 second.

Manhattan, No. Billerica, Fri. eve.

The committee on next meeting, consisting of Brothers Reed, Osgood and McLean wishes to announce that cake and ice cream will be served free to members May 24.

OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT

BROOKLINE, May 11.—The 16th annual spring open golf tournament of the Country club opened today with the usual large field of local and out-of-town players, as well as a number of students from Harvard.

H. P. Farrington of Woodland, who won several events in the south during the past winter, led the field in the morning play, scoring an 81 on somewhat slow greens. Others low scoring were: McKim Hollins, New York, 90; J. M. Richards, New York, 91; L. J. Hazleton, Brookline, 92.

MILITARY MASS

For the O. M. I. Cadets on June 4

There will be an important meeting of the O. M. I. Cadets at the armory, immaculate Conception school hall, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. At this time arrangements will be made for the annual military mass which will be held on June 4. The services this year will be more elaborate than ever. The buglers and field band will be in attendance and the Cadets will occupy seats in the main aisle of the church. A special musical program will be rendered by the O. M. I. Cadet choir.

STRAW HATS

APPEARED IN LARGE NUMBERS IN BOSTON TODAY

BOSTON, May 11.—Straw hats blossomed like apple buds today under the general influence of an 85 in the shade (temperature) and in defiance of the unwritten law making the 25th inst. the season's change to summer attire.

The hot spell and dry weather enhanced the seriousness of the forest fire situation throughout the state and in some parts of the state the sun shone like a fierce ball through the dense pall of smoke.

A BRUSH FIRE

Early this afternoon a telephone alarm was sent to this city from North Chelmsford for a brush fire raging in the village. The chief immediately dispatched the Westford street chemical to the scene of the fire.

HAVERHILL WALLOPED TODAY'S STOCK MARKET

Gray's Speed Boys Were There With 14 Hits

With a somewhat bungled up Lowell went to Haverhill, Lowell's hoodoo of last season, and cleaned them up to the tune of 9 to 1 so that it would appear that the hoodoo had disappeared.

Coe was out with a bad hand and Newton held down shortstop, while Dugan, the utility man, played second. Then Barrows went back toward the close of the game and Pitcher Warwick went into center.

Wolfgang was on the slab for Lowell and he held Haverhill at his mercy. The home team narrowly escaped a whitewash. On the other hand Haverhill was there for 14 hits. Wolfgang was at his best with men on bases when he made the home team look like cello players. With the bases full and one out in the ninth he struck out the next two batters.

Newton led the batters with two singles and a double while Fluharty, the captain of the wrecking crew, got a double with three on bases clearing the bases. Wolfgang was there with a double and a single while Wright cracked a two sacker. Courtney, the Haverhill outfielder who went to the big league for a short time, is back on his old job in Haverhill and made three hits. Tom Fleming who managed the Lowell team for a brief interval during the regime of Al Winn, and who has been umpiring for the Lowell Textile school team officiated as decision-maker and gave a good account of himself.

TEXILES WON

Tufts Second Team Easy for Lowell Team
The Textile school team defeated Tufts second team on the local campus yesterday by a score of 10 to 6, the visitors hitting well but playing a ragged fielding game. Aspinwall took things easy as he was saving his arm for the Exeter game in this city on Saturday. He showed class at the bat getting a home run. The Textiles ran bases in superb style getting 16 of them. Ford played a classy game at third. For the visitors Phelan was the star, both at bat and in the field. Haskell, McLean and Godfrey also showed up well. The score:

STOCK MARKET
WAS STRONG AT THE CLOSE TODAY

NEW YORK, May 11.—The largest fluctuations at the opening of the stock market today were the local traction issues. Int. Met. lost 1 1/2 and Brooklyn Transit gained 1 1/2. There were few other changes of significance, the market developing an irregular tone soon after the opening. The Erie issues showed further strength. Toledo, St. Louis & Western, lost 1/2.

Considerable amounts of United States Steel were supplied around the opening figures but the offerings were well taken and the price advanced a fraction. Elsewhere the speculation displayed little feature but there was a somewhat steadier undertone to the dealings.

Trading in stocks almost ceased this morning after the opening business had been disposed of. Price changes were so small as to be meaningless and the market took on no decisive character, although the tone was firmer than yesterday. Bonds were steady, with continued heavy absorption of New York city securities.

Trading showed a little more vim for a time after mid-day and prices advanced. Reading U. P. and U. S. Steel all scored good fractional gains but the demands were not persistent and prices afterward went off a trifle. Extensive purchases of U. S. Steel carried it up steadily to 75 1/2, the highest figure of the week and 1 1/2 above yesterday's final price. The unsuccessful attempts to break the price at the opening by dumping a large amount of this stock on the market having proved unavailing, the bears were forced to cover on a rising market. Considerable strength was also manifested by other favorite stocks.

The market closed strong. The upward trend of prices was maintained to the close with a broader inquiry for the dividend paying stocks. The activity and strength of the bond market furnished an effective back for confident buying of stocks.

Boston Copper Market
BOSTON, May 11.—Local coppers opened irregular today on meagre trading. Calumet and Hecla dropped to 155 the lowest in 25 years. Superior and Boston advanced to 54, while the remainder of the list was weak.

Cotton Futures
Cotton spot closed quiet, 15 points up. Middling Uplands 15.90. Middling Gulf 16.15. Sales, 1600 bales.

INTERESTING PAPER

Read Before Lowell Historical Association by Miss Webster

Miss Mary A. Webster, for over 50 years a teacher in the high school, read a very interesting paper before the Lowell Historical association last night in Memorial hall. The paper was rich in reminiscence and the meeting was attended by former pupils of the high school and teachers as well as members of the association.

Miss Webster's paper dealt with the teaching staff of the school, Miss Eliza T. Bailey being elected to the corps at the same time. Dr. Hixon had left to join the army, Miss Raymond had left to join Mr. Kimball in the Dorchester school and Dr. John J. Colton had charge of the girls and taught science. Her work was mainly Latin and Greek, but he was obliged to teach a variety of subjects.

Some of the subjects chosen for these in those days indicated much maturity of mind, as for instance, "The Discipline of Solitude," or "The Sunshine of Old Age." Dr. Colton was succeeded by Mr. Gorham Williams, who stayed but one year. Levi S. Burbank followed him, but his reign in the large room was short, for the school was soon moved to Huntington and Jackson halls, that the old school might be remodeled. When the school was removed to the new building the teaching staff consisted of: Mr. Chase as principal, Mr. Russell, Mr. Joseph McDaniels, Miss Elizabeth Russell, Miss Melvin and Miss Webster. Speaking of Mr. Chase, as principal, Miss Webster said: "He seemed to be equally at home in the classics, in mathematics and in science. Shortly after the opening of the new school Mr. McDaniels went to Harvard college, to become professor of Greek, a position which he still holds."

After the change to one session of school per diem, the teachers of the school formed a Latin class, which met for 15 or 20 minutes every day, under the leadership of Mr. Chase. Chronology in the changes in the teaching staff Miss Webster spoke of the coming of Miss Elizabeth McDaniels and Miss Alice J. Hardman, to take the places of Mr. McDaniels and Miss Russell, and of the entrance of Miss Harriet C. Hovey and Miss Charlotte E. Draper. This staff remained unchanged for several years. The departure of Mr. Burbank removed an excellent teacher. He was succeeded by Edwin A. Lord, who later became principal of the Lawrence high school. After the change to one session of school per diem, the teachers of the school formed a Latin class, which met for 15 or 20 minutes every day, under the leadership of Mr. Chase.

THE WATER BOARD

Will Recommend the Building of Two New Reservoirs

In the very near future the water board will recommend to the city council the building of two new reservoirs with a capacity of about 4,000,000 gallons each. It will be recommended that one of the reservoirs shall be covered. The covering will mean a considerable increase in the cost but it is deemed advisable and necessary that one of the reservoirs should be covered in order to obscure the sun and prevent the growth of algae. The two reservoirs would cost, approximately, $75,000. Each of the reservoirs would be equal to a day's supply and one could do the work while the other was being cleaned. The old reservoir has not been cleaned for years because of the fact that there was not another reservoir to relieve it. The water board would recommend that the new reservoirs be built of reinforced concrete.

This is not an absolutely new proposition on the part of the water board. It was outlined in The Sun several months ago but the water board had so much on its hands at that time that the reservoir proposition was allowed to remain in the background for the time being. The board had other big expenses to consider including the purchase of a new pump for the West Centralville pumping station and the acquisition of more land for new wells.

The board feels, however, that it can no longer delay its recommendation for the new reservoirs and do justice to the tax-paying water users, especially the people in the Highlands.

The water supply for fire service in certain portions of the Highlands is decidedly inadequate. The water board is willing to admit that that is so and the trouble is due to the fact that the old reservoir is too low. In some streets in the Highlands the residents are short on water even for domestic purposes. The old reservoir is too low and is not capable of the necessary pressure. The proposed new reservoirs would be 30 feet higher than the old reservoir and that would mean much better service for the Highlands. The water board says that the new reservoirs are an absolute necessity and the quicker they are built the better for the city as a whole.

The proposed site for the new reservoirs is near the old reservoir, but on higher land and most of the land included in the proposed site, is situated, belongs to the city.

SUPREME COURT

To Decide Coal Land Case

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The fight over probably the richest coal lands in the world was transferred today to the supreme court of the United States when the government docketed an appeal from the order of the federal court of Washington, quashing the so-called Stracey group indictment.

DANGER POINTS

Inspected by Waterways Committee

The committee on waterways, Councilman Coughlin, chairman, went out in automobiles at 2 o'clock this afternoon to view the danger points along the canal and rivers in Lowell. The committee on waterways was appointed as the result of an order introduced by Councilman Coughlin for the safeguarding of waterways throughout the city. After looking the home territory over the committee went to McLeod to look into a system of protection against drowning installed there. Upon returning to Lowell the committee will meet and prepare its recommendations for the city council.

The sub-committee of the committee on appropriations will hold a conference with the public hall commission tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The regular meeting of the board of health will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4.30 o'clock.

VISITED PARKS

Henry F. Carr Already Displaying Interest

Although Henry F. Carr, whose appointment to the park board has been confirmed by the common council, is not a full fledged member of that body yet, still he is already displaying a lively interest in the work of the department. Yesterday he visited the South common and then traveled to Fort Hill park. He says that he was not at all satisfied with conditions on the common and saw several matters of that he will call to the attention of the park board should he become a member, and that seems certain, as there is no doubt that the aldermen will concur with the council in confirming the nomination.

Mr. Carr is as active as a park commissioner as he was as a member of the common council, things will be stirring in that department. When in the council he introduced the order that provided for the renaming of the streets of the city, and he also presented the order to change the fire lines in Cambridge, a measure that greatly encouraged building in that section. He took active interest in school matters also and was instrumental in having important improvements made in the Butler school including the installation of a new boiler. This morning Mr. Carr made an inspection of the north common.

TO CREMATE BODY
LONDON, May 11.—In accordance with the wish revealed in his will, which was examined today, the body of Lafayette the Great, the eccentric vaudeville performer who lost his life in the fire that destroyed the Empire music hall at Edinburgh, Tuesday, will be cremated and the ashes placed beside the paws of his trained dog Beauty, the body of which rests in a pretentious tomb in Piers Hill cemetery at Edinburgh.

BIG AVIATION MEET
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 11.—With a total of 15 events scheduled for the first day, a three days' aviation meeting in which Glenn Curtiss, J. A. D. McCurdy and Lincoln Beachey are to be the chief participants, opened this afternoon at the Bridgeport aerodrome, a practically level tract of 55 acres of land enclosed by a high board fence. The flights are to be made under the direction of Mr. Curtiss and additional interest will be given them by the fact that United States army and navy officers will take part.

LACK OF RAIN
HAVING ITS EFFECT ON STREAMS AND RESERVOIRS
MANCHESTER, N. H., May 11.—The lack of rain this spring besides rendering the woods so dry that forest fires have spread through great areas in New Hampshire, is beginning to have a marked effect on streams and reservoirs. Both mills and water supply systems are already suffering to some extent and unless there is unusually heavy precipitation during the next two months it is feared that they ditions this summer will be serious. At Franklin the water in the Winnipisaukee river has fallen to such an extent that some of the grinders in the pulp mills of the International Paper Co. have had to shut down and a number of pulp-makers are out of work. Supt. Perry of the water department of the city of Dover expressed the opinion that it will be necessary to sink several artesian wells to prevent a water famine there. The water in Willard's pond, the principal source of supply for Dover, is now six inches lower than it was at this time last year.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KEEP CLEAN WITH CARBONOL

SOMETIMES soap-and-water cleanliness is enough. Sometimes aseptic cleanliness is absolutely necessary, and in such cases you should mix Carbonol in the water used in cleaning. A dash of Carbonol in a pail of water gives the whole mixture powerful disinfecting qualities. Garbage cans and all repositories of refuse should be cleaned with it to kill the germs, to keep away flies and to suppress odors. Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the collar before sweeping and the musty smell will disappear. A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was

15,976

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

President Taft deserves credit for his firmness on the reciprocity measure. No doubt he feels that upon that he must stand or fall.

Speaker Walker of the Massachusetts house seems to be playing politics with great earnestness. He tried to offset his opposition to the federal income tax by moving for an amendment to the state constitution providing for a special form of income tax. In this he was wisely foiled as the federal amendment is likely to be adopted in the near future in spite of all opposition.

CAN WE HAVE HOME RULE?

The question arises whether the city of Lowell can secure from the legislature the privilege of conducting its own local affairs. Lowell is now before the legislature for the second time with a draft of a new charter for submission to the people. The last attempt was rejected by the legislature and if the present petition be also rejected, it will appear that we are denied the privilege of home rule and obliged to continue doing business under an antiquated charter that places responsibility nowhere and that encourages inefficiency and extravagance.

THE SITUATION IN MEXICO

It is high time that President Diaz of Mexico began to take the revolution seriously. His chief apprehension up to the present has been lest the United States should intervene to stop hostilities and compel the federal government to make terms of peace with the rebels. The Mexican government apparently has little fear of suppressing the rebellion finally, and considering the fact that General Madero, leader of the rebel forces, represents but a small fraction of the population and that the rebellion has spread over but a small territory compared with the entire country, it would seem that the conflict is greatly exaggerated in importance. However, the spirit of rebellion under favorable conditions will spread rapidly, and now that the revolution starts with renewed vigor after the failure of peace negotiations, it would appear that the federal government will have to assert its power very soon if it would stem the tide of rebellion in time to save the republic. The rebels are spreading havoc and ruin wherever they go, and many non-combatant Americans have been killed by stray bullets from the fight near El Paso. It would seem that the rebels must be getting ammunition secretly from the United States or some other unrevealed source as they seem to be well supplied. The presence of Col. Garibaldi of Italy as a lieutenant of General Madero is quite significant.

President Diaz is an old man, and he has been in office since 1876. To residents of this country there is something apparently absurd if not tyrannical in the idea of the president of a republic holding office so long. But conditions in Mexico cannot be judged from conditions here. The country has a population of 18,000,000 scattered over an immense area of 787,000 square miles mostly in the torrid zone.

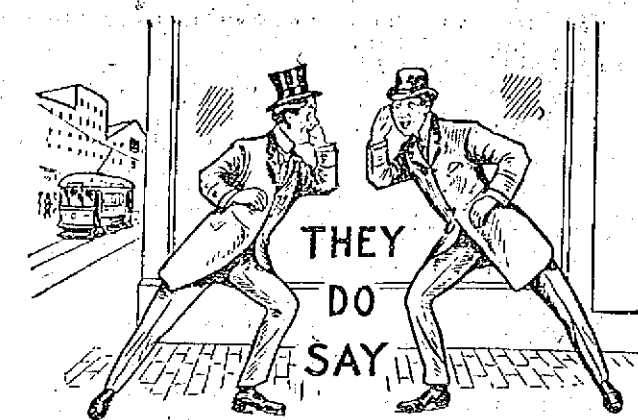

President Diaz took charge of the government when the country was at a low ebb, when its people were in ignorance of the outside world, with no means of education or communication. In spite of vast difficulties he succeeded in bringing order and stability out of chaos, replacing poverty by prosperity, insolvency by national credit, promoting education by the establishment of well conducted schools. He aided the general development of the country by encouraging the construction of railroads and brought about better conditions between the land owners and the occupants of the soil on questions that had long been a source of trouble.

Mexico has a constitution under which regular elections are held. How it came that President Diaz has held office so many years is the question nobody can explain; but it is claimed by his friends that his wise leadership and direction of public affairs inspired the people with such confidence in his ability, that they never felt disposed to remove him and so he became a fixture beside which other candidates seemed small in comparison.

Another and perhaps a more accurate explanation is, that President Diaz being skilled in the art of politics and having on his side the prestige and power of being chief executive of the republic found little difficulty in securing re-election from year to year. There are certainly no Yankee politicians down there or Diaz would have been ousted long ago, no matter how indispensable his services to the republic.

The absence of any powerful opponent made his perpetuation in office an easy matter; and he generally also had the privilege of dictating who the other leading elective officials should be. But while Diaz may have been a dictator in the matter of retaining office, nobody can deny that he has at all times used his influence to promote the welfare of his country so that on the whole Mexico was probably better off by retaining President Diaz than she would have been by changing to the class of aspirants who wanted his place. The present rebellion has brought up the question of forcing Diaz out of office; but he very wisely declined, stating that to do so in the present disturbed state of the country would open the way to all sorts of irregularities. In that he is right. Elections under the present effervescent state of feeling in Mexico could accomplish no good purpose and the retirement of the lawfully constituted government to give place to a band of marauders would certainly lead to chaos and anarchy a thousand times worse than anything thus far produced by the rebellion.

President Diaz has hitherto appeared to be more afraid of American intervention than of the rebel attacks. But if he wants to avoid intervention, he must bestir himself in suppressing the rebellion, now making such headway. The government has the power to do it; but the country is wide and where the rebels are so widely scattered it is difficult to meet them at all points. It is probable that Madero's main object is to get Uncle Sam to step in and order a halt. There is reason to believe that the rebels are purposely sending bullets across the Texan border in order to induce intervention. Gen. Madero while charging all kinds of guilt against President Diaz is himself the owner of an estate of 5,000,000 acres on which the people are oppressed. Personally, it is conceded, Madero is not a desirable man to be elevated to any commanding position in the republic.

That 88 from 105 still leaves 18. That a resident of William street who wears a straw hat all the year round was the only one to beat out Col. Chadwick on being the first Lowell man to appear in public with the straw lid this spring.

That now that the park board has a commissioner who learned to play the great national game on the South common we may expect to find a change of conditions at that place.

That even the trees on the South common are drooping their heads with shame as the result of the recent newspaper articles relative to conditions at that public breathing place.

That the board of trade's shoe night at Lincoln hall this evening will not only be an innovation in the line of a smoke talk but will be of great benefit to the business men of Lowell. That few people Lowell realize that high class shoes are now being manufactured in this city.

That henceforth it's Commissioner Carr, C-C. Sec?

That a poor motor and a new motor-man make a combination that jars passengers and causes delay.

That it is not yet settled whether the seniority shakeup on the local street railway will improve the service.

That there is still a crying need for the occasional visit of the street car sprinkler to outer Rogers street, especially when Lowell is playing at Spalding park.

That while the street railroad is making big improvements at Lakeview, Mr. Charles Bunker, the lessee of Willow Dale is also improving that resort with a view to giving the public added attractions this summer.

That John J. Dawson couldn't stand the criticism of his friends when he appeared in Merrimack square yesterday with his last year's straw lid on and beat it back to his apartments where he speedily donned his Dunlap.

One good thing about Woburn is that after the 10:30 train from Boston leaves there, Lowell passengers can find seats.

It's costing Uncle Sam a nice penny to witness that family quarrel in Mexico.

A young storekeeper who had failed the previous day was so diffident about giving his credit that he gave his wife the following instructions: "Now, Marie, if anyone rings, you answer the door and tell them that I'm not in. I'll hide."

Nor had he long to wait until a loud jangling of the bell assured him that an irate creditor stood at the door. "It was only a reporter, however."

"I wish to speak to your husband," "But he isn't in," protested the woman.

"Well, I understand," said the reporter, getting out his notebook and pencil, "that he is insolvent."

"O, yes," cried the wife, a happy inspiration seizing her; "he went over there on the 2:40 train yesterday, and I don't expect him back until tomorrow."—Lippincott's Magazine.

"Why is your grandpa's face bandaged?" asked the little girl, and while "He was sleeping in his big chair," explains the little girl, "and while turned the nozzle of the vacuum cleaner against his whiskers."—Life.

We have frequently been asked to suggest some form of dress for women airshippers, some sort of aerial costume for lady aeronauts, and it is only after continual persuasion that we offer the following advice regarding raiment for female balloonists:

1. Dress very plainly—acropolisian in fact.

2. Your hat must contain a flower—self-raising flour is most appropriate, as it will help the machine to rise.

3. You must wear any flowers at your breast, they must be made of paper—fly-paper.

4. You should wear a dress with old-fashioned balloon sleeves.

5. Do not wear long lupins, as they tend to attract lightning, and when you are up in an airship lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place—it doesn't have to, as there isn't anything left to strike.

6. We would suggest fastening your hat to your hair with clothespins.—Judge's Library.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The oldest Baptist church in Massachusetts is in Swansea. Both the town and the church were founded by John Myles, who came to this country from Wales in 1663. He was also the founder of the Bethesda Welsh Baptist Church in Boston, seven miles west of Swansea, in Wales. The present pastor of this Welsh church is Rev. D. Price. In its graveyard lie the ashes of the famous Christmas Evans, sometimes called "Seraphic."

The composer Puccini is to be one of the lions of the festivities at Rome, where he is to be present at the production of "The Girl of the Golden West" at the Costanzi Theatre July 1. But before that he will go to London to assist in bringing it out at Covent Garden, May 12. It will also be given at Brescia, Budapest, Berlin and Monaco, as well as in the provincial English cities, Cape Colony and the United States. But Puccini will take a well-earned rest after the production at Rome, cruising about the Mediterranean in his little yacht.

The Hudson Bay company has recently made Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell its "medical adviser," which doubtless constitutes a practical announcement that the northern fishermen are to be treated justly in their trade relations. The past winter co-operative stores established by Dr. Grenfell were brought into touch with similar enterprises in England to the extent that goods for the Labrador population are to be furnished.

A COLD IN SPRING When the warm weather comes it seems like the irony of fate to be afflicted with a cold and go about barking as if it were the middle of January. Yet the colds are often the hardest to shake. A remedy that proves extremely effective in routing the enemy is "Little's" It may be taken internally or applied as a lozenge, and brings immediate relief in cases of colds, coughs or throat troubles. It is absolutely free from drugs of any kind and is pleasant to the taste or for external use.

At a meeting of the Radcliffe council, Miss Eleanor M. Buckingham, A. B., Radcliffe, 1892, was appointed mistress of Grace, Hopkinson Elliot hall for 1911-12, to take the place of Miss Grace E. Machado, who has been mistress of the hall since it was opened in 1907, and retired at the close of the present year. Miss Buckingham has been named by the necessary number of graduates, twenty-five, to constitute a formal nomination. Mr. Pinchot has withdrawn his name, leaving only that of Mr. Farwell to be voted upon in June.

Mr. Farwell was graduated from Yale in 1879. He is president and general manager of the firm of John V. Farwell & Co. and is a director of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad and other important companies. He has been very active as a citizen in Chicago, where he has been prominently connected with the Municipal Voters' league, the "Chicago Plan" commission, the Chicago Y. M. C. Announcement was made today that John V. Farwell of Chicago will be the only name formally presented to the graduates of Yale for the vacancy on the corporation caused by the expiration of the term of the late Henry F. Dimock of New York. ADMITS HIS GUILT

Confession Made to Gov. Foss at Prison — Unusual Scene When Ek Was Told of Pardon—Woman Nearly 70 Was Set Free

BOSTON, May 11.—Gov. Foss and the executive council yesterday pardoned three prisoners, two men and a woman, and in the case of one received the man's thanks, in an unusual scene at the state prison in Charlestown, during which another prisoner declared the man innocent and himself the guilty one.

The pardoned ones are: Axel W. Ek, who was convicted in Worcester in February, 1908, of manslaughter in causing the death of William Warrusavicz and was sentenced to a term of not less than 10 and not more than 12 years. He was released after having served five years and three months.

John J. McCarthy, who was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory in January, 1911, for assault with intent to rob.

Mrs. Genolina Mazzocco, nearly 70 years old, who, because of her inability to pay a fine of $25, having been convicted of assault and battery upon her son's wife and required to furnish bonds to keep the peace, has been confined in the Charles street jail.

At a meeting of the executive council yesterday it was voted that that body recommend the granting of pardons. The pardons were sent to the governor and remained upon his desk awaiting his signature.

Gov. Foss, Lieut. Gov. Frothingham, members of the executive council and Executive Secretary Dudley M. Holman, started immediately for the Charlestown prison and made a thorough inspection of the institution.

Makes Promise to Governor. Secretary Holman gave the account of what happened at the prison.

When they entered the prison orchestra was playing and the governor and council listened for some moments. The orchestra played several pieces by request.

Warden Bridges then summoned Ek, who was a member of the orchestra. The governor asked Ek if he would appreciate a pardon if it should be extended to him, and if he would go back to work and hereafter be a law-abiding and upright citizen. Ek promised that if such clemency should be extended to him he would "make good" and that the governor and council would never have any cause to regret its action.

Whereupon the governor told him that the council had already voted to grant him a pardon and that upon their return to the state house this afternoon the governor would sign the pardon.

Warden Bridges announced to the orchestra that this would be the last time Ek would play with them, as he had been granted a pardon.

A cheer broke from the men, and a member of the orchestra, who is under sentence for manslaughter, rushed to the governor, took him by the hand, fell upon his knees and before the governor knew what he was about kissed his hand several times, saying in broken English, "He innocent, I guilty." He meant that Ek was innocent but that he acknowledged his own guilt.

Doubt as to Conviction. The two men were room-mates, and the Italian who acknowledged his own guilt is a skillful musical instrument maker and does some excellent work.

Warden Bridges said both men had splendid records. None of the men showed an evasive disposition because of the pardon.

Together with three others, Ek was charged with assaulting and beating William Warrusavicz, from which he died. The others were given sentences in the house of correction for two years. There has always been a question as to who was guilty, and Dist. Atty. Stiles, in his report to the governor, stated that Capt. O'Day and two other inspectors of police in Worcester united in saying they thought the public interest would not be harmed if Ek was pardoned.

Up to this time he had always borne an excellent reputation, and had not been in trouble whatever.

George Taft, who was district attorney at the time Ek was sentenced, also recommended the pardon.

Judge Approved Pardon. John J. McCarthy was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory in January, 1911, for assault with intent to rob. Judge White and Dist. Atty. Sawyer agreed to the pardon. Four men were concerned in the robbery. McCarthy always maintained that he was innocent.

Mrs. Genolina Mazzocco was convicted with her son. The parties are now thoroughly reconciled to each other, it is said. The court imposing the sentence revoked its order relative to the son, but found that it was not authorized to do so in the case of the mother-in-law.

Judge Ely recommended the pardon. The attorney general ruled that in order to secure her release she must be pardoned by the governor and council.

The governor visited Jesse Pomeroy, the life prisoner, and was interested in listening to what Pomeroy had to say concerning his treatment. Pomeroy said that under Gov. Long he was permitted to go to the chapel with the other prisoners, but when Warden Russell took charge, this privilege was taken away from him on the ground that he was sentenced to solitary confinement which did not permit him to attend chapel.

Pomeroy is allowed an hour's exercise in the yard a day, but always by himself and he has no fault to find with his general treatment; but he does desire to have some of the restrictions removed which keep him absolutely separated from all the world.

Secretary Holman's account states that it is quite possible some action may be taken in this regard.

The governor talked with a number of the prisoners and expressed himself as pleased with conditions.

BOARD OF TRADE

Important Meeting of Directors Held

Postmaster Legare to Make Improvements in Postal Service as Requested—Resolutions to be Presented Geo. M. Harrigan

An important meeting of the directors of the board of trade was held yesterday afternoon. Several new members who had been passed upon by the membership committee were admitted, and a committee was appointed to bring in a list of officers to be balloted for at the annual meeting in June. Several committees reported and by a unanimous vote George M. Harrigan was given a rising vote of thanks for the work he did in clearing up the land titles in Billerica making it possible to locate the shops there. It was also voted that a series of resolutions be drawn up by the secretary and presented to Mr. Harrigan on behalf of the board.

Secretary Murphy's report showed that the secretary had been a very busy man during the past month. President Greene said Mr. Murphy was efficient in preventing a huge advertisement from being erected on the building at the corner of Middlesex and Gorham streets, leased by the D. L. Page Co.

Daniel F. Carroll presented a report on behalf of the realty committee which was placed on file.

Henry A. Smith was elected a delegate to the state board of trade.

George M. Harrigan for the postal affairs committee reported on several matters which were brought to the attention of Postmaster Joseph A. Legare, one of which was the placing of cards on mail boxes stating the time of collection. Many of the cards have become worn out and have not been replaced. Another matter which the committee called his attention to was the collection of mail from the downtown boxes in time to get the late train for Boston and New York. Postmaster Legare has made arrangements for this as well as for the renewing of worn out cards on the boxes. President Greene and Mr. Harrigan made the statement that Mr. Legare seemed anxious to better the service and courted suggestions from business men tending to that end.

The following committee to bring in a list of officers to be balloted for at the annual meeting in June was appointed: William F. Hills, James E. O'Donnell and Frank Ricard.

This evening a general meeting of the board will be held at Lincoln hall which has been designated as "Shoe Night."

The speakers of the evening will be: Mr. Alfred W. Donovan, Rockland, Mass.; President N. E. Shoe and Leather association, Mr. Thomas F. Anderson, Boston, Mass.; secretary N. E. Shoe and Leather association, Mr. Carl M. Phil, "History of Shoe Manufacturing in Lowell," Mr. Charles F. Brigham, "Lowell a place to make shoes."

The speakers from experience are eminently qualified to address the meeting and an evening of enthusiasm and interest is assured.

After the formal exercises a general discussion upon the matter of forming a Realty company will be held.

MURDER CHARGE IN THE CHURCHES

Two Men Arraigned in Court

FARMINGTON, Me., May 11.—John Nott, aged 35, and Giuseppe Costiglio, aged 35, both of Chisholm, were held in the municipal court here yesterday afternoon without bail by Judge Pollman for the September grand jury, charged with the murder of Dominick Ventrelli, aged 40, at Chisholm, last Sunday night.

Dr. George L. Pratt of this place, county medical examiner, testified that the autopsy on Ventrelli revealed three stab wounds in the right breast and side. Two were wide and jagged and penetrated the right lung. The third wound was cleaner cut and had penetrated the liver. He thought two weapons were employed.

Other witnesses testified to finding the wounded man in his yard with his hands pressed to his breast, and to seeing two men answering to the general appearance of the prisoners running from the premises.

Joseph Cancellero, who boarded at the same house with the defendants, identified a coat as one taken off and left at the boarding house by Nott shortly after the stabbing is said to have taken place. It is alleged there are human blood stains on this coat.

Witness also testified to seeing a long knife and a weapon made from a river driver's pick pole in Nott's hands Sunday afternoon.

The men were captured Monday night in West Peru, near Rumford, and with them was Onorio Gallinelli, said to have fled with them from the boarding house. He is held in $2000 bonds as a witness, in default of which he is held in jail.

FIRE AT BANGOR

Two Persons Placed Under Arrest

BANGOR, Me., May 11.—Two people are locked up in the police station pending investigation of a fire which broke out shortly after 8 o'clock last night in a dwelling house with a saloon and poolroom beneath, on Front street, at the foot of May street.

The alarm from box 24, rung in for the conflagration of April 20 started the city. The property is owned by Mrs. Alice Haverly, leased by Pope D. McKinnon and was subleased by Joseph King, the upper part being used as a lodging house.

When the firemen arrived the house was found locked and unoccupied, but blazing furiously. The property loss will probably be $30,000 or more.

Joseph King and Alice Armstrong, his housekeeper, were arrested and locked up. King said that he had but $3000 insurance on the furniture, but when searched a policy of $1100 was found in his pockets, it is alleged.

Chief Mason of the fire department was at a loss to account for the origin of the fire, which he said appeared in several different places.

The Pawtucket Brotherhood of the Pawtucket church held a ladies' night in the vestry of the church last night. Supper was served and an interesting program was carried out.

First Congregational. The annual meeting of the Ladies' Foreign Missionary society of the First Congregational church was held yesterday in the church vestry.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Mary J. Boynton; vice president, Mrs. W. W. Kelley; treasurer, Miss Aubrey Liddell; recording secretary, Mrs. John A. Osgood; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Leonard Hartley.

During the social hour which followed tea was served by the hostesses: Mrs. Ecclestone, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Williams.

Missionary Society. The Women's Missionary society of the Worthen Street M. E. church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Green, 141 Wentworth avenue, and there was a very large attendance of members. The vice president, Mrs. C. K. Fleke, presided and the devotions were led by Miss Nettie Wilson. The mystery box conducted by Miss Julia Healey proved exceedingly interesting and a novel and entertaining feature was the series of stories told by members. Mrs. Hadley of North Chelmsford contributed two songs, Mrs. A. H. Slater being the accompanist. Refreshments were served by the postess. The next and last meeting of the season will be a basket picnic at Stearns grove, Chelmsford, on June 14.

WEEKLY DRILL. The members of Co. C held their regular weekly drill last night and the feature of it was maneuvers, held on a small scale. A squad of eight men was secretly encamped in the vacant lot in the rear of the armory commanded by Sergt. Larkin. The rest of the company were under the command of Lieut. Patten and were stationed at the corner of Westford and Wilder streets. This body sent out squads from time to time to try to locate the enemy, represented by Sergt. Larkin's squad. In connection with these scouting parties, a regular out-post was established. The work is very interesting to the men and is good preparation for the maneuvers in July. Capt. Peterson acted as inspecting officer.

MATRIMONIAL. Dr. Thomas E. E. Robins of Charlestown, P. E. L., and Miss Annabel deLong Savage, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Savage, were united in marriage last night at the home of the bride's parents, 36 Branch street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilson Waters, and was attended by a small number of relatives and friends, the illness of members of both families limiting the extent of the wedding festivities. The bride was handsomely attired in pink chiffon over pink silk and carried American Beauty roses. The ceremony was most attractive and at its close a luncheon was served to the guests. Dr. and Mrs. Robins will enjoy an extended wedding trip and will reside at Charlestown, where they will be at home to friends after July 1. No cards.

COMPANY K, 6th REGIMENT, ORCHESTRA

1st cornet, Musician Harry Girard; 1st violin, Private Warren White; 2d cornet, Corp. Edgar Luce; 1st cornet, Corp. Roswell Jefferson; traps, Musician Williston Carr; piano, Corp. S. R. Waller; flute, 1st Sgt. Harry Sheldon; 1st violin, Private Frank L. McCool; second violin, Lance Corp. Frank Huntley.

That Captain James N. Greig of Company K is proud of his new orchestra and his bowling team was evidenced last evening when he entertained the members of both at a delightful banquet served in his hospitable home, 76 Bellevue street, all the members being in attendance. After the discussion of an excellent menu

the orchestra opened up and entertained with a most acceptable program while Capt. Greig and Corporal Luce sang several pleasing solos. Corp. Roswell Jefferson, a member of the orchestra, made a farewell address as he resigns from the company to go to Boston where he has accepted a responsible position. The orchestra was organized a short time ago by Dr. S. R. Waller and is the only one of its kind in the Massachusetts militia. It is an amateur organization and is in business for the pleasure it affords the members of the company. It has appeared several times at the Army and before the Spanish War Veterans and the Women's Relief Corps, all ways making a big hit.

FUNERALS

FAY—The funeral of the late John Fay took this morning from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bridget Luppold, 804 Rogers street. The body was forwarded on the 11:15 o'clock train to Boston for burial. Undertaker C. H. Melloy and Sons in charge.

QUIGLEY—The funeral of the late James Quigley took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Sullivan, 17 Bowdoin street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends including a number from out of town. Among the latter were Mr. Charles Quigley of Salem, Thomas Doherty, Mrs. Catherine Doherty, Miss Margaret Doherty and Miss Mary Doherty of Malden, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe and Miss Elizabeth Lyons of Woburn, Mass., Richard Penney, Joseph Collins and Frank Collins of Danvers. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was sung at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Timothy Callahan, the choir under the direction of Mr. Michael J. Johnson sang the Gregorian mass, the solos being sustained by Miss Alice M. Murphy and Mr. Andrew McCarthy. Mr. Johnson presiding at the organ. The bearers were Thomas Quinn, Daniel Connors, John Quigley and James Wolfe. At the grave Rev. Fr. Callahan read the committal prayers and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

HOLLOWELL—The funeral services of Ellen E. Hollowell, wife of Fred A. Hollowell, were held at the Edison cemetery chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Woods of the Worthen Street M. E. church officiated. Appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. F. I. Roberts and Mrs. H. E. Symonds. There were many beautiful floral offerings. The bearers were Charles A. Frost, Ampa Orkins, William T. Hollowell and Thomas Brady. Burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery, in charge of J. A. Weinbeck.

RUSSELL—The funeral of Robert Russell was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30, from his late home, 333 Bridge street and was largely attended. Rev. J. M. Craig officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. W. H. Peppin sustained the solos, which included "No Burdens Yonder," "Sometime We'll Understand," "Heaven Is My Home," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The bearers were Jonathan Wood, Thomas Robinson, Albert Wood and Arthur Simpson.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, including a pillow inscribed "Our Robert," from the family; pillow inscribed "Our Second Hand," from the Boot mill; mule room; wreath inscribed "Uncle," from George Cameron; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dickey; wreath from Franklin House; wreath, employees of Lawrence Company; spray of pinks from Mr. John Russell and family; spray of pinks from Miss Jeanette Patrick; basket of flowers from Misses Margaret and Jessie Miller; and spray from Jonathan Wood and family.

Burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker C. M. Young.

Scored a Big Hit in Associate Hall Last Night

The Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, last night clinched the right of being co-members with the famous "Kings of the Black Face" when they presented a minstrel show, which while being their initial effort was a great success. It was the first time that the Knights' proposition for membership was advanced to minstrelsy, but it was such a success that it is a safe assurance that their friends may look forward to it as an annual affair. An audience taxing the capacity of Associate hall was present and long before the overture was started every seat was occupied.

At 8:30 o'clock two large "Old Glories" which hid the stage setting from the eyes of the audience were pulled. The scene presented was a most beautiful one, and was heartily applauded by the audience. Seated in four tiers were the members of the chorus, while the first row of the circle was occupied by the soloists, and men and women. After the applause which greeted the picture had subsided William F. Thornton, as introduced by the orchestra, introduced the first song. The first song was "Your Eyes Have Told Me So," which was given by Mr. Frank Connor, a young man with a promising baritone voice. He was followed by Fred Man Mr. Eugene McCarthy, who sang in a captivating manner, "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey." Mr. McCarthy introduced some very clever dance and march steps in his solo which caught the fancy of the audience. In the chorus of his song he was assisted by Miss Lena O'Neil, a young miss who took the solo part, while Miss Margaret McDonough and Mr. McCarthy harmonized. The effect was a very pleasing one, and brought the soloists rounds of applause. Miss Mary Corcoran, who substituted for Miss Vera McAdell, whose illness prevented her from being present, sang "Dearest, My Promise Me," which gave the opera, "The Chocolate Soldier," an envious position in the operatic world. Mr. Gookin sang it in an easy and artistic manner, and had to respond to several encores. Timothee.

FIVE LIVES LOST MAN WAS FINED $20

Men Were Suffocated in a Mine Near Larksville, Pa.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 11.—Five lives were lost by suffocation in the Boston mines of the Delaware & Hudson Co. near Larksville, near here, today. The dead:

GEORGE FERRER, driver.
JACOB KENULJA, miner.
CHARLES KUMSKI, laborer.
WILLIAM ADAMKE, laborer.

A strike began at the colliery on Tuesday and only a small number of men were at work.

Fire broke out last night in a section of the mine where rock miners were employed, but it is said to have been gotten under control without difficulty. Eleven men were at work in that section. After midnight the odor of smoke was detected and another alarm was sounded. All the employees in the inside workings made their way from a side vein to the main gangway, but the smoke had become so dense that nearly all were overcome. Several rescue parties at the risk of their lives then entered the workings and succeeded in taking out three men. The rescuers returning to the gangway stumbled over the bodies of the dead. The latter were brought out as quickly as possible. Several of the rescuers were overcome by the smoke. The fire continues to rage in the mine but the company officials state that they expect to have it under control in a short time.

He Was Found Guilty of Illegally Selling Liquor

In police court today Walter D. Falls, who was charged with illegally selling liquor in the town of Chelmsford, entered a plea of guilty, and a fine of $25 was imposed.

Larceny Cases

In police court this morning Fred Jeffrey was charged with the larceny of $3 from Mrs. Agnes C. Ouellette. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty, but after hearing the evidence the court found him guilty and imposed a fine of $15.

Mrs. Ouellette testified that on Feb. 27, Jeffrey and his step-father, Michael Lebouf, paid her a visit at her boarding-house in Dutton street. Later on during the day, Jeffrey returned and said that his stepfather had sent him to borrow $3 from her. The woman loaned the amount asked for but has not yet been paid. Some time ago she discovered that Lebouf had nothing to do with the borrowing of the money, so she made a complaint. The defendant testifies in his own behalf denied using his stepfather's name to get the money, and said that last Sunday he sent $1 to Mrs. Ouellette and that he was going to pay the balance this week, but the woman refused the money, saying it was too late.

At this point the court found the defendant guilty and imposed a $15 fine.

Dinner—Capt. Thomas E. Boucher.

Charles A. Clough is secretary to correspond with the Rebekah lodges.

LADIES OF G. A. R.

The members of Ladd and Whitney circle 8, Ladies of the G. A. R., met in Post 185 hall last evening. A bountiful supper was served from 6.30 to 7.30 which was followed by the usual meeting. One member was initiated and considerable business was transacted. President Josie Austin occupied the chair.

Officers were elected as follows: Provincial grand master, James W. Riley of Methuen; provincial deputy grand master, Collin McIntyre, North Adams; provincial corresponding secretary, James W. Gregg, Everett; provincial grand treasurer, George W. Rockett, Malden; provincial grand auditor, H. J. Wentzell, Cambridge; provincial grand trustee, Caleb W. Mulock, Cambridge. Delegates chosen were Louis C. Porter, Joseph W. Young of Springfield, James W. Riley, J. S. B. Clarke of Fall River, George H. Reedwell of Middleboro, H. J. Wentzell. Alternates will be Thomas J. Ashlon of Fall River, C. J. Thomas of Worcester, N. L. Pike of New Bedford. The six regular delegates are all past grand masters.

Firemen Called to Middlesex Street Store

At 9.08 o'clock this morning an alarm from box 72 summoned a portion of the fire department at the Adams Hardware company in Middlesex street, for a slight fire in the cellar of the establishment. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion. It is believed, and the damage was slight, partly caused by the smoke.
